Grain and Provisions.

Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Closing wheat prices today were practically identical with yesterday's final figures. Other staples are down, a little corn 14, oats 14 and provisions 10 to 10c.

In wheat initial quotations on July were unchanged to 24 lower at 34%3543. September unchanged to a shade higher at 15% to 75%368. Early there were conflicting elements—small receipts, a strength of foreign grain markets and a bullish Prussian crop report, as opposed to excellent weather in the Southwest and a bearish crop report from lowa. For a time the bears gained the ascendancy and quite general disposition to sell was manifested, resulting in a slight decline. July easing off to $44,0545. and September to 15%, and September to 15%, and September to 15% and 15%. September was unchanged at 7%.

Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 15% 600 bushels. Cempared with 270,400 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 185 cars, against 16% last week and 146 cars last year.

At the immediate start the corn market showed a little downward tendency.

against lev last week and 146 cars last year.

At the immediate start the corn market showed a little downward tendency, but the close was steady, with July a shade higher at 48½, after ranging between 48½ and 48½. September opened a shade to 460½ lower at 48½ to 48½, sold between 48½ and 48½, and closed 48½, $45½. Local receipts were 128 cars, with 18 contract grade.

Small receipts and a bullish Prussian crop report had a steadying effect on the sata market in the face of favorable weather conditions. July closed unchanged at 30½. September opened unchanged to a shade higher at 32½ to 32½ for $600½, sold between 11½, $1232 and 32½, closing at 32. Local receipts were 58 cars.

Provisions were weak under general liquidation, outside packers leading in the selling. The market closed near the low point, with September pork down

UTAH CABBAGE HAS STRONG SALE NOW

Red Onions Sent in From California -Strawberries Are Still

TAH cabbages have now entirely re-placed the Winningstadt variety, and form a very good substitute. The wholesale price of these is 6 and 6 cents a pound; they retall at 8 and 9 cents. Some red onlone came in from California yesterday, being the first of price is $3 a case. Tomatoes are down to $1.60 a crate.

wholesale price is from 65 to about 90 cents a crate of fifteen cups. Retail, they are worth 25 cents for three cups of some qualities, and 25 cents for two cups of better grade. Watermelons are still worth $5 a dozen. Singly, they cost 75 cents apiece.

A fall in poultry seemes to be the order of these days. Dressed hens are down to 15 cents a pound, and there are opinions in some quarters that they will be lower still in a few days, but the reduction will not hold good for very long.

Utah black bass is still the leader in the fish market. The price is 30 cents a pound, and it is thought there is little likelihood of a reduction.
