DEATH CAUSED BY NAIL

REV. DR. GEORGE E. ALBRECHT
PASSES AWAY AS RESULT OF SLIGHT INJURY.

Complications following an accidental nail thrust in the foot was the cause of the death of Rev. Dr. George E. Albrecht, pastor of the Twenty-eighth Street Congregational church, whose funeral took place yesterday at 754 Second avenue S.

Dr. Albrecht was born in Germany in 1855 and came to America when a lad. Of his career, Rev. Dr. L. H. Hallock, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church, has the following to say: "After a thorough collegiate and theological training at Oberlin, Dr. Albrecht entered the service of the American Home Missionary society, and was instrumental in organizing the German department, of which he had charge for several years, covering the entire field west of the Mississippi river.

Afterward Dr. Albrecht went as a missionary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions to Japan, where he did effective work for eighteen years, when his health broke under the severe stress, and he was obliged to return. With his wife whom he married at Oberlin, he came back to this country, for rest and recuperation.

"Recovering in some measure, Dr. Albrecht was able to take up work again, which he did as pastor of the Thirty-eighth Street Congregational church in Minneapolis. There he accomplished much, completing the edifice, securing the payment of the debt and uniting the people in loyalty to their church and to the American cause.

"Dr. Albrecht's death has removed from the world and from our city, one of the ablest ministers, esteemed and honored wherever known, and one whom our denomination will greatly miss.

"He leaves a wife and three children, the eldest, a daughter, having recently graduated from the University of Minnesota. The sympathy of the entire city is extended to the bereaved family and church who have suffered an irreparable loss."
