Let Common Sense Decide

Do you honestly believe, that coffee sold loose (in bulk), exposed to dust, germs and insects, passing through many hands (some of them not over-clean), "blended," you don't know how or by whom, is fit for your use? Of course you don't. But is another story. The green berries, selected by keen judges at the plantation, are skillfully roasted at our factories, where precautions you would not dream of are taken to secure perfect cleanliness, flavor, strength and uniformity.

From the time the coffee leaves the factory no hand touches it till it is opened in your kitchen.

This has made LION COFFEE the LEADER of ALL PACKAGE COFFEES.

Millions of American Homes welcome LION COFFEE daily. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity. "Quality survives all opposition."

(Sold only in 1 lb. packages. Lion-head on every package.) (Save your Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

"There are only two beautiful things in the world—women and roses; and only two sweet things—women and melons."—Malherbe.

The marriage of Miss Dora Deschene and Seward Jensen was very quietly celebrated this morning at 9 o'clock at St. Ann's church by Rev. Father Richard. After the ceremony, a breakfast was served at the home of the bride for the relatives. The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. J. T. Star of Butte, and Miss Antoinette Desjardins of Helena.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. Jensen leave for a short trip after which they will be at home to their friends at 603 Wabasha, St. Paul, after Aug. 1.

A wedding of unusual interest was that of Miss Elizabeth McClelland to Lafayette R. Adley, residents of the forest country of Itasca county. The marriage was solemnized June 28 at the home of P. M. Frost, Sunbury, Minn., by Rev. J. B. Atwood. The bride was a former Minneapolis girl, who was one of the pioneer homesteaders in the county. She came to the country four years ago, walking and packing to her homestead from Black Duck. She lost her way in the forest, and then, and since, has suffered her full share of the privations of pioneer life, but she has a fine claim in which she will prove up next year. Mr. Adley is from Madison, Wis., but until his wife completes her title to the land they will remain on her homestead.

Mrs. Adley is the daughter of Mrs. Abbie McClelland and the mother and three other sisters are homesteaders in the same vicinity. The wedding was a very pretty one, and the bride was dressed in dainty white, and carried roses.

The reception and ball given last night by infantry and artillery officers of Fort Snelling in honor of the cavalry was a brilliant affair and was attended by many guests from the city. The party was held in the new infantry barracks, which were decorated with national flags, palms and yellow daisies, the flowers being a compliment to the cavalry. The columns of the ballroom were bound with ferns and strings of tiny electric lights were very decorative. The verandas were hung with Japanese lanterns and green boughs. The decorations of the tables in the supper room were bouquets of yellow daisies, and the corner in which two non-commissioned officers served frappe was hung with green boughs.

Music for dancing was furnished by the Twenty-eighth Infantry band. The guests were received by Colonel O. J. Sweet, Major and Mrs. S. E. Allen, Major and Mrs. E. B. Frick and Lieutenant Jens Bugge.

Colonel W. L. Pilcher, Captain T. A. Pearce and Dr. S. J. White formed the committee on general arrangements, and the Minneapolis guests were: Colonel J. J. Clague, Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. W. L. Gerlach, Major and Mrs. G. H. Morgan, Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. F. C. Corriston, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Washburn, Mr. and Mrs. Grunow, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Daggett, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Law, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Suffie, Mr. and Mrs. Westlake, the Misses Morgan, Gerlach, Bates, Farnsworth and Harvick, Messrs. F. R. Salisbury, Deutsch, Stevenson, Holton, Terka, Paul, Hack, Paine, Riheladner, Bement, Nye, Delaney, W. E. Steele and W. Hargis.

Miss Blanches Stevens entertained at luncheon yesterday afternoon at Donaldson's tearoom in honor of Miss Florence Merrill of Springfield, Ill., who is visiting in the city. The appointments were carried out in a color scheme of pink and white. A large basket filled with sweet peas and ferns held the center of the table and at each plate was a pink taper in a crystal holder. The name cards were daintily decorated in water colors. Covers were laid for eight.

Miss Clara Prinz of 2112 Garfield avenue entertained yesterday in honor of her friend, Miss Mame Gebb, of Aberdeen. The decorations were sweet peas and daisies. Covers were laid for eighteen.

The members of the Mankato club have arranged a picnic at Minnehaha for Saturday. A letter of invitation to all old residents of Mankato in the twin cities to attend this affair. The officers of the club are Mrs. H. J. Long, president, and Mrs. H. W. DeGrodt, secretary.

LOEB ON VACATION

President's Secretary Going to Yellowstone for a Month.

William Loeb, Jr., secretary to President Roosevelt, left Minneapolis last night on his way to Yellowstone park, accompanied by Mrs. Loeb. They were comfortably traveling in a Chicago & North-Western private car. Mr. Loeb said he expected to take a vacation of a month, as this is the dull season at the capitol, and his services will not be so much needed until the arrival of the peace commissioners. He will make the most of the outing period and take a good many tramps and climbs in the mountains.

Mr. Loeb was quizzed as to the rumor that he is to succeed to a cabinet office, and replied in a noncommittal way that he was entirely satisfied with his present position and would not trade it for any other in the government service.

Laces, Embroideries, Neckwear. There will be a most unusual sale of fine laces at the Lace Store, 724 Nicollet, tomorrow. See the "ad" on page 5 in today's Journal.

GOUNOD AT LAKE HARRIET

Another large crowd was delightfully entertained last evening in the pavilion roof garden at Lake Harriet, the special program presented by Mrs. Gounod and the Park band, being taken largely from Gounod. While as different in conception from the writings of Wagner as they could possibly be, the works of Gounod lend themselves admirably to band arrangement, and the entire evening was one of almost unalloyed pleasure. It is very evident that the band is constantly improving, each concert showing the results of constant and careful training. For this success, both the band and its director are to be thanked, and Minneapolis is in duty bound to assist in the good work which has brought this city into the front rank of the musical cities of America.

Save for an occasional lapse in time on the part of some of the instruments, there was little to criticize in last evening's performance. The "Ballet Music" from "Faust" was beautifully rendered, and so was the fantasia from "Romeo and Juliet." The "Funeral March of the Marionettes" was also remarkably well interpreted. Repeated encores brought out some of the more popular music of the day, including a whistled number, which was very charming.

The soloist of the evening was Herman Bellstedt, who is daily becoming more and more of a favorite. His first number was Gounod's exquisite "Sing, Sleep, Slumber," and it was played with almost the expression of the human voice, the piano passages being especially fine. Both this and the second number were more insistently encored than Mr. Bellstedt was forced to respond to three encores after each number.

The next special program will be given Thursday evening, and will be devoted to Rossini. The new "University March," by Carlyle M. Scott of this city, will be given its first band presentation and will open the program.
