AGREEMENT IS REACHED WITH RUSSIAN BEAR

Arrangement Made by Which Tariff War Will Not Follow Expiration of Trade Treaty on Dec. 31.

KNOX NEGOTIATES WITH BAKHMETEFF

So Far as Known Russia Still Declines to Issue Passports to Jews Who Are American Citizens.

ASHINGTON, Nov. 14 .- An agreement between the United States and Russia to take the lince of the commercial treaty of 1832, the abrogation of which becomes effective January 1 next, has been virtually reached, according to information from a high official. Nothing as to the exact nature of the agreement is announced. It was declared probable, however, that it would be worked out satisfactorily to both countries before the day when the old treaty would expire.

This advanced stage in the negotiations, has been reached only after a number of conversations between Secretary Knox and Russian Embassador Bakhmeteri, beginning last summer and continued at frequent intervals, the inst occurring today.

Old Method Too Slow.

Thi scourse was adopted rather than the usual method of exchange of formal notes, as better calculated to seoure a speedy disclosure of the exist-ing conditions in the United States and Russia likely to affect the two governments in their efforts to provent a complete rupture of their vast commercial relations. Only in a general way can it be said that an understanding exists that such a breach shall not take place, for the details of the arrangement are to be worked out. Even with the best of intentions or the part of the negotiators because of the difficulty of rapid communication between Washington and St. Peters-burg, save by the unsatisfactory cable method it will consume little less than the seven weeks that intervene between the present date and December 31, when the old treaty expires, to accomplish this mutually desired result.

Details Unknown.

Because of the extreme delicacy of the subject and the possibility of the complete failure of the proposed agree-ment if there should be public discussion and criticism, neither party to the negotiations is willing to throw any light on the details of the arrange-ment, and in fact it is even impossible to secure an official admission that the agreement is within sight.
From such sidelight as is obtainable, however, it appears that Russia has not consented to modify its practice of refusing passports to Americans or other non-Russian Jews. The czar's of the season. government has always held that Jews. ven though they are American citiin Russia because the existing treaty provides that any American seeking to enter Russia shall submit to the there prevailing.

Attitude Unalterable.

The state department never has ad mitted the soundness of this contention, when congress, by resolution, ordered the denunciation of the treaty, the actual, though not the formal ground being this alleged discrimination against American citizens, the department's attitude necessarily became With such a wide difference between the two countries it seemed an almost hopeless undertaking to prevent a complete severance of trade relations between two friendly

It is said that in all probability Russia will meet the issue by refraining from applying her maximum (and practically exclusive) tariff duties to imports from America. In the ordinary

Such action on the part of the Rus-sian government would relieve Presi-dent Taft from the necessity of impos-ing, in retaliation, the maximum Ameriduties on imports from Russia, thus trade between the two countries might continue pending the ave of future negotiations for permanent treaty.

Insure Your Valuables.

Most people are careful to have houses, furniture and similar property insured against loss by fire or theft. But for bonds, stocks, deeds, mortgages, important papers. heirlooms and jewelry often no provision is made.

Why not insure your valuables—you can reme the the modern Safe Deposit vault of this company and secure a for them form of insurance for them that is fire and burglar proof.

SALT LAKE'S ANNUAL CHARITY BALL DAZZLING EVENT LABOR FEDERATI GAY THRONG GATHERS TO DANCE IN WORTHY CAUSE

Last night's ball was the climax of the series of brilliant affairs given aunually for charity. All society and near-society was at the ball. The affair was so well patronized that at times the large dancing floor was so crowded as to make dancing decidedly difficult and the merry throng overflowed, filling the balconies and spacious drawing rooms on the mezzanine. The occasion was most enjoyable and the large number of persons present seemed only to add to the pleasure and merriment of the occasion.

Gayest of Season.

Without doubt the charity ball was quite the gavest of the large social functions of the season. It brought forth a multitude of beautiful frocks and charming wearers. The gowns ran to colors with pink and red predominatcourse after the lapse of the existing treaty. December 31, these maximum rates automatically would apply to imports from a country with which Russia has no such trade treaty. But it is suggested that through a decree or an imperial order in council, this may be postponed indefinitely.

These frocks, typifying the last word in the art of the modiste, lent brilliant hues to the animated, everchanging picture in the ball room and on the balconies overlooking the busy hotel lobby.

While the ball was a function given ing. These frocks, typifying the last While the ball was a function given for charity, its character approached the semi-official. Governor William Spry, Mayor Samuel C. Park and most of the other prominent members of the official family of the state and city were present. Colonel J. A. Irons and several other army officers from Fort Douglas also attended.

Financial Success.

Financially the ball was quite as disfinct a success as it was socially. Willing patrons and patronesses aided charity greatly by their generous purchase of linkels. The receipts exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the good ladies who worked so hard to make the ball the success that it was. In addition to a most enjoyable evening the patrons of the Charity ball have the assurance that practically all of the gross receipts go to a worthy charity—the care of the sick and indigent.

The dance was opened with the grand march, led by the members of the board of St. Mark's Hospital association, Governor Spry, Mayor Park and other distinguished patrons. The pretty figures of the march were executed with charin and grace. The music was of the very best.

Well-Selected Programme.

Twerry-one charming dance numbers, with four extrax, occupied the merry orowd until well after midnight. Many of the older folk who danced only in fond reminiscence watched the younger ones dance and enjoyed the evening fully as much as the dancers. Some of the younger dancers defied Charity bail traditions so far as to do some clever "ragging" or a bit of a Boston during the ovening.

Punch bowls, prettily decorated and always popular, were to be found on either

The arrangements for the big affair were as near perfect as was humanly possible to make them. There was nothing lacking, and the warm, hospitable spirit pervaded everywhere. The success of the orilliant function reflects great credit on the women of the association who had the ball in charge.
