

was made known about 9 o'clock as the doctors came from the house, although it was some time after that the bulletin appeared. The faces of the doctors clearly indicated their satisfaction at the condition of affairs. As Dr. Roswell Park came to his carriage he paused long enough to give a general survey of the conditions prevailing.

"The condition of the president this morning is entirely satisfactory," said he. "The bulletin will state this and it sums up the situation. The president spent the most comfortable night he has had since the shooting. He slept well and when he was awake he was cheery and even chatty. He is not receiving any nourishment thus far except by enema. This is an altogether natural incident of the case at this stage."

"Have you considered the prospects of his removal?"

"No. It is too early for that, but when he is moved he probably will go to Washington."

Bulletin Conservative.
Dr. Park referred to the fact that the bulletins were most conservative and gave results such as the medical fraternity would be expected to pass upon in the case of any citizen.

"It would be well to have it stated," he added, "that the president is not being deprived of the benefits of private citizenship. He is being treated exactly as any other citizen would be and is getting the benefit of it. We view the case just as that of any other man who might be similarly afflicted."

Dr. Park's latter statement will explain the fact that the official bulletins are based on rigid scientific principles, as they are applicable alike to all cases of surgery.

"Out of the Woods."
Dr. Herman Mynter was the next of the consulting physicians to come from the house. He was followed by Dr. Eugene Wasdin, and they walked down the street together. To the queries of the newspaper men Dr. Mynter said:

"The president is doing splendidly and he is out of the woods, if I may express it that way."

"Yes," chimed in Dr. Wasdin, "and he has plenty of daylight behind him."

Dr. Mynter said further:

"I have never been really optimistic, because I do not like to be prejudiced serious cases; but now I can say to you that everything in the president's condition warrants the statement that he is on the road to quick recovery."

Dr. Wasdin said:

"I have believed throughout that the president has a fair chance of recovery. Now I desire to say that the chances against that recovery are very slight. His temperature is splendid and his pulse is getting normal."

Dr. McBurney was in high spirits as he walked away from the residence shortly after the other physicians had gone. His face was wreathed in smiles.

"Is the president out of danger?" he was asked.

"We believe he is practically out of danger," he replied, measuring his words. Then he paused. "Of course," he added, "there are still possibilities in the case and we all feel better when a week has gone by. But his improvement is so marked, his symptoms are so good, that we feel safe in assuring the public that he will recover. Blood poison might still develop. We could not give a guarantee now, but the chances are remote."

"As for peritonitis, I consider : that the danger from the inflam- : mation of the peritoneum has : passed."

"Might not an abscess form about the bullet?"

"Yes, of course, the bullet may not be clean, but if it does we can easily locate and remove it."

"If the president continues improving and his convalescence is not checked, how soon will the secondary operation for the extraction of the bullet be performed?"

"Never," replied the famous surgeon. "That piece of lead encysted in the muscles of his back will cause no harm. Of course, if it gives him trouble, an operation will be performed."

"But you will use the x-ray to locate it?"

He shook his head. "Why should we?" he asked. "To satisfy our curiosity? That would be its only purpose."

His Confidence Supreme.
Dr. McBurney's supreme confidence in the case could not be overstated. His manner and bearing all testified to the conviction he felt. There were none of the reservations he made yesterday. Yesterday he plainly showed he was not yet satisfied. He then said a week should elapse before definite assurance could be given. This morning the president's condition was so eminently satisfactory that he felt safe in his announcement that the danger point had passed and that the president is on the high road to recovery.

"We have locked door after door against the grim monster," he said in conclusion. "I am satisfied. I am going to Niagara Falls to-day to see the sights."

KNOWLEDGE OF FOOD.
Proper Selection of Great Importance in Summer.

The feeding of infants is a very serious proposition, as all mothers know. Food must be used that will easily digest, or the undigested parts will be thrown into the intestines and cause sickness.

It is important to know that a food can be obtained that is always safe; that is Grape-Nuts.

A mother writes: "My baby took the first premium at a baby show on the 8th inst., and is in every way a prize baby. I have fed him on Grape-Nuts since he was 5 months old. I also use your Postum Food Coffee for myself." Mrs. L. F. Fishback, Alvin, Tex.

Grape-Nuts food is not made solely for a baby food by any means, but is manufactured for all human beings who have trifling or serious difficulties in the stomach and bowels.

One special point of value is that the food is predigested in the process of manufacture, not by any drugs or chemicals whatsoever, but simply by the action of heat, moisture and time, which permits the diastase to grow, and change the starch into grape-sugar. This presents food to the system ready for immediate assimilation.

It is special value as a food, beyond the fact that it is easily digested, is that it supplies the needed elements to quickly rebuild the cells in the brain and nerve centers throughout the body.

President Roosevelt read with eagerness the bulletin telling of the president's improvement. When he had finished he slapped his hands joyously, and, with tears in his eyes, said to Mr. Wilcox, his host: "There, didn't I tell you God would not let such a noble man die by an assassin's bullet?"

When the vice president stepped out to the address to the Milburn house, a secret service detective stepped up alongside of him. He turned around when he found the man following him and said: "I do not want you to follow me. I am not any one, and I am not afraid."

Then to the newspaper man with him he added, laughingly: "I am sorry to say that the Oyster Bay police force is not large enough to permit of an assignment of men to guard me, and if I get used to it up here, they might have to increase the force down there at the expense of the poor taxpayers, of whom I am one."

MOST BLAMES NEWSPAPER
Declares New York Journal Is in Part Responsible.

New York, Sept. 10.—The local anarchists are more inclined to blame "yellow" journalism for the crime of shooting President McKinley than they are to blame the speeches or writings of Emma Goldman. John Most blamed the New York Journal for the crime. Most is quoted as saying:

You wish to make this man one of us. Why don't you read the Journal? Look at the caricatures on the last pages, where your president is portrayed in a way that makes even a bootblack ashamed. Is it a wonder if this poor Czolgosz permits himself to be incited to make an attempt that may produce complications that we cannot foresee? These pictures daily show the president as a little, foolish man. He is ridiculed, and such ridicule affects the ignorant mind. Why should this murderer be called an anarchist? Why should the anarchists be held responsible for him? In China the schoolmaster is held responsible for wrong done by a pupil, because it is held that the pupil must not have been educated properly; so the schoolmaster is punished. Instead of punishing the drunkard who punishes the man who sells the liquor. Would it not be well to apply this rule in cases like this one in a white?"

Anti-Anarchy Bill in Wisconsin.
Milwaukee, Sept. 10.—Senator Julius Rohr will introduce a bill in the next session of the legislature to exclude from the state all anarchists and those engaged in teaching the doctrines of lawlessness. He said last night he believed that would be the most effective way of dealing with the anarchists. A creed so directly contrary to the spirit of the country's institutions.

ST. CLOUD'S NEW BUILDING
WORK WILL NOW BE RUSHED

Department at Washington Makes Some Changes—Credit Given Congressman Morris.

Special to The Journal.
St. Cloud, Minn., Sept. 10.—Postmaster H. G. Wire has received from the treasury department at Washington a copy of a letter addressed to the Angus & Gindler Chicago, accepting their offer to build the St. Cloud public building, but making some important changes in the plan and consequently the price. The Chicago company was the lowest bidder on the original appropriation of $50,000 and the department adds $1,750 because it has been decided to use four-cut stone in the building instead of rock-faced granite, and to substitute a substitution of terra cotta floor arches for concrete arches. The contract price is made at $47,989, and a bond of $24,000 is required for the fulfillment of the contract.

Fourteen months are given the bidders to complete their contract. The granite will be, of course, St. Cloud stone, and the local firm of Simmers & Campbell is understood to be the one to furnish it. After many vexatious delays it is expected to rush work on the building. The amount of this appropriation is $68,000, but from this the purchase price of the site to be used for the new building will be deducted. To Congressman Morris must be given the credit for securing the original appropriation of $50,000 and also the added appropriation of $18,000.

Word has been received here of the death yesterday at the Milwaukee soldiers' home of Jonathan "Doc" Taylor, an eccentric character who for half a century had made his home at St. Augusta, this county. He was a member of the Minnesota mounted rangers in the Sibley expedition and was a member of the Taylor's company. He was 68 years of age and had been an inmate of the home for two or three years. A son is at Park River, N. D., and it is probable that the remains will be interred at Milwaukee.

The state association of the butter and cheesemakers will meet in St. Cloud in the afternoon of the 11th inst. and it is probable that the remains will be interred at Milwaukee.

DIPHTHERIA RAMPANT
Section of Otter Tail County Has the Disease in Malignant Form.

Special to The Journal.
Fergus Falls, Minn., Sept. 10.—Diphtheria in bad form is reported in the town of Amor, this county. Earl, the 3-year-old son of C. Clintsman, died from the disease last week and a telephone message to-day announces the death of Mrs. Davis' daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Davis. F. N. Field's barn in the town of Carlisle was destroyed by fire last night and one of his horses was burned to death. Sixteen tons of hay and some machinery were also destroyed. Jay C. Clement, who created a sensation by trying to commit suicide about two years ago, was treated a divorce from his wife to-day on the ground of desertion. The couple have not lived happily together for a long time past and when Mr. Clement finally endeavored to hang himself and was cut down unconscious, his wife left him.

Earnest Jacobson was brought in from Oak Valley to-day to be examined as to his sanity. He was accused of trying to burn the residence of the police in his family, one of the children having seen him put a white powder in the coffee. He explained that the fire caught from coals falling out of his stove and said the powder which he put in the coffee was only common salt, and that he put it in for a joke. He seemed to be perfectly rational and the examining physicians thought the trouble was simply a family quarrel and released him.

The rails were made slippery by the crushed bodies of the insects.

A NIGHT OF TERROR

Forty Dowleites Almost Drowned Off Sturgeon Bay.

WOULD NOT TAKE THE CAPTAIN
Elder Pushee, a Mail Carrier, Was Good Enough to Command for Them.

Special to The Journal.
Marinette, Wis., Sept. 10.—Because they would not take along the regular captain of the pleasure yacht Aleda and felt safer with the protection of the Lord and one of their own number at the helm, forty Marinette Dowleites, men, women and children, were wrecked near Sherwood Point at the entrance of Sturgeon Bay last night and all had a narrow escape from being drowned.

The party left here in the afternoon with Elder Stephen Pushee, a local mail carrier, in command. They were bound for Sturgeon Bay where they were to hold a baptismal service for several converts in that city. Shortly after leaving a heavy sea started rolling and they tried to return, but were unable to make the harbor. They headed the boat for the shore and were tossed about until nearly midnight.

Scenes of terror took place on board the ship. The women and children and even the men went on their knees imploring the Lord to make the wind go down and the waves to subside, so that they might get safely ashore.

Very few of the men aboard had any knowledge of sailing and they depended more on their prayers than on their efforts to keep the ship on her course. Finally the stormbeaten craft, heavy with the water it had taken in and with her sails tattered and torn and her load of panic-stricken passengers, was tossed upon the rocks near Sherwood Point. There is a light house near there and the light keeper happened to hear the cries of distress and putting out in his life boat brought the party all safely ashore after several hours dangerous work.

Had it not been for the light keeper's timely succor they would probably all have been lost, as the boat started to pound to pieces and a messenger who brought a tug from Sturgeon Bay was unable to save the ship which was towed in a water-logged condition to Sturgeon Bay and is now in dry dock there.

The members of the party, after being taken ashore, were given stimulants and refreshments by the light keeper. They spent the night in prayers of thanksgiving for their deliverance from what they thought was certain death. Most of the men are well known residents of Marinette. They are still in Sturgeon Bay waiting for a boat to return home. The wrecked craft was owned by John O. Liden of this city, a wealthy lumberman, whose son has espoused the Dowleite religion and is a student in the Dowleite school at Chicago. The father is not a believer in the doctrine and will make the members of the local Catholic church pay for the damages to his boat, which may reach $500.

WORK OF PROFESSIONALS
Bank Robbery at Worthing, S. D., Was Done by Artists.

Special to The Journal.
Canton, S. D., Sept. 10.—No trace has been discovered of the burglars who entered the Farmers and Merchants' bank at Worthing Saturday night. The plans for robbing the money chest were carefully laid, and the robbers effected by digging under the vault, and it was only through foresight on the part of Cashier Ed D. Lewis that the bank was not completely robbed. The robbers, from all appearances the work was done by professionals.

The Order of Home Guardians, a fraternal life and accident insurance company, was organized at Canton last spring with strong backing of prominent business men of Canton and Huron. Up to a few weeks ago the order had met with no losses, and thus interested centers in the fact that "claim" had been duly filed and allowed. Harris W. Brenner, deputy marshal for this city, was injured by a wagon wheel passing over his left leg. He was a member of the order, and having an accident claim on his certificate, put in his claim and received an order on the beneficiary fund for the full amount.

Bad for the Fair.
Special to The Journal.
Winona, Minn., Sept. 10.—The Winona street fair was opened to-day, but the rainy weather of the past three days has so delayed preparations that there has been little done to-day besides installing the booths. The number of entries is greater than at any previous fair and the street attractions much better. The rain only keeps off for the rest of the week, Winona will have the best fair on record.

Waseca Arranges a Carnival.
Special to The Journal.
Waseca, Minn., Sept. 10.—Arrangements are completed for a grand street carnival to be held in this city Sept. 12 and 13. An attractive program has been prepared, the main feature being two baseball games between the Kansas City Western League baseball team and the Waseca team. Excursions will be run from the four directions and Waseca expects to attract the largest crowd in its history.

Change at the School of Mines.
Special to The Journal.
Rapid City, S. D., Sept. 10.—Professor H. P. fortunate occurrence for the organization. In case of a combination, should Stewart be elected, Torrance will undoubtedly be elected in 1902, and it is practically certain that this will be the result regardless of whether there should be a combination now.

The Torrance campaign is in charge of the Cleveland committee of John A. Rawlins post, ably assisted by Governor Van Sant, who has been working like a trooper ever since he reached here. A governor has been interviewed by all of the newspapers, seen leading men in a score of departments, and made some reliable preliminary figures covering the Torrance situation.

Rawlins Post Pays Respects to Gen. Sickles.

At 10 o'clock last night John A. Rawlins post, headed by the American band of Chicago, marched down Euclid avenue from its headquarters to Hollenden hotel and paid its respects to General Sickles.

The affair was one of the most pleasant of the many that will characterize the encampment. With General Sickles at the time was Corporal Tanner, Colonel George O. Eddy, who was master of ceremonies, and after the band had finished playing he made a neat address, in which he voiced the love and high esteem in which General Sickles is held by the Grand Army members everywhere. The address was a beautiful tribute to one of the last surviving major generals of the civil war, and was vigorously applauded.

General Sickles replied, and there was a graceful speech by Judge Torrance, who was followed by Corporal Tanner. Governor Van Sant and John Day Smith of Minneapolis brought the speaking part of the program to a fitting close, and then followed a period of hand shaking and informal chat. The event has no significance so far as the election of commander-in-chief is concerned, but will operate to preserve the friendly relations existing between the Torrance forces and those of General Sickles, no matter who shall be elected on Friday.

Sickles Praises Torrance.

General Sickles in his speech paid a very high compliment to Judge Torrance, and said that the Grand Army would probably be better served in the election of Torrance as commander-in-chief than the election of any other candidate. He referred to his age (he is 76) as amounting almost to a bar, and said that he should not feel badly if Torrance was elected.

The impression made by the speech upon the Minnesota men was very favorable. They feel that Torrance will be the second choice of the Sickles forces, and since they are also the second choice of the Stewart forces, they think that the Torrance candidacy is getting along very well. Still, as is indicated elsewhere in these dispatches, the result is very uncertain, owing to the large number of unpledged delegates.

A proposition already has been made to Judge Torrance that if he will wait until next year he will be elected by acclamation. The proposition has not been accepted, and will probably not be, but it shows something of the importance which the Torrance boom has attained.

STILLWATER'S FAIR First Day Augurs a Great Success—Many Exhibits. Special to The Journal. Stillwater, Minn., Sept. 10.—The street fair and carnival opened this morning and promises to be the best affair of its kind ever held in the St. Croix valley. At noon the exhibits were 600 in excess of those seen at any fair here before and were still coming in. The stock exhibit is especially fine. The crowd is a good sized one and will increase to large proportions to-morrow and Thursday. The decorations were completed this morning and the rain and are extensive and beautiful, the best ever seen in Stillwater. To-night, when the lights are turned on, a rare spectacle will be seen—800 or more incandescents and arc lamps illuminating the principal streets and corners.

The Stillwater Water company and H. C. Farmer injunction case was not heard this forenoon. Mr. Farmer files an affidavit of prejudice. The matter will come before Judge Crosby of Hastings the latter part of this week or the first of next. Clyde cleared to-day with a half raft of logs for the Standard Lumber company of Dubuque and a half raft of lumber or Dubuque. The Saturn left with a raft of logs for the Standard Lumber company of Dubuque and a half raft of lumber or Dubuque. The Little Falls baseball team has arrived here and will play three games with the Wolves, one this afternoon.

COTTAGES AT FARBAULT Board of Control Lets Contracts for Two Buildings. The state board of control let a contract this morning for two new cottages at Farbault for the school for the feeble minded. E. J. Daly of St. Paul was the successful bidder, at $28,000. The heating plants, plumbing, etc., will bring the total cost up to $33,000. We have of $7,000 from the appropriation made last winter. The cottages will be built of red brick, two stories high, with high attic. The girls' cottage is 52 by 78 feet, and will contain fifty beds. The boys' cottage will be devoted to epileptics. It will be 74 by 41 feet, and will contain thirty beds. The board will hold a session at St. Cloud to-morrow to consider applications for parole and discharge from the reformatory.

TERM OF EIGHT YEARS Hal Bellinger, Duluth Young Man, Sentenced for Forgery. Special to The Journal. Duluth, Minn., Sept. 10.—Hal Bellinger, the Duluth young man who got into trouble with a Minneapolis dentist by whom he was employed, and later committed forgery here, was to-day sentenced to eight years at Stillwater for forgery. Other charges against him will probably be dropped. Bellinger pleaded guilty after vainly trying to simulate insanity.

FLOCKTAIL FARMERS' SCHOOL Agricultural College Will Have a Large Winter Attendance. Special to The Journal. Fargo, N. D., Sept. 10.—The fall term at the North Dakota agricultural college will begin Sept. 17. President Worst has made some changes in the curriculum and the institution will be better prepared than ever to take care of the youth of the state. The college is attended almost exclusively by farmer boys. Each winter special courses have been arranged for the farmers who can devote three months to study. The indications are that the attendance this winter will be the largest ever known. The Fargo public schools have opened with the largest attendance in the city were instituted. Superintendent Smith has assigned the teachers and the work began without a hitch. Several new teachers have been secured.

SOUTH DAKOTA'S PROUD PART. South Dakota is here about 100 strong, led by Department Commander Snow of the department state. Besides him there are present A. T. Bridgman, assistant adjutant general, and J. L. Turner, assistant quartermaster general. Several other department commanders are here, among them J. F. Barker, N. C. Nash and Judge C. S. Palmer. In the parade to-morrow the South Dakota men will carry Mauser rifles which they first made famous six years ago and the banner they won in Chicago last year for having in line the largest number of men from any state.

Proportionate to population the South Dakota attendance this year will probably be slightly in excess of what it was in Buffalo in 1899. Two South Dakota delegates are present—B. D. L. Dudley and A. L. Drake—and two alternates—W. A. North and Charles Barrot—this completing the state's representation. Enough men from George N. Morgan post, Minneapolis, are coming from St. Paul, will be in Cleveland by to-morrow to permit these posts to be represented as such in the parade. Morgan post may turn out fifty men.

OTHER NORTHWESTERN DELEGATIONS. Two hundred old soldiers are registered from Wisconsin at the headquarters of that state. The number is being added hourly, and it is believed that by to-morrow will be more. Department Commander A. G. DeGraff, accompanied by E. B. Gray, assistant adjutant general, and by F. A. Bird, assistant quartermaster general, will represent the Wisconsin department officials. From North Dakota there are about sixty men in attendance here. They come chiefly from Fargo, Grand Forks, Lisbon and Devils Lake. In the parade to-morrow the North Dakota men will carry their usual emblem—a bunch of wheat on top of a staff. The Iowa delegation was due this afternoon, but will not arrive until late this afternoon. It is said to favor Torrance for commander-in-chief. Wisconsin has also been added to his strength, it is said. —W. W. Jernama.

THIN PEOPLE Should try Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Loss of flesh means that your food is not being properly digested. The blood becomes impure and the result is indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, flatulence, inactive liver and weak kidneys. The cause lies in the stomach. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will reach it and cure it. Be sure to give it a trial.
