taken in state to the capitol at morrow.

field was the former senator's ut his long absence in Wash-made him almost a stranger to nerations of the last twenty-years.

he observed that as the train Chicago bearing the funeral party rough the smaller cities, the few to gathered there were white-and old. At the village of Atold man and his wife stood the station platform, the man hat off until the train passed.

and snow was falling, but again ed of a hundred or more were men well along in years, al-curious younger generation vidence.

the former were Dr. William William Ridgely, John W. Bunn George V. Fisher, all of whom the days when Abraham Lin-Shelby Cullom with their apply of law books attended gether here. Among the pio-two names are inseparable in of the old days when all were and the civil war had not yet run.

ine years ago Cullom was at on when the train on the same brought his own body towed with that of Abraham Lin-
