can Society to Raise $100,000 for Project
controlling Hwai River.

Jan. 30.—The American society has been granted by the government a year in which to raise $100,000 to carry out a project for controlling the river Hwai, which has hitherto caused a great loss of life and property. A preliminary agreement to this effect was signed today by Paul S. American minister to China, and representatives of the Chinese government.

We Are Having Our Big Invoice Sale and Special Prices Are Influencing the Trade.

The bad weather underfoot has kept many of our customers indoors this week. Therefore, Saturday will be a big day.
Shoppers will come to the store to buy—and we propose to help them by making prices extra attractive.

The time is ripe. Invoicing has just closed. There is considerable merchandise that must be disposed of. If not, the goods must be carried over—and our policy is to sell each season's stock during the season. In all sections inducements are strongly featured.

Craftsman Furniture AT HALF PRICE

This includes all of the remaining stock of Gustav Stickley's Craftsman furniture—the original make.
At half prices this fine furniture is below the prices
paid the manufacturer.

But we are closing out the stock. The outlet in Salt Lake is not sufficient to justify us handling Stickley's goods. So we are taking our loss and giving up the handling of the line.

CORONER PLACES THE BLAME ON ARCHITECT

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Jan. 30.—After an investigation as to the cause of the collapse of the Shively-Honer building on January 3, when four persons were killed, Coroner T. J. Swantz today placed the responsibility upon Walter F. Schneider, the architect who prepared the plans and supervised the remodeling of the building.
The evidence admitted by the coroner was turned over to the prosecuting attorney for grand jury investigation.
