SCHAEFFER-MALONE GO MONDAY FEATURE

Clever Lads Should Put Up Great Battle; Programme Is Extended.

Manager Downing of the Manhattan Athletic club, in his card of hints at the Garrick theater Monday night, promises the fans one of the greatest nights' sport that has been dealt out to them. Not only will there be one more bout on the bill than usual, but also the boys who will appear are known for their willingness to mix matters, and there shouldn't be a dull minute from start to finish.

Four pairs of the boys are regulars who have appeared from time to time for the club and have been working out at the club for the last two weeks in anticipation of getting a chance to show the boxing fans what they can do. Williams, who has proved in his previous bouts that he is willing and not afraid to take a punch, and there are also working hard to get into the list, and eventually will give the fans as many matches for their money as the club can give.

The adding of another bout to the card has injected new life into the youngsters who are looking for a chance to show themselves, and they are working hard and getting into condition. By long training programme Downing has a better chance to try out one or two pairs of youngsters at each show and if they prove to be a disappointment there are always enough on the bill to give the fans a good night's sport.

The boys who are booked for Monday night are training hard and getting in the best of condition, as they realize that unless they make good under the lights they will be out of the club. They are all sure to give the fans a good time.

Malone of Denver and Harry Schaeffer who made a hit with the fans a couple of weeks ago and will be in shape to put up a fast four-round bout. Malone says his defeat at the hands of Schaeffer in the preliminary to the Hogan-Alvord bout was due to the fact that he was overworked in his training with Gallant and that he was not in the best of condition.

Glen Oetke, ex-amateur champion of the Rocky Mountain district, will look hard with "Babe" Travis, late of New York. As these two boys are battling for the featherweight supremacy of the club, they are also working hard to get into the list, and eventually will give the fans as many matches for their money as the club can give.

"Mac" McAllister is going against a somewhat of an unknown quantity in Billy Furness of Ogden, who has been in the preliminary to the Hogan-Alvord bout and was due to fight him and if the Ogden boy takes home the decision he will know that he has been through a battle.

"Gus" Cuddy, the prize of Saginaw, who made a hit with the fans a couple of weeks ago when he gave "Bud" Tucker a whirlwind for four rounds, will meet "Young" Malone, who also boxed four rounds to a draw with Tucker some time ago. These boys appear to be very evenly matched and, as they are both fast and willing, there should be plenty of action in a good fight.

For the first time since the club opened Downing will give a pair of green middleweights a chance to distinguish themselves. Tom Murphy and Jacob Johnson will be in the line. In this contest, if they prove to be as good as before, a crowd as they are in the gymnasium, the fans are sure to be in for a treat.

Joe Bishop and Tom Crawford, a pair of lightweights who have shown some ability in training, will open the bill.

"HONEST JOHN" WOULD SUIT BOISE FANS

Special To The Tribune.
BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 30.—The divorcing of baseball from local management and the turning of the Butte, Ogden and Salt Lake clubs over to M. R. Evans of Salt Lake came as somewhat of a surprise to local fans. They are pleased, however, to learn that the Union league ball is to be served and that Evans is a man who makes good his word.

Just what disposition Evans will make of the players Boise holds, who, with the exception of "Babe" Reama, constituted the 1913 pennant-winning club of the Western Tri-State league, is not known. It is taken for granted that Boise was free territory when this city was given a franchise in the Union association, the Cardinals, of the Butte, Ogden and Salt Lake clubs in the Union association, and in the early days, in the northwest, managers of the club were not made the donors. Under an independent management this will be done away with. It is also said that Evans, who is a good baseball man with the club, for Boise is a good baseball town and fans have always been liberal in their support of the club. They will support Evans also. What they want is good ball, properly handled, and they are now inclined to the belief that they are going to get it.

The possibility of "Honest" John McCloskey, former manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, of the Butte, Ogden and Salt Lake clubs in the Union association, and in the early days, in the northwest, managers of the club were not made the donors. BEST OF BANTAMS TO BATTLE TODAY

Johnny Williams and Eddie Campi Promise Great Bout at Vernon.

By H. M. WALKER.
By International News Service.
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—Two of the best bantamweight boxers in America will get into a California ring tomorrow afternoon. Williams of Baltimore and Eddie Campi of San Francisco will come face to face for a scheduled twenty-round contest before the Pacific Athletic club at Vernon. The referee named for this important event is the reliable Charles F. Eylon.

The articles of agreement call for "118 pounds standard." The private agreement is that the little chaps shall weigh in the dressing room at 5 o'clock, enter the ring at 7:15 and that the opening bell must sound not later than 7:30.

The bantams came before the club's physicians at 11 o'clock this morning for a most rigid physical examination. Campi was declared to be in perfect condition. Williams was told that he had a slight stomach disorder, but that it was nothing that would affect him in the least.

Of Different Types.

The rivals are of two separate and distinct types of bantams. Campi is fast and clever, a real fighter, a real bantam. Coast critics declare the French youth to be the equal of men like Welsh, Kilbane, Atell and McFarland in cleverness. The one fault found in Eddie's work has been his inability to "find" a knockout.

"I have the punch all right," said Campi while discussing his point today. "But why should I take a chance of any kind if by boxing cleverly I can outpoint my men? I'll prove one of these days that I can hit as hard as any lightweight in the game."

Williams is best described as a heavy-weighter cut on a twenty round fight. He possesses the stamina and bulldog aggressive spirit of "Battling" Nelson when the great Dane was in his prime. Also he has the "wallop" his record being featured with forty-one knockouts.

One for Williams.

Campi and Williams met one day in this same ring. For twelve rounds the war was waged. Williams all the while kept his strength then began to fall him, while Williams came on stronger than ever and plied the lead in the final six or seven rounds and he decisively won Referee Eylon's award.

Eddie now figures that he has the strength to go the full twenty rounds. He expects to win the fight. He has the speed if necessary and that with his science he should outpoint Williams so decisively that there will be no doubt in the minds of the fans that he will win. Williams, a slinger first, last and all the time, says that no 118-pound man can beat him in twenty rounds, and there the matter stands.

Johnny Coulon, the bantamweight champion, has promised that he will come to the contest and fight against the winner of tomorrow's battle. If the Chicago man keeps his word, this will be the first legitimate bantamweight championship bout since Coulon beat Frankie Conley in New Orleans on February 26, 1911.

NATIONAL PREPARES FOR LEGAL BATTLE

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—A conference was held at the National league offices today, at which the legal status of the war between the Chicago Cubs and the Federal league was thoroughly discussed. The meeting was attended by Attorney General John C. Bell of Pennsylvania, president of the National league; John C. Toole, attorney for the National league; John A. Heydler, secretary of the league; and Leroy Reeves, secretary to President Tener.

The legality of the old and new forms of National league contracts was discussed. Mr. Toole drew up the new contract two years ago, and Mr. Bell expressed his opinion that the clause by which a player is paid 25 per cent of his salary on his return to the league the following year would hold in any court.

Both lawyers asserted that the reserve clause was legal and constitutional and would be upheld by any court in the United States, and they were positive that the supreme court would hold the reserve clause valid and uphold organized baseball from trying to get the batter away from the Philadelphia club, it was said.

The Killer case was discussed and the National league is prepared to go to any length to prevent the Chicago Cubs from trying to get the batter away from the Philadelphia club, it was said.

HUNDRED BOYS WILL RUN IN TODAY'S RACE

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the relay team composed of fifty boys of the Y. M. C. A. will race a like number of boys representing the Deseret gymnasium on the Deseret gym running track. Each boy will run two laps, or about 220 yards. The entire distance will be between six and seven miles.

The Y. M. C. A. team is composed of intermediate and junior classes, while the Deseret team has been picked from the junior class only. Ten boys may weigh over 110 pounds, but not more than 120. The remaining forty runners must not weigh more than 110.

The Deseret boys are actually sure of being the victors, with Robert Richardson at the head of the Deseret gymnasium team. He has made a careful selection of the team and expects a speedy race.

The officials will be Freeman Bassett, starter; W. E. Day of the Deseret gymnasium; George H. Marshall of the Y. M. C. A. and D. A. Callahan, timers.

BASEBALL MEN GET CHANCE TO SMILE

"Feds" Have Banquet, and Old Leagues Hook Some Fast Players.

By International News Service.
CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—All the local baseball folks were happy today. The Federal moguls were entertained at a luncheon by the Advertiser's club; C. W. Murphy, talkative commander of the Cub forces, received word from Chattanooga that Jimmy Johnston had signed a National league contract, and from Palmyra, N. J., wherever that might be, came a large envelope addressed to Harry Graham, secretary of the White Sox. The envelope contained Russell Blackburn's signed contract.

It was a nice affair tendered Weegman and Tinker at the advertising men at their comfortable clubrooms at 125 West Madison street. James A. Gilmore, Federal president, was given out by Ban Johnson, Blackburn, according to rumors, has been doing some flirting with the Federal people recently. For that reason there was considerable uneasiness manifested by south side enthusiasts.

Federal League Boosters.

Nearly 1000 persons, all of whom seemed to be Federal league boosters, gathered at the Ad club between 12:30 and 1:30 o'clock. Short speeches were made and it could clearly be seen that the gathering was strong for the Federal league. Well wishes were bestowed upon Weegman, Tinker and the Federal league.

The announcement of the signing of Russell Blackburn, the sensational shortstop last season with the Milwaukee Braves, was given out by Ban Johnson. Blackburn, according to rumors, has been doing some flirting with the Federal people recently. For that reason there was considerable uneasiness manifested by south side enthusiasts.

Johnston Sensation.

Jimmy Johnston, the Cub recruit, was slipping away from organized baseball, and he was left for Harry Graham, the veteran umpire, who acted in the capacity of agent for Murphy, to run down to Chattanooga and hook Johnston for the Federal league. Johnston established a new base-stealing record in the Pacific Coast league last season.

It was announced today that work on the matter would be accelerated and would begin during the coming week.

A contract received by Joseph Tinker from the Brooklyn Nationals today indicated that Tinker's arrangement to manage the Chicago Cubs and offered him terms $2500 a year better than those previously laid down by Ebbetts. Tinker had refused to accede to Tinker's demands and in sending the contract which Tinker received today had taken the last step toward the legal protection of his claims.

EBBETS TAKES STEP TO PROTECT CLUB

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Charles H. Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn Baseball club, asserted tonight that his club never had refused to accede to Tinker's demands and in sending the contract which Tinker received today had taken the last step toward the legal protection of his claims.

We offered Tinker the same salary he received while a member of the Chicago champion club. Tinker came back asking for a salary of $5000 for a term of three years. Since then we have had the proposition under consideration and finally the board of directors agreed to accede to his demand. Thereupon we sent him a contract and letter stating that we accepted his terms. We registered his name and gave him a four day's leave. That action was taken after careful consideration. We at no time refused to accede to his demands, the negotiations being open until his claims were accepted or refused. We never rejected his terms. We are advised this action will protect us fully and legally. This fact that Tinker acknowledges receipt of the contract and letter is satisfactory to us. We hope and expect that he will play with the Brooklyn club.
