

SOCIETY

Water Stone of New York, Formerly Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick, a Charming Visitor to the City.

Here, following the game of the afternoon, Mrs. A. Fred West, Mrs. A. H. Edgison, Mrs. B. F. Caffey and Mrs. P. H. Hopkins took turns pouring tea and coffee.

Mrs. Charles E. Richards was the hostess yesterday at a delightful luncheon at her home to meet Mrs. C. R. Alley of San Francisco, who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge Thomas. The rooms were set with spring blossoms and the guests were seated at three small tables, remaining to play bridge later. The guests, besides Mrs. Alley and Mrs. Thomas, were Mrs. Leoyard M. Bailey, Mrs. Roscoe M. Eveden, Mrs. Frederick F. Stegmayr, Miss Jane Howat, Mrs. Will Browne, Mrs. W. D. Foster, Mrs. A. C. Maclean, Miss Mamie Ross, Mrs. Charles Tyng and Mrs. A. N. Humphries.

Mrs. Briz Cannon entertained at a bridge tea yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Loren Leary, twenty friends being invited to enjoy bridge and a number more dropping in later for tea. The rooms were beautiful with spring flowers, the dining room in yellow being especially attractive. Here, following the game, Mrs. Jack Gilmer, Mrs. Dean Braxton and Mrs. John Elliott Clark took turns at pouring. Among the prize winners were Miss Gertrude McGrath, Mrs. Titcomb, Miss Bella Blyth and Miss Leary.

Mr. and Mrs. Benare Grant arrived yesterday from Payette, Ida., and are visiting Mrs. Drusilla Grant and Mrs. Hunt at the Poplar apartments. Mrs. Grant is a charming girl from Portland, Or., formerly Miss Hazel Riley. Benare Grant was formerly one of the athletic leaders in high school and in the university, and he has a host of Salt Lake friends who will be glad to learn of his happiness.

Mrs. J. M. Callow will be the hostess this afternoon for a silver tea to be given by the seniors of Rowland hall. The social affair is planned to help raise the fund for the memorial window, which the class is pledged to furnish for the chapel. Mrs. Callow will be glad to have all her friends as well as the friends of the young girls in the class call at her home, 548 East First South, this afternoon.

Mrs. Stephen A. Bailey will be the hostess tomorrow afternoon at a matinee party at the Salt Lake theater to see "The Real Thing" with a tea at the Hotel Utah following the affair being in compliment to her guest, Mrs. Cooper Anderson, of Provo.

Word comes from Manila that Mrs. Hugh Walthall and her little daughter, Virginia, Mrs. Fauntley M. Miller, and their mother, Mrs. Storm, have left the station there and gone to Nagasaki, to be nearer to Lieutenant Walthall and Lieutenant Miller.

The friends of Bishop F. S. Spalding, whether members of the parishes over which he presides or not, will be welcomed to the reception to be given in his honor tonight at Rowland hall. The bishop has only recently returned from an extended absence in the east.

Another one of the delightful series of hops given by the officers and ladies of Fort Douglas, will be the feature of tonight, and Captain and Mrs. T. K. Barker will entertain at a hop supper following the dance for Mrs. O. B. Meyer.

Miss Anna McCormick entertained a half dozen friends yesterday at a tennis luncheon at the Country club to meet Mrs. Walter Stone of New York. The others in the party were Mrs. W. Montague Ferry, Mrs. O. J. Salisbury, Mrs. Ernest Bamberger and Mrs. L. B. McCormick.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Esther Allen Grew for a violin recital for her little pupils to be given Friday evening, May 11, in the First Congregational church.

Mrs. Stephen A. Bailey will entertain a party of friends at a luncheon today at the Ails club in compliment to Mrs. Cooper Anderson of Provo, who is her guest for a short time.

Miss Bella Blyth will entertain at a bridge tea this afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jack Kitch in compliment to Miss Loren Leary.

Miss Leary will be a guest of honor at an evening affair tonight given by Mrs. George M. Bacon.

Mrs. W. C. Alexander will entertain at a luncheon tomorrow at the Brannford and at a second affair next Wednesday at the Country club.

Mrs. A. S. Peters will entertain at a luncheon next Tuesday at the Hotel Utah. Edna Cohn, who leaves shortly for Europe, will be a guest.

Mrs. George O. Red will entertain a few friends at a bridge tea at the Hotel Utah next Monday afternoon.

Miss Edna Cohn will entertain a party of friends at the matinee tomorrow afternoon at the Salt Lake theater in compliment to Miss Loren Leary.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Has Been Helping Women For Forty Years

Over 40 years old! Why? Because it has been a boon to suffering womankind. It has survived forty years of ignorance, prejudice and jealousy, and is today more popular and doing more good than at any time in its history.

For woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements causing headache, backache, dragging-down pain or distress and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a successful remedy.

It tones the system in general, and the organs distinctly feminine in particular. Makes the weak strong, and banishes mental worry. Makes life worth living.

Contains neither alcohol nor narcotics. Ingredients printed on wrapper of every bottle.

Every sick woman may consult us by letter, absolutely without charge. A regular graduated physician will carefully read and answer your communications. All replies are mailed sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them.

Write without fear as without fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y. different members of the section, instead of having one long paper.

The Women's Missionary society of the Central Christian church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. W. H. Lepper on South Ninth East street. Mrs. A. T. McCann was chairman of the meeting. A paper on "The Argentine" which proved instructive, was given by Mrs. J. Cecil Alter. Mrs. Charles Zimmerman gave an interesting paper on "What the Christian Church is Doing in the Argentine." Informal music was rendered and tea was served. The house looked sprightly in apple blossoms.

The Ladies' Literary club will meet for the annual election of officers at the club house at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Nominations for the various offices were made some time ago as follows: President, Mrs. E. B. Critchlow, first vice president, Mrs. W. F. Adams and Mrs. M. O. Slesick, second vice president, Mrs. G. F. Steinhilber, recording secretary, Mrs. Frank Anderson and Miss Janet Williamson, corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. T. McCann and Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. L. J. Eastman, Mrs. H. R. Klingender and Miss Edyth Evans, directors, of whom three are to be elected for a term of two years. Mrs. F. L. Oswald, Mrs. L. J. Eastman, Mrs. H. R. Klingender, Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. Lafayette Hanchett, Mrs. A. B. Gibson and Mrs. A. H. Warren.

St. John's guild gave a silver tea at the residence of Mrs. Silver on Bryan avenue yesterday afternoon. A nice sum was realized in a silver offering for the benefit of the church. St. Peter's guild held an all day session yesterday at the church.

Narragansett Noble Grands club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Ida B. Rasmussen and Mrs. Louisa Winegar at Mrs. Rasmussen's home in Ouray place.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy will hold a business meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. F. Farrell, 312 Second avenue.

The dramatic section of the Ladies Literary club gave a theater party at the Garrick yesterday afternoon to witness the presentation of the play written by the chairman of the section, Mrs. Eugene R. Palmer, "The Danger Signal," which is running at the Garrick this week as a curtain raiser.

An excellent dramatic and musical entertainment was given at the residence of Mrs. Isabel M. Pitt, 535 South Main street, last night, under the auspices of St. Paul's guild. The programme was in charge of Mrs. Annie Adams Kiskadden and John T. Berkhoel.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be with Mrs. W. F. Core, 1022 Second avenue, Friday, May 10, 1912. The president, Mrs. C. A. Walker, will preside. Devotions will be led by Mrs. L. H. Page. Music will be in charge of Miss Winifred Crispin. An address will be given by Rev. Smith of Westminster Presbyterian church on "Anti-Narcotics."

Mrs. Mary Kuhl, a prominent W. C. T. U. national worker, who recently visited Salt Lake, suffered an accident in Wyoming which necessitated the canceling of her dates in that and other states. She is now on her way to Chicago, accompanied by her husband, who was called to her bedside.

News and Notes of Women's Clubs

Spirit of Liberty chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its final meeting for the year Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. R. W. Fisher, 275 Fifth East street. The annual election of officers took place and a program committee was appointed for next year. Only two changes were made in the list of officers. Mrs. L. E. Hall was elected regent and Mrs. W. C. Alexander was made a director in Mrs. Hall's place. The other officers are: Mrs. Mollie Stark Breeden, vice regent; Miss Edith Mudgett, secretary; Miss Anna Youngman Decker, treasurer; Mrs. Edith Alden Stohr, registrar; Mrs. A. E. Cook, historian. The directors are Mrs. W. C. Alexander, Mrs. J. E. Oglesby and Mrs. Lorette Stephens. The program committee consists of Mrs. Seth W. Morrison, Mrs. F. C. Jansen and Mrs. E. L. Dodge.

An interesting programme was carried out. Mrs. Fisher read King's "If" and Miss Margaret B. McConnell read a clever original poem entitled "A Woman's If." Tea was served following the programme. The house was prettily decorated in pink and white roses and carnations. The tea table had a center piece of roses and carnations. Mrs. R. B. Bennett and Mrs. Robert Gemmill presided at the tea table.

The history section met Thursday morning at the club house. An excellent paper on "France of Today" was given by Mrs. J. C. Hooper. The section decided to study "Colonial History of America" next year, with especial reference to social and economic conditions of that period. The following programme committee was appointed: Mrs. E. O. Leatherwood, chairman; Mrs. D. S. Straus, Mrs. C. F. Kutnewsky, Mrs. Byron Groo and Mrs. Allen T. Sanford.

It was decided to appoint a chairman for each meeting of the second and fourth Thursday of the month, and to have the leader assign brief topics to
