Under the Rose
By Frederic S. Isham
Author of "The Minories"
Chapter 14—Overcoats

Men's Overcoats
Perfect-fitting garments are assured—
the patterns are exclusive—the fabrics are of "service-giving qualities."

Our men's Overcoats represent the highest attainments of expert designers. Being tailored by the best workmen, every garment as perfect as ready-to-wear clothing can be made.

Overcoats $25, $30, $35, $40, $45, $50, $55, $60, $65, $70.

Special Sale Raincoats, $15.
All are $10, $15 and $20 Garments.

There are a large number of unfinished worsted or tweed fabrics, but the majority are hand-twisted fabrics in dark shades, in either plain or fancy weaves. Many are imported craneflies.

Ingram's Clothing Half Price.
The sale of this reliable and thoroughly satisfactory clothing will continue during the rest of this week. At present the assortment is large, there being practically an unlimited variety of patterns in all sizes of suits, overcoats and trousers. The garments are plain and marked with Ingram's prices. To you the price, to half.

Ingram's Overcoats $10, $15, $20—We offer at $6.50, $9.50 and $12.50.

Ingram's Suits $10 to $15, $20—We offer at $7.50 to $8 and $10.

Ingram's Pants... $1.50 to $2.50—We offer at $3.50 and $6.50.

The Great Plymouth Clothing House, Sixth and Nicollet.