

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Until further notice store will close at 5:30 p. m.

WE ARE FOR PLAYGROUNDS.
Playground Baseball Day, Saturday, June 4,
American League Park.

Women's Summer Suits.

SMART, graceful models, which, whether you pay little or much, give you a pleasant air of style and distinction. The materials we choose, the tailoring, and the charming little trimming touches achieve this. Everything that is up-to-date, that is stylish, and that is fashionable is here, and in great variety.

Charming Coat Suits, of poplin and linen, in all the wanted summer shades—natural, pink, rose, lavender, light blue, and navy. Strictly tailored and braided in self color; semi-fitting coats and various plaited skirts.

$12.50 each.

Attractive Coat Suits, of fine linen, in the popular plain tailored effect, with semi-fitting coats and cluster-plaited skirts. Shown in natural and oyster white.

$13.50 each.

Also a fine line of Coat Suits, for mourning wear, of a rich black, fashioned of poplin and linen, with semi-fitting coats and plaited skirts. Very neat and attractive.

$7.50, $18.50, and $19.50 each.

Third floor—G st.

New White Goods.

OUR assortment of Plain White Linen Lawns and Handkerchief Linens is unusually complete. The placing of orders direct with the manufacturers, together with early purchases—many made last summer before the advance in the price of raw materials—enable us to offer at this highly desirable time many excellent values.

36-inch Linen Lawn, 39c a yard.

Better qualities up to $2.50 a yard.

Persian Lawn, French Batiste, Swiss Batiste, Swiss India Linen, French Lawn, Mercerized Batiste, Embroidered and Dotted Muslin, and Swiss and Imported Crepes in large variety.

Specials:

47-inch Imported Batiste.

47-inch French Lawn.

30c a yard. Value, 50c.

Special price, 25c a yard.

27-inch White Rep Suiting, for coat suits and separate skirts.

Special price, 25c a yard.

Second floor—Eleventh st.

Wayne Cedared Wardrobes

ARE to be had of us only in Washington. They are the most practical and positive moth protector yet devised. Convenient to handle, and the garments placed in them are shapely and free from odor when removed. They are inexpensive moth insurance. Many shapes and sizes.

No. 1—For Children's Suits, Dresses, and Overcoats; size 28 to 38x34.....	50c
No. 2—For Business Suits, Tuxedos, Silk Waists, Jackets, Sack Coats, &c.; size 28x34x40.....	65c
No. 3—For Dress Suits, Frocks, Coats, Women's Coats, Outing and Golf Suits; size 30x36x50.....	75c
No. 4—For Overcoats, Opera Cloaks, Gowns, Society and Military Uniforms; size 30x50x56.....	$1.00

No. 7—For Motor Coats, Fur Coats, Ball and Evening Gowns, with specially designed garment hanger; size 30x36x50.....	$1.50
No. 11—Special Military Blanket Receptacle, made especially for individual military blankets; no metal hooks or hangers; size 15x4x23.....	40c
No. 20—Collapsible Hat Box; size 17x15.....	75c
No. 21—Collapsible Hat Box; size 20x21.....	$1.00

WOODWARD & LOTHROP.

MISS McHARG A BRIDE.

Married to Navy Paymaster Venable at Stamford, Conn.

Stamford, Conn., June 1.—The wedding of Miss Marian Adelaide McHarg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. McHarg, of New York and Stamford, to George Richard Venable, paymaster, U. S. N., of Marion, Va., took place this afternoon in St. John's Episcopal Church.

Later in the afternoon there was a large reception at the McHarg mansion in Strawberry Hill. Fifty friends of the bride and bridegroom came from New York in a special car for the reception.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Luke White, of Pulaski, Va., a son-in-law of Bishop Tucker, of Virginia.

Rev. Dr. White and Mr. Venable were classmates at the University of Virginia. Miss McHarg had no attendants. Her brother was Mr. Venable's best man. There were no ushers.

Will Oppose Owen Bill.

Miss Emma C. Sikes, of Washington, will appear before the Interstate Commerce Commission to oppose the Owen bill for the creation of a department of health, according to her statement last night. Incidentally she will aim a few shots in the direction of Dr. Wiley, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry.

Round Trip Sundays, Bluemont, $1.00. Southern Railway special train 8:55 a. m.

Beautiful Furnished Suburban Residence For Sale. Located at Tuxedo, Md.

Six Miles from Washington.

10-room house; hot and cold water; bath; cellar; large porches; barn; granary, and a fine poultry house, large enough for 2,000 chickens. One and one-half acres of ground, having on it large grape arbors, fruit trees, and beautiful lawn. It is close to church, school, &c., and can be reached by either steam or electric cars; five minutes' walk from station. This property sits on a hill, with southern exposure, and commands a magnificent view for several miles. It is completely furnished, including piano.

Will Be Sacrificed for $4,500.

Terms: One Half Cash, Balance to Suit.

Charles C. Gray,
617 13th St. N. W., or Tuxedo, Md.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Mrs. Sherman's Utica Guests
Will Arrive To-day.

MRS. MacVEAGH IN CHICAGO

Will Return to Capital Before
Leaving for Summer Home at Dublin, N. H.—Mrs. Nagel and Her Daughter Go to Country Place at Marion, Mass.—Social Notes.

Mrs. Sherman rejoined the Vice President here yesterday and will have as her house guests for the remainder of the week Mr. and Mrs. Loton Hunt, of Utica, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt will arrive to-day.

The Attorney General and Mrs. Wickensham, who are across-the-street neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, will close their sixteenth street residence to-day and go to Marshfield, Long Island, for the summer.

Mrs. MacVeagh, wife of the Secretary of the Treasury, left yesterday for her home in Chicago. She will return to this city before leaving for the summer for their country place in Dublin, N. H.

Mrs. Nagel, wife of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, with her daughter, Mrs. Nagel, left yesterday for their summer home in Marion, Mass., where they will remain during the summer.

Miss Martha McCook, who has been the guest of the Misses Meyer, daughters of the Secretary of the Navy, for several days, has returned to her home in New York.

Mrs. Meyer and the Misses Meyer will delay their departure for their summer home in Hamilton, Mass., until after the visit to Washington of the Imperial Japanese Prince Fushimi, the distinguished officer in the Japanese navy, who will be entertained by the Secretary of the Navy during his stay in Washington. A trip to Mount Vernon on the Dolphin and an excursion to the Naval Academy will be features of the entertainment.

Senora Lima e Silva, wife of the charge d'affaires of the Brazilian Embassy, who has been seriously ill at her home in the Highlands, is now out of danger, and it is hoped she will soon be on the road to recovery.

Col. and Mrs. Thomas W. Symons and Miss Marguerite Symons, who will close their residence in New Hampshire avenue on June 9, will spend a few days in Atlantic City before going to their summer home, Casanova, N. Y. Other Washingtonians in the summer colony at Casanova are Mr. and Mrs. Eryck Wendell and Mr. and Mrs. James Marion Johnston and Miss Sophy Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Robertson will sail from New York June 20, via Panama, for Callao, Peru, to which post Mr. Robertson recently was promoted from the consulate at Tangier, Morocco. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson are temporarily at 129 R street northwest.

Senor Don Arturo Padro y Almeida, first Cuban secretary, has located the offices he occupies at the Parkview, 18 K street. The Minister from Cuba, Dr. Justiz, is still in New York, and will not bring his family here before next fall.

Miss Calderon, daughter of the Minister from Bolivia, has returned to the Capital from a visit in New York.

Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Huntington Wilson were hosts at an informal dinner at their home last night, when the guests were the Spanish Minister and Mme. Riano, the Peruvian Minister and Senora Pardo, the Guatemalan charge d'affaires and Mrs. Francisco Sanchez-Latorre, the Austrian charge d'affaires and Mme. Von Loewenthal-Linow, the French charge d'affaires and Mrs. Lefevre-Pontalis, Mr. and Mrs. McClintock, Mrs. Beale, Mr. and Mrs. George Cabot Ward, and Mr. Hugh S. Gibson, of the Department of State.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCauley will close their town house in Rhode Island avenue, to-morrow and go to Chevy Chase, where they have engaged a house for the next two months, leaving about August 1 for Northern shore resorts.

Mrs. Hughes, wife of Senator Hughes, has given up her house at 1908 Q street, and will leave to-day with her family for Denver, where she will pass the summer months. Senator Hughes will remain in Washington until the adjournment, and has taken an apartment at the New Willard for the interim.

Mrs. Henry Allen Cooper, wife of Representative Cooper, of Wisconsin, who recently returned from a visit to her home in the West, will have as her guests for the week-end Mayor and Mrs. Fortlick and several members of their family, from Racine.

At the musical to be given this evening at the new International Bureau of American Republics under distinguished patronage for the benefit of the Costa Rican earthquake sufferers, the artists will include Miss Marian McFall, soprano; Mrs. Roma Devonne Hempstead, of New York and Virginia, contralto; Mr. William A. Engle, Jr., pianist, and the following members of the Chalmers sextet: Mrs. W. S. Gibbs, Mrs. McFar, Miss Mabel Roberts, Miss Hilda Koehler, Miss Wesha Gary, and Miss Ann Toash.

Miss Marie Aldrich, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Aldrich, will be hostess at a card party Saturday evening complimentary to Miss Margaret Barr, whose marriage to William Stuart Myers, of Princeton, N. J., will take place on Wednesday, June 8.

Capt. Arturo Cuevas, the newly arrived naval attaché of the Chilean Legation, is being welcomed in an informal way by his colleagues. His most recent host was the naval attaché of the French embassy, Lieut. Commander d'Asy, who gave a dinner in his honor at the Metropolitan Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Munford have closed their town house and gone to their country place, just outside of Washington, for the early summer.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Mayne are in Richmond, Va., where they went for the wedding last evening of Miss Page Aylett Royall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lawrence Royall, and Mr. Barker Hamill, of Trenton, N. J. The ceremony took place in historic St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and with the reception which followed at the home of the bride's parents, was the most fashionable event of the season in the Virginia capital. Guests were there from more than a dozen States.

Lansburgh & Bro.

420-426 7th Street.
417-425 8th Street.

$7.00 Extra-size Silk Petticoats,

$4.59

An entirely New Skirt, made of an excellent quality taffeta silk, in BLACK ONLY; beautifully made, with a 16-inch full-flare flounce, with 10 rows of fine tucks and 5 rows of shirring. Some have tailored bands. These are cut full 62 inches through the hips, full foundation and dust ruffle. Actual value, $7.00. Special.....

$4.59

capital. Guests were there from more than a dozen States.

Miss Royall was attended by a group of girls each of whom is noted for her beauty. The list included Mrs. William Hubert, formerly Miss Mary Potts, of Richmond, as matron of honor; the Misses Anne Keith Royall, the bride's sister, and Caroline Gordon Reynolds, maids of honor, and the Misses Elsie Lindsey, Ella Williams Buck, Julia Joyner, Gwendolyn Rutherford, of Richmond, and Miss Edie Bagnell, of St. Louis, bridesmaids. Little Misses Helen and Nettie Johnston were ribbon bearers and little Margaret Symonds was flower girl. Hugh H. Hamill, of Trenton, was the bride's best man.

The groomsmen included Messrs. John C. Gilpin, of Philadelphia; William E. Green and John S. Broughton, of Trenton; Edward F. Johnson, of Chicago; A. T. McClintock, of Wilkesbarre, and Carroll, of New York. The ushers were A. Randolph Holladay, W. R. Turner, Stuart G. Christian, William D. Cooke, John B. Parrish, John A. Cutchins, William Lawton, and Hiram Smith, of Richmond; Bartlett Styrker, of Philadelphia, and Nelson L. Perry, of Trenton.

The bride and her sister have been entertained frequently here by Mr. and Mrs. Mayne and other friends.

Arrangements for the wedding of Miss Eleanor Alexander, daughter of Mrs. Henry Addison Alexander, to Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., are now completed, and will take place on Monday, June 20, in the Full Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York. Miss Elizabeth Bertrou, who was married to Snowden Andrew Falmesstock yesterday, will act as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Ethel Roosevelt, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Harriet Alexander and Miss Janetta Alexander, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Alexander, and cousins of the bride-elect; Miss Jean W. Delano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Delano, Jr., of Paris, Miss Jessie Miller, of Dover, N. H., Evelyn Dupont Irving, and the ushers will be Francis Roche, John W. Cutler, Hamilton Fish, Jr., E. Morgan Gilbert, Fulton Cutler, Elliott Cutler, Grafton Chapman, George Roosevelt, Monroe Robinson, and Kermit Roosevelt, brother of the bridegroom, who accompanied the former President on his hunting trip. Rev. Dr. Henry M. Sanders, a great uncle of the bride-elect, will be assisted in performing the ceremony by Dr. Gordon Russell, of Cranford, N. J. A reception will be held at the home of Mrs. C. B. Alexander, in West Eighth street, New York. Mr. Roosevelt will give his bachelor dinner on Saturday at Delmonico's.

The wedding of Miss Ruth Garner and Dr. Ralph Andre, Quick, of Falls Church, at 5:30 o'clock last evening, the rector, Rev. Edward Callender, officiating. The bride is the eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. John William Garner, of Falls Church, New Mexico, and granddaughter of Judge A. A. Freeman, attorney general for the Post-office Department during the Garfield administration.

Dr. Quick is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt Quick, of Falls Church. He is a graduate of George Washington University, class of 1908, and has located at Clarendon, Va., where a beautiful new home awaits the return of the bride couple from their wedding trip.

The church was elaborately decorated with pink roses, ferns, and vines, carrying out the wedding color scheme of pink and green. The ushers were Dr. French, Dr. Simonds, Dr. Kemble, Dr. Frank Preston. Following them came the six bridesmaids, Misses Katherine Milton, Marguerite Rowell, Susie Davidson, Margaret Ballard, Katherine Garner, and Margaret Cooper. The first four wore gowns of pale pink messaline, and carried bridesmaid roses, and the last two wore white lace gowns, over pale green messaline.

The little flower girls, Elizabeth Garner and Alma McGroarty, wearing white lily-of-the-valley and carrying baskets of sweet peas, preceded the maid of honor, Miss Mary Milton, of Washington, gown-dress in pale green messaline and carrying Killarney roses. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white satin, cut train, with a central panel of embroidery and pearls. The tulle veil was crowned with a coronet of natural flowers.

Continued on Page 7, Column 6.

Not in Milk Trust
The Original and Genuine
HORLICK'S
MALTED MILK

The Food Drink for All Ages.
For Infants, Invalids, and Growing Children.
Pure Nutrition, upbuilding the whole body.
Invigorates the nursing mother and the aged.
Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form.
A quick lunch prepared in a minute.
Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S.
Others are imitations.

TRO OF MILITARY WEDDINGS IN A DAY

Brides Beautifully Gowned at Elaborate Ceremonies.

ROSES ARE USED IN PROFUSION

Miss Florella Edson Becomes Wife of Lieut. John William McKie.
Miss Mary Remey Married to Capt. John Winthrop Wadleigh—Miss Stotsenburg and Capt. Mayo Wed.

Interest yesterday centered around the weddings of Miss Florella Edson and Lieut. John William McKie, at noon; that of Miss Laura Stotsenburg and Capt. Charles Russell Mayo, at St. Margaret's at 4:30 o'clock, and the marriage of Miss Mary Remey and Capt. John Winthrop Wadleigh, at the same hour in St. Thomas' Episcopal Church.

Each was as beautiful as military trappings, bridal finery, lovely roses, and well-dressed friends could make it. Both Miss Edson and Miss Remey are gifted musicians, the latter being a member of the Monday Morning Music Club, and has frequently been heard at concerts given under the auspices of that organization.

Miss Edson studied the violin for many years under Montardin, at the Conservatory of Music in Paris, and should occasion require would do well in the professional field.

Roses in Profusion.

Miss Edson's was a rose wedding, and not only was the flower used in profusion in church and home decoration, but was brocaded in charming design on the white satin wedding gown. With lilies of the valley it formed the bridal bouquet, and was also woven into the bouquets carried by the bridesmaids.

The bride was gown in ivory satin, made in princess effect, with the front panel veiled with chiffon caught with a cluster of orange blossoms. The bodice was trimmed with rare old rose point lace and finished with a Dutch neck. The skirt was made with a long train and the tulle veil was held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley, and was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's sister, Miss Marjorie Kendall Edson, was the maid of honor, and was gown in white embroidered batiste over pink silk, with a white straw mushroom hat trimmed in pink roses against crown, veiled in pink tulle. Her bouquet was of pink roses. Miss Gertrude C. E. E. and Miss Marie McMillin Brown, the bridesmaids, wore pink marquisette embroidered in a rose design over pink satin, with pink hemp hats trimmed with clusters of pink roses and green foliage. They both carried pink roses.

Wedding Breakfast Served.

Lieut. Edward T. Weiss, of Fort Scriven, Ga., was best man, and the ushers were Lieut. H. Conger Pratt, one of the White House aids; Capt. J. B. Dillard, Lieut. L. H. Emerson, and Lieut. S. W. Stewart. A small wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents on Q street, when only the bride party, immediate family, and a few intimate friends were invited.

Mrs. Edson, mother of the bride, who assisted in receiving the guests, wore a gown of old blue satin, veiled in black marquisette, caught with black jet buckles. The yoke and sleeves were of point lace and the corsage of blue and gold embroidery. Her hat, which was of black neapolitan, was faced with blue velvet and trimmed with black willow plumes.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clarke Townsend, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Craig Colgate, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. William Travis Miller, of Bronxville, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Dorrance Bronson, of Hartford, Conn.; and Lieut. and Mrs. Lawrence Hartford Crawford, of Fort Monroe, Va.

The couple left Washington early in the afternoon for a bridal trip in the North. The bride's going-away gown was a tulle suit of ecru tulle with touch of black and a black headband trimmed with scarlet uncut ostrich plumes and velvet. Lieut. and Mrs. McKie will be entertained extensively in New York and Boston, and after a month or two will go to Fort Desha, Fla., where Lieut. McKie's regiment is stationed.

Remey-Wadleigh Ceremony.

In the presence of a distinguished company of army and navy people and a generous sprinkling of representatives of general and resident society, Miss Mary Remey, daughter of Rear Admiral and Mrs. George C. Remey, pledged her troth to Capt. John Winthrop Wadleigh, U. S. M. C., at 4:30 yesterday afternoon in St. Thomas' Church, the rector, Rev. Dr. C. Ernest Smith, officiating.

The bride, who was attended only by her sister, Miss Angelica G. Remey, as maid of honor, was given in marriage by her father, who, like the bridegroom and his best man, wore the uniform of his rank in the military service. The bride's costume of heavy white satin was veiled with rose point lace and the tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was attired in white messaline, trimmed with fringe and hand embroidered, with rose-colored accessories, and carried pink and white roses.

A reception to the bridal party, out-of-town guests, and relatives, at the home of the bride's parents, in New Hampshire avenue, followed the ceremony.

The house decorations were palms and white roses in the drawing-room and dining-room. The mother of the bride was gown in gray chiffon over gray satin, and wore a hat of black lace with white plumes. Those of the out-of-town guests who came to attend the wedding were Rear Admiral and Mrs. Wadleigh, U. S. N., of Lexington, Mass.; parents of the bridegroom; his sisters, Miss Wadleigh, of Lafayette, Ind., and the latter's two children; Mrs. Williams, of Dover, N. H.; sister of Rear Admiral Wadleigh; Mrs. William Bush, of Wilmington, Del.; Miss Barry, of New Jersey, and Miss Clarke, of Boston. After their wedding trip, the couple will go to the Marine Barracks at Boston, where Capt. Wadleigh is stationed. The bride's going-away gown was a dark blue tailored suit.

Stotsenburg-Mayo Marriage.

Miss Laura Annesley Stotsenburg, daughter of Mrs. John M. Stotsenburg and the late Col. Stotsenburg, U. S. A., and Lieut. Charles Russell Mayo, Tenth Cavalry, U. S. A., were married at 4:30 o'clock at St. Margaret's Church, when the rector, Rev. Herbert Scott Smith, officiated. The church decorations were of palms, peonies, and yellow daisies. Music was played for the entrance of the bride party by the organist of the church and continued softly throughout the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. James R. Ely, of New York, and was gown in a handsome robe of white satin and rose point lace made in princess effect, with a court train, the bodice being finished with a Y-shaped neck. Her long tulle veil was caught in place with sprays of lilies of the valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Work of Mints in May.
The total coinage at United States mints during May consisted of 15,904,654 pieces valued at $12,655,273. Of this amount, $12,181,172 was in gold, $246 in silver, and $373,255 in minor coins.

DULIN & MARTIN CO.

The Twenty-five Cent Sale of Table China

—OFFERS A GREAT VARIETY
—OF VALUES From 50c to $1.00.

MANY housekeepers are familiar with the great saving opportunities offered by these clearance sales of odd lots of Decorated Table China. Some of these discontinued patterns can no doubt be used to advantage in replenishing the table china for the city or country home. Others are appropriate for Hotels and Boarding-houses.

Some of these attractive values and their regular prices—FOR, CHOICE, 25 cents.

- $1 Decorated French Salad Bowls.
- 75c Gold Decorated Dinner Plates.
- 75c Three-quart Pitchers.
- 75c Decorated Celery Dishes.
- 75c "Gibson" Wall Plates.
- 65c English Decorated Compotes.
- 60c French China Cake Plates.
- 65c Decorated Vegetable Dishes.
- 50c Decorated Tea Cups and Saucers.
- 50c Decorated Bouillon Cups and Saucers.
- 50c 17-inch White Meat Dishes.
- 50c Decorated Dinner Plates.

Dulin & Martin Co.,

Pottery, Porcelain, China, Glass, Silver, Etc.

1215 F St. and 1214-18 G St.

DON'T WORRY

About the safety or convenience of your VACATION FUNDS.

Our

Letters of Credit and Travelers' Cheques

Give you standing and are self-identifying. Consult our Foreign Exchange Department.

American Security & Trust Co.,

15th and Pennsylvania Ave.

STEINWAY

AND OTHER LEADING

PIANOS

AND PLAYER-PIANOS.

DROOP'S,

G and 13th.

Ladies' Mesh Bags.

In gold and silver.

$2.50 to $25.00.

All designs, including importations from Vienna.

OGRAM'S GIFT STORE,

ADJOINING DRUG STORE,

13th and Pa. Ave.

bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mrs. Leon Kromer, wife of Capt. Kromer, quartermaster's department, U. S. A., who was matron of honor, was gown in white null over yellow satin, made in princess effect, and wore a white hat trimmed with tiny yellow rose buds. Her bouquet was of yellow daisies.

Lieut. Graham, Tenth Cavalry, acted as best man for Capt. Mayo, and the ushers were Capt. William L. Luhn, U. S. A.; Lieut. James Huston, U. S. A.; Lieut. Walter J. Scott, all of the Tenth Cavalry and the bridegroom's regiment, and Lieut. Robert F. Tate, of the Fifteenth Cavalry, stationed at Fort Myer, all classmates of the bridegroom at the Military Academy, at West Point.

Small Reception at Home.

Following the ceremony, a small reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. James T. Young, which was decorated for the occasion with yellow daisies, palms, and ferns. Mrs. Stotsenburg, the mother of the bride, wore a gown of pale blue satin, with a chantly lace tulle.

Those who were among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. James R. Ely and Miss Alice Ely, of New York; State Senator and Mrs. George W. Sparks, of Wilmington, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Middleton, of Baltimore; Col. and Mrs. Harry G. Cavanaugh, the former of the staff of the governor of Delaware and an uncle of the bride; Col. Thaddeus W. Jones, of the bridegroom's regiment, and other of his brother officers.

The bridegroom's father, Dr. C. A. Mayo, of Great Yarmouth, England, also came to this country for the wedding. Immediately after the reception, Lieut. and Mrs. Mayo left for a wedding trip in the North, and later Lieut. Mayo will take his bride to Fort Ethan Allen, Vt., where his regiment is stationed.

Work of Mints in May.

The total coinage at United States mints during May consisted of 15,904,654 pieces valued at $12,655,273. Of this amount, $12,181,172 was in gold, $246 in silver, and $373,255 in minor coins.

Which Paint

Gives the most satisfaction and the longest wear is a question answered best by

NEW ERA

Easily the kingpin among ready-mixed paints. Made in all colors for inside and outside jobs. All painters' accessories.

W. H. BUTLER CO.,
607-609 C St. N. W. Phone M. 1751

Washington, 14th and G Sts. New York, Waldorf-Astoria and 1153 Broadway.

J. H. Small & Sons,