FIONS MUST NOT BE

VICTIMS OF SELF-DECEPTION
The plea of a league of nations has a accepted, but the Jeague will be fruitless if it is to be no more a new piece of international orization. What matters is that the swhich make up this organization libe inspired by a real determination of the world has been made secure. If they allow themselves to be missive by this polley they will only be wakened by a new war. They have see that the league of nations is the an effective instrument for the polley they will only be wakened by a new war. They have see that the league of nations is the an effective instrument for the fittin of every international problem their own readiness to make sacies in its behalf.

CONDITION OF SUCCESS "Disarmament is an essential contion of success. We cannot expect the nations ravaged by the war to ust their desolated lands to the proction of the league if its advocates estate to show any confidence themsistate to show any confidence themsives in its guardianship. To set up society of nations to insure fraterity among the peoples of the earth, hile at the same time increasing the unless and navies to insure effective arricide, is to make mockery of a reat ideal."
