BAND PLAYED RIGHT ON

DESPITE WRECK OF INSTRUMENTS. How Damage to Royal Italian Band's Instruments Was Promptly Cared For.

The storm of a week ago last Saturday evening nearly put the Royal Italian band out of business. The damage to instruments in the band stand, that was wrecked, was so serious as to hamper the work of the band and would undoubtedly have spoiled the remaining concerts in a large measure had it not been possible to repair the damage promptly.

Manager Ellery regarded the possibility of making good the damage at once as out of the question and was about to wire to New York for instruments to take the places of those broken or injured until repairs could be made, thinking he would have to send the broken instruments east for such repairs as were needed.

Monday by 1 p. m. the firm appealed to had delivered at the Harriet pavilion all of the instruments needed to take the place of those damaged and had taken the damaged instruments for repairs.

The band with this reconstituted played its concert as though nothing had happened. But what pleased Mr. Ellery more was the fact that by Thursday the injured instruments had all been repaired and made good as new, the brass instruments even being repainted.

This is a week of picnics in the West-minster church congregation. This evening the Christian Endeavor society will hold a business meeting at Como Park.

To-morrow, the Woman's Home Missionary society will hold a half hour meeting in the church chapel at 8 o'clock and will then adjourn for a trip to Minnetonka Falls.

The Riverside chapel picnic will be held to-morrow at Excelsior.

The annual picnic of the Welsh Presbyterian congregation and Sunday school will be held at Roswell Park, near Hotel St. Louis, Lake Minnetonka.
