

News of the Society World

THE days of the week just opening are crowded from morning till evening, and long past, with social events for those who find their enjoyment in this way. Two large evening affairs will take the attention of the public, one at the beginning of the week and one later on. The concert to be given by John T. Hand in the Salt Lake theater Monday evening with Professor J. J. McClellan assisting is to be quite a society event, and the members of the governor's staff and their wives will all be in attendance. Later in the week the same officials together with the governors, past and present, and all the ladies of the present staff will occupy boxes at the Elks' benefit performance at the Orpheum Friday night having been chosen as the special society night.

The custom of Sunday afternoon teas and Sunday night suppers, which is always revived in the spring time, is being observed. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford R. Pearsall will entertain a large company of friends at a supper this evening at their home in Haxton place for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Caine. Mrs. Charles Albert McClain will entertain a party of young people at a tea this afternoon for Miss Ferrol McClain at the McClain home, 433 Douglas avenue. Mrs. Bello C. Ditto of Fort Douglas will entertain at a bridge tea on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Adolph H. Quist will give a similar affair for Mrs. Andrew W. Gorey the same day, and Mrs. C. I. Tuttle will entertain at a large bridge party and tea at the Country club for Mrs. R. B. Bittinger, who is here from California for a short stay.

Mrs. W. Edward Fife and her sister, Miss Coggriff, will entertain at a large luncheon at the Country club Tuesday. Mrs. Howard R. Merrill will entertain at a bridge tea Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. C. L. Merrill of Berkeley. Wednesday will be devoted to the usual midweek luncheon at the Country club, although numerous other affairs are planned. Mr. and Mrs. John C. D. Clark have issued invitations for a dinner that evening at their home and also for another on Saturday evening following. Captain and Mrs. Estes of Fort Douglas also have a dinner that evening. Mrs. Austin King Tiernan has issued invitations for a large tea at her home Thursday afternoon for Mrs. C. L. Merrill and Mrs. P. S. Kenna, visitors in the city. Mrs. William D. Donohoe and her sister, Mrs. George Airis, will entertain at a luncheon at the Donohoe home in Federal Heights on Friday for some of their friends.

ONE of the most elaborate events of the season was the musical tea of yesterday afternoon given by the members of the music section of the Ladies' Literary club as a close of the year's work and to entertain their friends. The clubhouse was bright with flowers, and during the early afternoon a beautiful musical programme was rendered. Mrs. Lenore Gordon Harrison singing the selection "One Fine Day," from "Madame Butterfly," the Euterpe society under Mrs.

THICK DANDRUFF OR SMALL SCALES

Head Sore from Eruption. Very Painful, Began as Red Rash. Hair Came Out in Spots. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In a Month Head Well and Smooth.

Crozier, N. M.—"When my little brother was six months old his head became sore from an eruption and instead of healing it turned to a solid scab and was very painful. The trouble began as a red rash which developed into a thick dandruff or small scales and then under this formed pus, and it soon spread all over the top of his head. He was very cross and fretful and did not sleep well. His hair came out in spots."

"Mother tried lots of home remedies but they did no good. Then a friend told mother about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and she used them. She used the Cuticura Soap to wash and cleanse his head, then applied the Cuticura Ointment and in one month his head was entirely well and smooth."

"My own little boy developed a case similar to my brother's when he was a baby. We used Cuticura Soap and Ointment in time and he was cured in eight days." (Signed) Mrs. Lucy G. Bloomfield, Aug. 20, 1912. Cuticura Soap (25c.) and Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are sold everywhere. A single set is often sufficient. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Miss Lorna Russell

W. A. Wetzel singing "Autumn Violets," with an obligato by Mrs. J. W. Curtis. The High School Glee club, under Mrs. Waldron, rendered several selections and Mrs. Frank Larson presented a little Japanese playlet. The affair was managed by Miss Janet Williamson and Mrs. C. C. Dudley of the section, and the guest were received by Mrs. A. H. Peabody, the section chairman and the newly elected first vice president of the club; Mrs. Jack Taylor, Mrs. James Hogle, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. W. W. Ferguson and Mrs. W. J. Barrett. Mrs. J. C. Hanchett had charge of the tea room, and here Mrs. Charles A. Quigley, Mrs. Edwin L. Sheets and Mrs. F. S. Murphy took turns at the tea table, while a whole bevy of young girls assisted them. Miss Pearl Savage took charge of the punch bowl, and here also a number of the younger girls assisted. The clubhouse was well filled both for the programme and for the tea.

THE members of the evening Auction Bridge club met Friday evening for the regular fortnightly game in the Officers' club and sixteen players enjoyed the game, the prizes going to Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Craig, Major Uline and Captain C. C. Smith. Later the company was taken to the Uline quarters, where a delicious Dutch supper was served.

MISS LORNA RUSSELL, whose picture appears today, is one of the most attractive young girls who comes to Salt Lake as "home" for her summers. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Russell (Ada Dwyer) and a granddaughter in the Dwyer home, which is brightened each year by her home coming. During the past winter she has made her debut on the stage, playing with Brandon Tynan and Pauline Frederick in "Joseph and His Brethren." She arrived in the city the first of the week, and has already been greeted at numerous social affairs since her coming. She and her aunts entertained Miss Frances Starr at a luncheon Friday at the Dwyer home.

THE Misses Josephine, Eva and Georgia Williams, daughters of Senator and Mrs. W. N. Williams, were the hostesses yesterday afternoon at a delightful tea at their home on West Temple street, at which over a hundred friends were entertained. The young hostesses and their mother received the guests, while their married sisters, Mrs. R. N. Wilson; Mrs. Earl G. Van Law and Mrs. Hal Smith took turns at the tea table. Here, assisting in serving, were the Misses Mary Snell, Stella Snell, Claire Smith, Myrtle Hammond, Phyllis Dwyer, Genevieve Wright and Eva Lund, and at the punch bowl near by Miss Bae William and Miss Mary Butler served punch. The Troubadours furnished music for the afternoon and the home was gay with many flowers.

THE usual aversion to marriages in May is quite noticeable this year, the first week having gone by without a single nuptial knot being tied in society. The latter part of the month several such events will be celebrated, however, despite the evident desire to wait until the month of June. Early in that month a number of those interesting affairs will take place, that of Miss Marguerite Stewart and Lieutenant Frederick Palmer being set for June 3, that of Miss Rose Evans and William McCurdy for June 4 and that of Miss Ethel Brown and Captain Robert W. Mearns for the same day.

COLONEL and Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes, who have been spending some time at the Hotel Maryland in Pasadena, have gone back to their own beautiful home there, El Roble, and will probably remain for the better part of the summer. They are expecting the colonel's daughters, the Misses Harriet and Olive Holmes, from Chicago to visit them for a part of the summer. Later Mrs. Holmes will probably come up for a short time to visit Mr. and Mrs. Jay T. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lamb here. Meantime, Oakwood has been established as the place of residence of that interesting young bride and groom, and the young friends of the two are planning numerous affairs in honor of their home coming from their honeymoon.

CAPTAIN and Mrs. Harold D. Coburn entertained a few of their army friends last evening at another series of dinners at their quarters. Spring flowers were used for decorations, and the guests were Colonel and Mrs. Frederick Perkins and their house guest, Miss Mansur, Major and Mrs. Charles Crawford, and Lieutenant and Mrs. George F. M. Dailey.

ONE of the delightful pre-nuptial affairs for Miss Marguerite Stewart was the bridge tea yesterday afternoon at the Wall home, at which Mrs. Lewis A. Jeffs and Miss Mary Wall entertained about thirty of the young girl friends of the bride. The tables were arranged on the western veranda under the great trees which shade the house.

The whole place was like a bower with its quantities of purple and white lilacs. Five tables were placed for the bridge players, and a number more came in for tea in the late afternoon hours. Miss Eleanor Stewart, sister of the bride, and Miss Edna Dunn, Miss Richmond and Miss Marguerite Richmond, assisted the hostesses.

MISS MARGARET M'HAON leaves today for Nevada, where she will make her home with her sister, Mrs. C. D. McDonald. She has a host of friends here, and has been entertained at numerous affairs during the week. Miss Claire Driscoll entertained at cards Wednesday evening in her honor, Miss Adelaide Peters was hostess at a charming affair Thursday evening, and Miss Rose Stephens gave a delightful luncheon for her yesterday at the Hotel Utah.

MISS MARY LOUISE HAYS was the hostess Friday evening at a jolly Empress party for a number of her boy and girl friends, a supper following the show at a downtown cafe.

The decorations at the supper were all in red and black, a basket of black wicker work being filled with red roses for a central decoration of the tea table. The guests at the affair were Miss Mary Sherwood, Miss Florence Groshell, Miss Marjorie Halden, Miss Yvonne Moon, Miss Cordelia Straup, Miss Lillian Reilly, John Holden, Walter Gillespie, Starr Wardrop, Scott Fray, Arthur Mays, Malcolm Hunter and Franklin Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. Enos D. Hoge chaperoned the young people.

A LARGE company of Salt Lake friends went out to Kaysville Friday afternoon to surprise Mrs. John R. Barnes, the affair having been arranged by her daughters, the Misses Martha, Mary and Hazel Barnes. The beautiful country home was glorious with all its blossoms, and the spacious rooms inside were all decorated with gorgeous sweet peas. Here, in the late afternoon, tea was served, or, rather, a delicious meal, Mrs. George E. Barton and Mrs. Henry H. Blood pouring and Mrs. Claude T. Barnes and Mrs. Lawrence Blood assisting.

THE Country club looked yesterday afternoon like a busy place with numerous golf players on the green and the tennis courts filled with several sets of players. The dinner in the evening drew an unusually large number, and although there were many parties the dining room was not crowded during the entire evening. The dinner many of the young people who are members of the club, and the friends out to enjoy the Saturday night dance.

Weddings and Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Page announce the engagement of daughter Jane to John Robertson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, formerly of this city, of Riverside, Cal. Mr. Page here about the middle of the marriage will take place. The bride is one of the young girls of the city, and the groom, a former Salt Lake boy, is in business in San Francisco.

A simple but beautiful ceremony of yesterday was that of Estelle Peabody of Wellesley, Mass., and Theodore B. Barnes, connected with the General Electric company here. Miss Peabody has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Williams for some time, and the Health and Beauty Advice

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

Annette: (1) Sometimes a druggist endeavors to discourage the making of home-remedies because he thinks it interferes with his business. I never suggest the use of anything that is not sold in first class drug stores. (2) To make hardens spring blood-tinge and liver-remedy get 1 ounce of khardene, mix it with 1 cupful of sugar and add a pint of alcohol and 15 pints of hot water. This formula makes a full quart of tonic, of which you should take 1 tablespoonful 5 minutes before each meal and before retiring. As an all-around tonic this has no superior. It will restore your lost appetite and tend to strengthen and build you up. It purifies blood and your pimples and ugly blotches will soon disappear.

Virginia: A good "liquid-powder" or face-wash which when on seems a part of the skin is made by dissolving 4 ounces of spumax in 1 pint of hot water or witch hazel and adding 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine. This home-made complexion-beautifier whitens the skin without the use of powder and is particularly recommended for the use of anyone who has a sallow, dark or oily skin.

Constance: To remove dandruff and stop falling hair, apply once a week a quinine hair-tonic made by dissolving 1 ounce of quinine in 1 pint of alcohol, adding 1 pint of cold water. Rub into the scalp and hair with the finger tips until absorbed. This treatment will promote the growth of hair and tend to make it luxuriant and glossy. (See answer to Molly.)

Molly: It is not necessary to shampoo the hair oftener than twice a month if you use a shampoo that will thoroughly cleanse the hair and scalp. An inexpensive shampoo that makes the hair feel good and helps the hair is made by dissolving a teaspoonful of camphor in a cupful of hot water. Pour on the hair and rub well. You will find that this makes a good father-and plenty of it thoroughly cleanses the hair and scalp and relieves irritation and stimulates roots to helpful action.

Viola: Yes, healthy eyes are clear and sparkling. If yours are dull, red and inflamed, you need an eye-tonic. Get an ounce of crystals from your druggist and dissolve it in a pint of water. One or two drops in each eye every day is all that is required. This eye-tonic will not smart or burn and will give relief to the eyes are tired, inflamed and strengthen the eyes and will help if you wear glasses.

Laura: Your friend is right in that I know a certain wrinkle which can be made at home at very little expense. It is a vegetable product unlike creams containing oils and fat as it neither grows hair nor makes the skin greasy and sticky. It is a cream of almond, which from any druggist, in one-half pint of water and add 2 teaspoonfuls of fine. Stir and let stand for 24 hours. remove wrinkles apply a thick this cream-jelly and leave on overnight. This protects the skin and gives it new texture. Then wash it off and massage thoroughly with the cream. It makes the skin velvety, while it is unequalled in large pores.

Student: It will be good advice to learn that what you eat is what you have little to do with obesity. If enough exercise is taken, even a woman may eat what she wants and starve herself means to look like a skeleton. Don't drink coffee, even water and don't drink alcoholic beverages at any time. The flesh reducer I know of is made from your druggist an ounce package of permanganate. Take it dissolve it in 15 pints of hot water one tablespoonful 3 times a day.

O. T.: Your eyelashes are long and have a pretty curl. Apply pyroxin at lash roots with a forefinger. Thin eyelashes can come in thick and grow rapidly on them frequently. You can buy pyroxin in original package, but be careful don't get any where hair is not.

Olga N.: The defiguring hair can be permanently banished by a delatone paste. Get a small quantity of delatone and mix with powder with water to cover the defiguring hairs. Let remain 24 hours, then remove and wash with water. This simple treatment dissolves and leaves the skin free from hair. Read Mrs. Martyn's book, "5-Advertisement."
