LOYALTY TO FLAG IS SUBJECT OF DEBATE

School Board Members Divided Upon Question of Compulsory Salutation.

MOYLE IS AGAINST IT

Matter to Be Finally Passed Upon at Meeting on December 21.

Whether loyalty to the American flag shall be compulsory or optional with the pupils in the public schools of Salt Lake City will be decided by the board of education at a meeting to be held Saturday afternoon, December 21.

Oscar W. Moyle, a member from the Third ward, brought the matter before the board last night on a motion that the board meet as a committee of the whole to decide upon and for all whether patriotism and loyalty shall be compulsory.

Mr. Moyle declared himself as strongly against compulsory salutation of the flag, declaring warmly that the very word "compulsory" in itself defeated the virtue of the act.

Moyle Is Emphatic.

"These of all children are in need of what the school system has to offer," he exclaimed, "and I doubt the wisdom of shutting them from the blessed privilege of an education merely because they give expression to opinions that in themselves betray the children's need of further education."

Superintendent Is Heard.

D. H. Christensen, superintendent of the public schools, who is seeking to have the state constitution amended to make the teaching of patriotism compulsory, explained his stand in the recent flag-saluting episode.
