

NAVY ELECTRICIANS WILL SEEK RIGHTS

Correction at Brooklyn Said to Be Urged.

COMMITTEE FOR CONFERENCE

Arrange Appointment with Assistant Secretary of Navy Winthrop for
This Morning—Chairman Horrohan
Declares Navy Department Is Not Cognizant of Conditions.

Formal protest will be made this morning to the Navy Department by a committee of New York electrical workers against the alleged unlawful, unjust, and extravagant allotment of work on battle ships and other ships of the United States navy at the Brooklyn navy yard to plumbers, machinists, unskilled labor, and others not trained in electrical construction.

The committee that will make the protest at 11 o'clock arrived in the city last night. It consists of Matthew J. Horrohan, organizer of District Council No. 11, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, and W. J. Johnson and C. M. McAndrews, members of the New York organization, the large percentage of whose membership is employed in the Brooklyn Navy Yard. The committee is stopping at the National Hotel, and has arranged an appointment with Assistant Secretary of the Navy Winthrop.

Their Appeals Ignored.
The trouble this committee comes to Washington to correct has, members of the committee say, been operative for some time, notwithstanding protests have been made to officials of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, who have ignored the appeals. Last week the electrical workers' unions of New York and Brooklyn, through representatives, determined to bring the matter to a test and present the protest of the electricians to the Navy Department.

If the committee fails to obtain a correction of the alleged practices in the Brooklyn yard, they will take the matter up with the New York delegation in Congress and attempt to bring about an investigation by Congress. Conditions that apply to that yard, also, the committee says, are equally obnoxious in the other navy yards of the country.

"We are in Washington," said Chairman Horrohan, of the New York committee, "to see if it is possible, through the Navy Department, to correct an injustice that is being shown the electrical workers in the Brooklyn Navy Yard, which has been in force for a long time. We have protested to the managers of that yard without result, and we are here to tell the Navy Department officials of these conditions. What we object to as unjust and an extravagant waste of money is the giving of work to tradesmen in no way trained to do the work or connected with the electrical workers' branch of the service in the construction of electrical wiring and installation of apparatus on the big battle ships and other ships of the navy."

Unskilled Labor Used.
"Much of this work has gone to plumbers, machinists, and unskilled labor, who have no practical knowledge of the work, thus depriving the electricians of that which rightly belongs to them. When these men undertake to do this work, it is not done in accordance with standards established by the Navy Department, and, as a result, it has to be torn out, as it will not pass inspection. There is great loss to the government. We have to do our work over."

"I do not believe the Navy Department is cognizant of these conditions, and when advised I think steps will be taken to give the electricians justice. If we cannot obtain recognition and an early adjustment, we are prepared to have the New York delegation in Congress bring the matter to the attention of the country through an investigation. I have been in consultation with three of the New York delegation, who have assured us that if the Navy Department will not correct conditions, they will bring the matter before the House."

WOULD CORRECT EVILS.

Labor Leaders to Hold Conference,
Beginning on Monday.

In compliance with a resolution adopted by the twenty-ninth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor recently held at Toronto, President Samuel Gompers yesterday sent invitations to labor leaders of the country for a conference to be held in this city, to last three days, commencing next Monday. It will be held in the Belasco Theater from 10 o'clock to noon, with an afternoon session from 1 to 3 o'clock.

Washington will be largely represented, invitations having been sent to at least one or more of the eighty affiliated unions of Central Labor Union. Conflict of laws in the States affecting labor is held to be a hardship, and it is to bring about a movement to correct these evils that the conference will be held.

MOOSE TO HONOR ACTOR.

Special honors will be tonight be shown Billy Watson and his company, playing at the Lyceum Theater. A delegation of Moose, Columbia Lodge, No. 138, recently organized in this city, will go to the theater in a body and occupy front seats and boxes. Mr. Watson will be presented with a souvenir.

pressive Religious Services.

Cardinal Gibbons Presides in Sanctuary—Mgr. Falconio, Apostolic Delegate, Celebrant of Mass.

St. Aloysius' Church was the scene of a most impressive religious function yesterday, when a solemn pontifical mass of requiem was celebrated for the late Cardinal Satolli, the highest ecclesiastic in the United States officiating and participating in the service.

Cardinal Gibbons presided in the sanctuary, with Rev. Joseph J. Himmel, S. J., president of Georgetown University, and Rev. Bede Odegeering, superior of the Franciscan Monastery at Brookland, as deacons of honor. Mgr. Falconio, apostolic delegate, was the celebrant, with Mgr. Bonaventura Cerretti, auditor of the apostolic legation, as deacon; Rev. Hepp, P. S. J., president of Loyola College, as subdeacon, and Rev. Eugene De L. McDonnell, rector of St. Aloysius' Church, as assistant priest.

Rev. Dr. George H. Dougherty, of the Catholic University, was master of ceremonies; John T. S. Burns, assistant master of ceremonies; Leo J. Kavanaugh and Stephen P. McNamee, acolytes; Bernard Edmunds and Joseph Genau, thurifers; Francis Peck, miter bearer, and Francis Connolly and Francis Igoo, book and candle bearers.

Others assisting in the sanctuary were Mgr. Thomas J. Shahan, rector of the Catholic University, who delivered the eulogy; Rev. Francis Brady, of Baltimore; Rev. Dr. Sauvage, of Holy Cross College, Catholic University; Rev. Dr. William T. Russell, rector of St. Patrick's Church; Rev. L. P. McGinley, secretary to the apostolic delegate; Rev. Father Waldron, acting prior of the College of the Immaculate Conception; Rev. Francis E. McHugh, O. P.; Rev. Julius Grimal, superior of Marist College; Rev. D. A. Casey, O. P.; Rev. George Hensley, of the Apostolic Mission House; Rev. Ignatius Fealey, of St. Joseph's Church; Rev. Raphael V. O'Connell, S. J.; Rev. James Noonan, S. J.; Rev. Joseph P. O'Reilly, Rev. Augustus J. Duarte, S. J.; Rev. William F. Gannon, S. J.; Rev. William D. Ryan, S. J., and many others. The sermon was delivered by Mgr. Thomas J. Shahan, rector of the Catholic University.

At the close of the sermon absolution was pronounced by Cardinal Gibbons. The sanctuary choir of sixty voices gave an excellent programme of music, under the direction of Ernest T. Winchester, the solos being sustained by Henry Decker and Harry Stevens. At the conclusion of the service Father McDonnell entertained Cardinal Gibbons and the officiating clergy at dinner. Later in the afternoon the cardinal returned to Baltimore.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, 625 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., Jan. 13.—A coroner's jury, summoned by Dr. S. B. Moore, assembled at Wheatley's undertaking establishment at 2 o'clock this afternoon to investigate the death of Joseph A. Horseman, which occurred at Alexandria Hospital at 4 o'clock this morning, as a result of a bullet wound in the abdomen, alleged to have been inflicted by D. V. Howry, said to be a Baltimore detective, employed at the Potomac Railroad yards. After viewing the body the jury adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock to-morrow night, when a number of witnesses will be heard. The jury is composed of Harry Kirk, Samuel W. Pitts, W. C. Davis, M. T. Dwyer, J. H. Fisher, and T. L. Carter.

About 11 o'clock last night Detective Howry saw Horseman near the general merchandise store of the Potomac and Supply Company, Johnson, Elmer, and Dwyer, which he was taken to the Alexandria Hospital. Horseman was about thirty-five years old and lived at 521 South Alfred street. Besides his wife, seven children survive.

Henry Smith, the negro convicted of the murder of Walter F. Schultz, whose second confession, declaring the whole story false, obtained the conviction of three negroes—Johnson, Elmer, and Dwyer—will be sentenced by Judge Barley, in the Corporation Court, to-morrow morning. Immediately thereafter he will be taken to Richmond, where he will be sent to the electric chair.

The three convicted men, sentenced to be electrocuted to-morrow, have been reprieved by Gov. Swanson until March 15 next. A telegram to that effect was received by Judge Barley this morning.

A jury in the Circuit Court for this city this afternoon awarded John J. Lawler damages in the sum of $300 in his suit against the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company for injuries sustained while leaving a train of the defendant company. The plaintiff was represented by J. K. M. Norton and William E. Fendall, and the company by J. R. Cinton and J. S. Barbour.

The demurrer to the evidence in the case of D. H. Taylor against the same railway company was sustained.

A decree for limited divorce on the grounds of desertion and abandonment was given in the case of Edgar J. Johnson, Jr., against Estelle E. Johnson.

TAFT DECLINES TO MIX UP IN ROW

legislation should be enacted, and to that end he desired the assistance of his own party in Congress, without which he would be helpless. It was the machinery placed in his hands to carry out the will of the people.

The President is cheerful over the outlook for peace among the warring factions in the Capitol. Altogether, he seems to feel that the fight for harmonious action among Republicans in Congress to carry out the policies advocated by the President had been won, and that he will obtain the legislation wanted by himself and the Republican party.

Interest in the insurgent-regular row in the House centered yesterday in the letters that have passed between President Taft and Representative Norris, of Nebraska, one of the leaders of the outlaw band.

At the White House it was announced that correspondence would not be made public, and at the same time, Mr. Norris, who on Wednesday showed signs of being peevish and inclined to turn loose the papers, suddenly tightened up and declared he wouldn't permit any portion of them to be published.

General Tenor Known.
Just the same, the general tenor of the correspondence is known. Mr. Norris wrote to President Taft in a frank, indeed a brutally frank, way. He didn't mince words, and after rehearsing the arguments by which the insurgents justify their fight on Speaker Cannon, asked the President to let them know where he stood.

But more than this, he went outside of the usual plan of insurgent defense, and while he did not accuse the President of bad faith, he intimated that the insurgents did not think, in view of the fact that they were fighting Cannon and not Taft, that they had been fairly treated at the White House.

This communication apparently did not please Mr. Taft. His reply is short and not at all sweet. But it is to the point, and Roland, had their cases continued until to-morrow. Nine chickens recovered by the police, which were dead, were identified by Charles Astreyke as having been stolen from his henry.

Arrangements have been made for a meeting of the alumni of St. Mary's Academy, at that institution, at 5 o'clock next Sunday afternoon.

Orono Austin, preacher, 4 o'clock; Grace (Georgetown), Rev. H. K. Masie, preacher, 9:30 o'clock. The regular January meeting of the Sunday School Institute of the Diocese of Washington will be held at St. Ephrem Church next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Best Glove Bargains of Years.

The answer to our question, "Did you ever buy  Kid Gloves at less than $1.50?" will be answered in the negative after you learn the name.

These Gloves
always will be

The reason for not quoting the name in this announcement is this: The makers supply these gloves with the stipulation that their name is not to be advertised and linked with any price less than $1.50.

FITTED AT OUR RISK.

These world-famous French Kid Gloves are due here this morning from New York by Adams Express. At $1.00, instead of $1.50 per pair, they are the best bargains of many years.

Clipping from the Evening Star of Yesterday.

ONE DOLLAR for the world's best $1.50 French Kid Gloves is the best news of years past or to come in the glove world. There'll be a sensation to-morrow—more especially when kindred establishments learn whose gloves are being distributed. And those who have habitually worn these gloves—how they'll rejoice to learn of the price being one dollar instead of $1.50.

USUAL $1 GLOVES TO BE 89c.

The regular patrons of these $1.00 Palais Royal Gloves are many thousands in number. A "drummer" who knows the quantities used by the men's stores lately said: "You buy and sell more men's gloves than any three men's stores in Washington." The Palais Royal's $1.00 Gloves for ladies' wear are as well known as the $1.00 Treasury notes issued the other end of G street. But why make the price 89c, when the gloves are better than usual at the price and already in active demand? Because of keen competition—our own competition. With the world's best $1.50 French Kid Gloves at $1.00, even the Palais Royal's $1.00 Gloves suffer in comparison. And so the price is made 89c. Fitted at our risk, with the same care and skill as if the regular price were asked.

SPEAKS FOR VETERANS.

Capt. J. Walter Mitchell Asserts ex-Soldiers Are Not Recognized.
A joint meeting of the Department of the Potomac, and Barry Garrison, Army and Navy Union, was held last night in G. A. R. Hall.

Capt. J. Walter Mitchell in an address declared government authorities did not give veterans proper recognition, and that the union would direct its attention to the matter in the future. He spoke of the renewed vigor in the garrisons of the District and of the character of the men identified with the organization.

Dr. Charles V. Pettys made a patriotic address. A letter from headquarters of the national commander was read, stating that matters had been adjusted, and that the finances of the union were in a healthy condition.

The following officers were elected by the Department of the Potomac: Capt. J. Walter Mitchell, department commander; Thomas A. Green, assistant quartermaster general; Dr. Charles V. Pettys, chaplain; William T. Conroy, adjutant to department commander.

Barry Garrison elected Thomas A. Green, commander; Capt. W. H. Mellach, senior vice commander; Robert F. Bradbury, and Junior vice commander; James E. May, adjutant; William Riley, officer of the day; Walter L. Brown, chaplain. The officers were installed by Charles W. Blush.
