PAY $2,000,000 INCOME TAX HERE IN SINGLE DAY

Hundreds Throng Office of Collector to Make Their Quarterly Payments.

OFFICE OPEN UNTIL MIDNIGHT

Those Who Failed to Settle Before Today Are Liable to $1,000 Fine and Additional Assessment of Half

It is officially estimated that $2,000,000 in income taxes was paid in Richmond

J. Robert Wade, deputy in charge of the income tax division of the United States Internal Revenue Collector's office here, remained at his desk until office here, remained at his desk until 12 o'clock last night to allow every person and corporation the fullest opportunity to pay the second installment of their income taxes and make any delayed returns. Strictly in accordance with law the second installment should have been paid on or before June 15, but as that date fell on Sunday another day of grace was given.

The offices of the Internal Revenue Collector were kept full of taxpayers yesterday, but business was transacted more expeditiously than in March, because the people being better informed concerning the income tax had not so cause the people being better informed concerning the income tax had not so many questions to ask.

Air. Wade stated last night that it was impossible to more than roughly estimate the amount of income taxes received at the Richmond office, but a rough guess would be that from $6,000,000 to $7,000,000 was paid for the period ending yesterday. He felt sure that about $2,000,000 was paid in yesterday.

BUILDING CODE REVISION WILL COME UP THURSDAY

Edwants Club Hears Report of Committee and Address by George Bryan.

In a report read yesterdny before the Kiwanis Club on work done by a committee appointed to suggest to the City Council changes in the building code, it was announced that the Ordinance Committee would meet at 8 P. M. at the City Hall Thursday to consider such changes.

W. Leigh Carneal, chairman of the committee, in his report to the club of the work done by the committee, stated: "The resolution calling for the revision of the building code has now passed both branenes of the council. This ordinance empowers the Ordinance Committee to act.

"The resolution states that the Ordinance Committee has as its advisers the Committee has a high and the Advertisers. The architects and two contractors. The architects and two contractors will be appointed by the Committee has a like has a

Not less than 300,000 people expected at Methodist Centenary Missionary Exposition.

A telegram received here yesterday from T. T. Frankenberg, director of the Methodist centenary celebration which begins at Columbus, Ohio, Friday, June 20, dispelled all doubt in the minds of Virginians as to the ability of Columbus to take care of the great growd which is expected to be in attendance on the religious exposition which will last until July 12. Not less than 30,000 are expected to attend.

Mr. Frankenberg declares that a careful survey enables him to make the statement that Columbus is prepared to handle a larger number of visitors than the highest estimate yet made possible of attendance at the centenary exposition.

Nothwithstunding restrictions as to other matters, the government has announced that a special low rate of one and a third fares has been authorized for the celebration. The low rate has increased work for the special committees which are responsible for housing the large influx of visitors, but the situation is being met.

SENTENCE IS SUSPENDED UPON AUTOMOBILE THIEF

Responsible, and Two Com-panlons Are Freed.

Louis Rappalan vesterday in the Hustings Court entered a plea of guilty to a charge of grand larceny, was tried by the judge and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. Sentence, however, was suspended until July 8 and the convicted man was remanded to jail. Rappalan was indicted for stenling an automobile, of the value of $400, the property of H. Sizer.

Companion cases of Harry Wilson and Nick Lingro, charged with the same offense, were nolle prossed, but the defendants were required to enter each into a bond of $300 for his good behavior for a period of twelve months. In pleading guilty, Rappalan declared that Wilson and Lorings were blameless, he alone having taken the automobile.

W. H. Toiliver and Edward Humphreys pleaded guilty to violations of the automobile.
W. H. Tolliver and Edward Humphreys pleaded guilty to violations of the prohibition law and were each given a fine of $50 and sentenced to serve one month in jail.

Governor Davis yesterday informed Oliver J. Sands, chairman of the Virginia committee of the war loan or ganization, that, in the name of the Commonwealth of Virginia he accepts the award of German cannon, captured in the war, and will order these trophies to be found in Capitol Square, Captured German cannon were awarded to three states in the fifth Federal reserve district for exceeding their quota in the Victory Liberty loan campaign. The states who were thus complimented are Virginia, Maryland and West Virginia. The District of Columbia had the largest percentage of oversubscriptions in the district, but in view of the numerous war trophies collected in the national capital the district waived its rights and left the competition to Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina. review of the year's work of the college.

The invocation was delivered by the Rev. James W. Morris. In the address of Dr. McGuire, he stated that he had accepted the presidency of the college only on condition that he was to be president in name only until sufficiently recovered physically to take up the work. He gave a brief report on the growth of the college and the improvements made in the past year. In his address he brought out the fact that a donation of $5,000 had been made anonymously to aid in the purchase of the home for nurses on Tenth Street, which is under the direction of the Y. W. C.
