BRINGING CHARGES HOME TO BRISTOW

Postoflice Inspector Cochran Sheds New Light on the Now Famous Report.

ASHINGTON, March 30 -The statements made yesterday to the McCall investigating committee by Chief Inspector Cochran, of the Postoffice department, were made public today.

Mr. Cochran confirmed the testimony of Mr. Waters before the committee that the original list of clerk hire cases was prepared by Mr. Waters in November after the original Bristow report was written and before it was

Mr. Cochran had ordered Waters to prepare this list on an order from Mr Bristow for the purpose of substantiating a statement Mr. Bristow had made in his report that there "was a hundred other such cases involving Congressmen," other than the few he had referred to in his report.

Mr. Cochran identified this original list and said he had received an order from Mr. Bristow to prepare this data and had detailed Inspectors Johnson and Niece on the work. Johnson hanthe lease cases and Niece the clerk hire cases.

As Mr. Waters of the salary and allowance division had also been detailed to get up a list of the clerk hire cases it was found that a duplication of work was being done in this respect and Mr.

Niece's work was suspended.
Mr. Bristow was taken ill when this work was begun in January and Mr. Cochran said he had taken the first half Cochran said he had taken the first half dozen cases regarding leases to Mr. Bristow at his house and Mr. Bristow had pronounced the form all right. He said Mr. Bristow did not see the finished reports, so far as he knew, of either the lease or clark hire.

The McCall committee held a secret session this afternoon.

BIGAMIST BETRAYED BY A CYCLONE IN ILLINOIS

Wild Wind Uncovers James McInerney and Lands Him in Prison

CHICAGO, March 30 .- The same cyclone that made James McInerney homeless in Indiana Harbor last week found a new home for him in the Indiana penitentiary. Justice moving almost as fast as the cyclone itself, has decreed that he serve five years at hard labor for bigamy. Had it not been for the windstorm which destroyed McInerney's house and left him with slight injuries, his whereabouts might never have been known to the wife who has just brought about his conviction.

Mrs. Olivine Anglais McInerney of Chicago, who claims that McInerney descried her in Hamilton, Ontario, fif-teen years ago, chanced to see his name published in the list of those in-jured by the storm. The result was the identification and arrest of McIoerney, who two years ago was married to a young girl of the suburb.
