"Played blacks. The match was originally for twenty games with the proviso that if a tie at the end of twenty games, play would continue until one player was shead at the end of even games. Jordan won the twenty-sixth game, a "double conner," and with it the match. With unparalleled generosity, however, "Air" agreed to continue play for fifty games. Pomeror had the forty-eighth game, a "single corner," all but won, when to his intense disgust he blew the following sading:

Pomeror carelessly moved 15-11, and Jordan played 10-7, 11-2, 5-2, 5-9, 5-15, and drew.

However, as Blughsimpton's ideal won the last game and the match, all was well.

McKean alumped hedly for a while loaing six games in a row, but estiled down for the home stretch, winning three and lesing none out of the tast eight games played.

ARMY EASY VICTIM

Cadets Are Outplayed and Outclassed; Forward Pass Works Beautifully.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 1 .- The WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 1.—The Army was beaten by Notre Dame today. 35 to 13. The cadets were outclassed, and, except in the second quarter, when they scored both their fouchdowns, they looked like novices beside the westerners. Notre Dame's long forward passing and pretty open-field play were spectacular and a revelation to castern football enthusiasts. Out of fourteen attempts with the forward-pass play the westerners succeeded in making twelve good for long-distance gains. Rockne, Finnegan and Pliska, on the receiving end, with Dorais throwing the ball, gained many yards for their team.

In fact, all of Notre Dame's touchdowns were directly due to splendid work with the forward pass. Eichenlaub was a demon on the offense, plowing through the Army line for good gains and bowling over the interference in slashing style. Dorais's quarterback play was glit-edged. He kicked five of the goals from touchdowns and ran his team with splendid judsment.

The first half ended with the score 14 to 13 in Notre Dame's favor.

Hoge and Merrillatt played best for the cadets. The Army handled the ball rather loosely, losing it several times on fumbles. Both sides were frequently penalized.
