THE WEATHER

Minnesota—Snow made in Chatfield, Minn., the first snowfall of the season. The snowfall was said to be light.

EASTERN TOWNS

Detroit, Mich.—A crowd gathered at the Detroit skating rink yesterday to watch the opening of the annual winter carnival. The event attracted many spectators.

CHICAGO

Chicago, Ill.—A high-pressure system moved over the city, causing a drop in temperature. The sky was clear and the wind was calm.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

Tempestuous conditions prevailed in various parts of the United States last week, with heavy rain and snowfall in some areas. The temperature in the eastern United States ranged from mild to cold, with temperatures in the western states dropping significantly. The National Weather Service issued several warnings and advisories to residents in affected areas.
