The German Emperor as I Knew Him; Revelations From Court of Berlin

J. P. Slim, a well-known amateur English champion athlete and Olympic finalist, lived in a Potsdam palace for eighteen months, where he taught boxing and other physical exercises to Prince Oscar and Prince Joachim, the two youngest sons of the Kaiser. He also instructed the Princes Friedrich Karl and Sigismund, the Kaiser's nephews, as well as many of the younger scions of the Prussian nobility. He has a most remarkable series of first-hand experiences to relate, and his uncolored narrative throws valuable light upon the characters and dispositions of the various members of the family of Hohenzollern. Because of his close intimacy with the various members of the royal family, Mr. Slim knew first-hand many amazing incidents at the Berlin court, the most ceremonious in the world, and his revelations of the arch-Hun's personal traits are astounding.

This series of hitherto unprinted revelations has been secured by The Times-Dispatch, which will print it in daily installments, the first one appearing on Monday, April 22. If you would know the daily life and manners of the Hohenzollerns, against whom the whole civilized world now is fighting the battle of life and death, you cannot afford not to read them. ## MAN SAVED FROM LYNCHING

Oklahoma Crowd Springs Him Up for Alleged Disloyalty, After Overpowering Jailor.

(By Associated Press.)
TULSA, OKLA., April 20.—Henry Rheimer, who narrowly escaped death last night at Collinsville, Okla., at the hands of fifty men bent upon hanging him for alleged disloyalty, was brought here to-day by a deputy United States marshal, and announcement was made that he would be taken later to the Federal prison at Muskogee for safekeeping.

Rheimer was taken from the jail at Collinsville last night by a party of men, who overpowered the jailor, and was being swung into the air, when Charles Miller, assistant chief of police, reached the scene and pleaded with the leaders to allow the man the right of a hearing. Rheimer was lowered and turned over to Miller in a semiconscious condition. A physician dressed his badly lacerated neck.

Rheimer was arrested after it had been reported an American flag a defense council had ordered him to fly at his home during the period of the war had disappeared. He is fifty years old, and claims to be of Russian nationality.

SURVIVORS TELL STORY OF WRECKED ARMONIA

Seven Men in the Engine Room Were Killed Outright by the Explosion.

AN ATLANTIC PORT, April 20.— Survivors of the British steamship Armonia, torpedoed off the French coast in March, arrived here to-day on board a French steamship. The explosion of the torpedo killed seven men in the engine room. The officers and the remainder of the crew were picked up by a trawler.

EXPENSIVE LAND

Broker, Just Back from France, Says That Germans Will Pay
Price.

NEW YORK, April 20.—"If there is no rout or break in our forces, this will be the most expensive piece of real estate ever purchased in the history of the world, and the Germans will pay the price."

This, according to Seward Prosser, president of the Bankers' Trust Company, who has just returned from a visit to the western front, was the view expressed by one of the allied commanders in speaking of the recent German drive.

Three Blockade Runners Held.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., April 20.— Sergeant J. C. Chichester arrested three negroes and took possession of seventy-five or eighty quarts of liquor and an automobile yesterday afternoon at the tail gate on Richmond-Washington Highway, just south of this city.

The negroes gave the names of Frank Brown, of Washington; Cornelius Davis, of Linwood, Carter, of Richmond.
The men were brought here and locked up, the whisky put in a safe place and the car stored.

FRENCH GENERAL CONFIDENT

Declares That It Is Allied Policy to Permit Germany to Use Up Her Reserves.

(By Associated Press.)
OTTAWA, ONT., April 20.—One of the foremost French generals, who commanded the three French divisions in the heavy fighting previous to April 7, declared unreservedly to Reuters correspondent with the French armies that there was nothing disquieting in the present battle situation, "but, on the contrary, we have every ground for confidence both in Picardy and Flanders." The correspondent's dispatch, received by Reuters' agency here, quotes the French general as follows:

"The course of this battle, like all others, was essentially the same. Each side would continue to play blow and counterblow, endeavoring by weight of numbers or superior skill to find the weak points in the enemy's armor, and each endeavoring to retain sufficient reserves to turn the scale when the decisive moment was reached."

"After four years we are only within sight of this decisive point. The Germans have still got in France unused reserves and fresh divisions. The battle will proceed, and the next shock must be expected as soon as the flood pouring in through Baileul up towards Huzebrouck is checked. The battle may continue a month or more, but the entente will continue until the enemy reserves are exhausted, and his numerical superiority worn down to the vanishing point. Then our turn will come with the help of American divisions."

Extend Courtesy to Soldiers.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Duties will not be charged by the British government on parcels passing through England addressed to soldiers and sailors of the allies, it was announced here to-day.

WON'T PERMIT MUNITIONS MOVED FROM VLADIVOSTOK

Were Furnished by Japan to Russia, But Paper in Payment Has Been Repudiated.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, April 20.—While recognizing that an attempt to execute the orders of the Bolshevik government to ship the military supplies at Vladivostok to European Russia might precipitate conflict between the Japanese forces in that Siberian port and the local Soviet troops, officials here to-day expressed little concern over this latest development in the situation at Vladivostok.

The Siberian Railroad is in very poor condition, and, because of this fact, it was believed that the unskilled Russian railroad employees would be unable to move any portion of the vast store of supplies over the several thousand miles of railroad that lie between the Pacific port and European Russia. Officials here also were confident that any attempt to transport this material, which involved the suspension of normal freight and passenger traffic over the Siberian road, would fail, because of the hostility of the population of interior Siberia, which would thus be threatened with starvation.

A large part of the war material at Vladivostok has been supplied from Japan, and it is doubted that the Japanese government would permit any of this to be removed, particularly in view of the fact that the Bolshevik government has repudiated the Russian bonds and other paper obligations tendered in payment for these and other supplies. Then, too, leading Japanese newspapers have insisted that any supplies taken into Russia from the Siberian port would be commandeered by Germany for use against the allies.

FAILS TO ACCEPT REPORT

House Refuses to Listen to Statement by Postmaster-General Burleson.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, April 20.—The House to-day refused to accept a special report made by Postmaster-General Burleson on the amount of printed matter sent to American soldiers by the committee on public information, because it contained a statement by George Creel, chairman of the committee, which a special investigating committee of the House characterized as "impertinent and disrespectful."

General Maurice to Be Elevated.

LONDON, April 20.—General F. B.
Maurice, director of military operations at the War Office, is said to be slated for an important command in the field.
Major-General Wingham, deputy to Sir William Robertson when the latter was chief of staff, also is reported to be awaiting transfer to important duties in France. Other changes in the imperial staff are predicted.

Paying Taxes and Buying Bonds

You hear men say, "I paid big war taxes, and I think I've done my share."

Such men do not stop to think that this war must be financed by the people, whose freedom and safety are at stake.

Our government has wisely concluded that it will not raise by taxation all of the money needed for this war, unless it becomes necessary to do so. It has adopted the plan of 20% by taxation and 80% by bond issues.

The man who has paid his taxes under this program has done just 20% of his duty. To fulfill his whole duty he should invest four times the amount of his taxes in Liberty Bonds.

If incomes were equal, such a plan might almost be enacted by law. If every person were equally patriotic, the plan would work automatically.

Unfortunately, incomes are not equal, and patriotism runs high in some and ebbs low in others.

Because another is unpatriotic is no reason why a real patriot should depreciate his own patriotism.

If your taxes are large, it is because your profits are large---your ability to buy bonds also is large. You have prospered---probably because of the war. Don't let a slacker inventory your patriotism. No man has done his full duty in this war until he has bought all of the Liberty Bonds he can possibly finance.
