

RUSH'S INDIVIDUALITY
THE PERFECT SHOULDER

Many men mistake talk for facts—we deliver what we talk—The broad concave shoulder; the collar that sets close to the neck; the straight smooth drop to the front of the coat. It's in the Tailoring—we call it "needle shaping." A few dollars more than store clothes, but worth it.

Suits $15 to $30.

ROYAL BAND TO PLAY TOMORROW

CREATORE AND HIS MUSICIANS AT THE AUDITORIUM.

"The Genius of Things Harmonic" Has Arranged an Attractive Program for the First Concert—The Seats, Which Are Selling at Popular Prices, Are Going Rapidly.

CREATORE

James Montague in New York Journal. Creatore! Creatore! there's a fury in your form

That can lash the tamest music to a shrill and shrieking storm: To every order telegraphed from that hypnotic eye Reverberating kettledrums respectfully reply

While swaying like a wind-swept reed your body cleaves the air, Inciting boom, and crash, and crash and boom, and blow, and blare.

You frown upon the oboe and it grievously makes moan. You draw from the euphonium a grumbling undertone. You throw a double duck fit, just as if you liked the work.

To get results from yonder where the queer tympani lurk; Meanwhile the evolutions that you set yourself to do Resemble macaroni while the same is in the stew.

Old Patsy Gilmore, bless him, was a leader who could show Contortionists and gymnasts things they really ought to know. While our own John Philip Sousa, with his short but buffed arms, And his limber neck, possesses many captivating charms; But as spectacles, we own it, neither one of them would do for an instant in competing with a whalebone man like you.

Blessings on you, Creatore; if we all could work like that We would not get results that seem trifling, tame and flat. Could we but turn ourselves at what is given us to do

And keep that whirlwind lick up till we get completely thru, We'd make a noise perhaps ourselves to echo thru the four bars of music And get as much good out of life as you do from that band.

The much-talked-of Creatore and his wonderful band of Italian musicians will appear at the Auditorium for their first concert tomorrow night. Judging from the seat sale, Minneapolis is to give this great leader and his band a most enthusiastic reception at the new Auditorium. After a siege of grand opera and other heavy musical events, the royal Italian band is a welcome visitor.

Minneapolis' new music temple is admirably fitted for band music and this is the first real popular-priced opening of the big building there is every reason to believe that every seat will be taken. The evening prices range from 25 cents to $1, and the matinee tickets are 25 cents and 50 cents.

The programs for the three concerts will be great favorites with Minneapolis. The following is the program for the opening concert tomorrow night:

- (a) "Marche," Wagner
- (b) "Lola de Bal," Giller
- (c) "Grand selection," Berlioz
- (d) "Prelude and Pastorale," Brum
- (e) "Ballet of Sylphs,"
- (f) "Mephistopheles' Invocation,"
- (g) "Minuet of Wilhelm Tell,"
- (h) "Serenade of Mephistopheles,"
- (i) "Duet of Wilhelm Tell,"
- (j) "The Ride to Hades,"
- (k) "Pantomime,"

INTERMISSION.

Organ offertory. Battiste Serket from "Lola," Donizetti

Solo by Signor Tomaso, Clemente, Ciano, Piccirilli, Indaco and Giove.

Harp solo, "The Variations," Thomas Herpolt.

Overture, "Tannhauser," Wagner

In the course of the evening Creatore, "the genius of things harmonic," is seen gestulating in the most astonishing manner. Every fiber of his being in motion and with his long hair flying madly about his head, who he is wringing from his players a veritable musical cyclone; then at other times he appears hovering, wizard-like, over them, and calling forth the tenderest musical effects. The Creatore performance will be all that is expected of it and it will be one of the chief musical events of the season.

GOV'T DAM DAMAGED

Flooring of the Lock Torn Out By the Swift Current.

An attempt to wash out a sandbar which had formed against the face of one of the locks in the government dam at Meeker island in the Mississippi river was attended with disastrous results, the rush of water ripping up the flooring and doing damage to the amount of $20,000. For some time the sand has been banking against the face of the lock and as there was no dredge at hand, Captain Powell, the engineer in charge, ordered the gates opened on Tuesday afternoon, hoping that the current thru the lock would wash away the bar. This was done and the bar and flooring were washed out together. The completion of the dam will thus be delayed until about June 10.

Eugenie L. Sigler was summoned to act as a juror in the Ramsey county district court. There was no appearance and a bench warrant was issued. The deputy sheriff returned to report that the non-appearing juror was a woman and the wife of Dr. L. Sigler of St. Paul. She was promptly excused.

NEW STORE ON NICOLLET

"Ellence" Company Will Open Their New Store Saturday Morning.

"Ellence" Clothing has outgrown the store they have occupied during the past year on Fourth street S. and will Saturday at 304 Nicollet, formerly occupied by the Northwestern Coal company. The new store will have new fixtures throughout and will be a valuable addition to Nicollet avenue. The "Ellence" clothing sells for $10 and $15, "no more, no less," and is manufactured by the "Ellence" company of Rochester, N. Y. This company has a number of stores in the leading cities of the country and their clothing is sold directly by the manufacturer to the wearer, a system that is greatly in vogue these days.

The new store will be in charge of S. H. Walsh, well known to the clothing trade in Minneapolis, and he will be assisted by Antoine Chouinard, formerly with the Heinrich Clothing company.

The records of the day—deaths, births, marriages, hotel arrivals, railway time tables, real estate transfers, building permits and other information of interest will be found, together with want advertisements, on page 14 of this issue.

N. W. NAT'L LIFE IS APPROVED

L. W. Collins, President Northwestern National Life Insurance Company: At the close of the recent examination made of your company by S. H. Wolfe, in which was used as a basis the annual statement filed with this department as of Dec. 31, 1904, I made a report to the governor of this state on March 29, 1905, in which I used the following language:

"My judgment is that the financial condition of the Northwestern National Life Insurance company at this time is such that by a strictly honest and economical management of its affairs the actual rights of all of its policy-holders, under each particular contract, can be secured."

I have now before me a statement dated April 5, 1905. An examination of this statement and a further consideration of the affairs of the company have confirmed me in the views expressed by me as above quoted. My judgment is that the company is now solvent, and the personnel of the president and directors recently elected is such that honest and economical management is assured.

The agents and employees of the company should understand that this department has not taken charge of the company, and the change in the officers and directors in no way affects its existence or authority, and they should, therefore, make their remittances to the company promptly in the usual manner.—T. D. O'Brien, Insurance Commissioner.

PLANS FOR PATRONAGE AUTOISTS WOULD BE THEIR OWN POLICEMEN

CAPITOL COMMISSION FIGURING ON POSITIONS TO BE CREATED UNDER HORTON LAW.

The scheme of management for the new state capital has been referred to the Capitol Commission by Commissioner George D. Toit, Edgar Weaver and E. E. Corliss, who will report April 17. The committee will then recommend the positions to be created and the salaries to be paid out of the $60,000 allowed each year for maintenance.

There are many candidates in sight, and the inside track for superintendent of the building is believed to be held by E. D. Claggett of Princeton, sergeant-at-arms of the house. It is likely that there will also be an assistant superintendent, chief engineer and superintendent of construction. The secretary of the commission, Frank E. Hanson, will be retained in his present capacity. Plans were presented to the commissioners for walks and roadways, and bids for the work will be advertised.

The commission made awards for four paintings to be hung in the governor's reception room, each to cost $6,000. This will make six paintings for the room, as, besides the Fatherland painting, made by E. D. Claggett, let is completing one illustrating the signing of the treaty of Traverse des Sioux. The new paintings ordered are as follows:

- "First Minnesota Regiment at Gettysburg," Rufus F. Zogbaum.
- "The Fifth Minnesota Regiment at Vicksburg,"
- "The Second Minnesota Regiment at Mission Ridge," Douglas Volk.
- "The Second and Eighth Minnesota Regiments at the Battle of Nashville," Howard Pyle.

READY FOR BIG WORK

Portland Avenue Is Preparing to Spruce Up This Year.

Assessments of 6 cents a lineal foot for improved property and 3 cents for the work to be made by the Portland Avenue Improvement association on its members for the 1905 season's operations. Last year the expenditure was $12,120.

At the twenty-first annual meeting last night, it was reported by the secretary, G. W. Wakefield, that a Philadelphia scientific society has written for information concerning the scope and work of the organization. Officers were elected as follows: President, Thomas Downes; vice president, Dr. J. E. Stuart; secretary, G. W. Wakefield; directors, W. B. Tuttle, H. P. Gallagher, John McGregor; tree committee, F. H. Carleton, C. I. Fuller, D. Donahue.

The work of the association concerns Portland avenue from Grant to Lake streets.

FOR THE STATE CAMP

Castner, No. 2089; M. J. Wittich, No. 2254; A. Harris, No. 2329; H. A. Lund, No. 4419, and W. N. Brown, No. 4648, all of Minneapolis; Dr. G. W. Moore, No. 5895, Bloomington, and J. M. Davis, No. 6313, Wagon, Minn.

The convention was held at A. O. U. W. hall, No. 17 Seventh street S. Frank H. Castner acted as chairman and W. H. Kemper as secretary.

WOULD USE OLD CAPITOL

State Historical Society to Discuss Plan Monday Evening.

The proposed use of the old state capital at St. Paul as permanent quarters for the State Historical society will be discussed at a meeting of the society to be held Monday evening.

Members of the society are behind the proposition claim that the society would have much more room in the old building, and with changing a part of the old structure so as to make it fireproof, the society could not have a better home. The plan includes using the old senate and house chambers for general offices of the society, the former executive offices for a portrait gallery, and the offices formerly used by the auditor for an anthropological museum. The entire basement could be devoted to the newspaper department.

MAKER OF COMFORTABLE EYEGLASSES

Many persons really believe that no comfort can be attained in wearing eyeglasses except in sacrificing appearances by substituting the now-out-of-date spectacles. Our opticians made an exhaustive study of EYEGLASS FITTING FOR COMFORT and have succeeded in perfecting many improvements over the standard guards. Painful gripping and wobbly fitting have been eliminated.

The most popular of these improvements is the FINCH RIGID SPRING CLIP. This combines the elegance of eyeglasses with the comfort of a spectacle bridge.
