Speed Up, Contestants! You Must Work to Win

Again The Advocate has implanted fresh enthusiasm in the hearts of contestants by a distribution of free votes at the Contest Building, 714 Thirteenth Street N. W.

Let the extra votes you got spur you on to greater endeavors. Don't rest on your oars for a moment. The race is keen, and your rivals are setting a swift pace.

The Advocate's display headquarters, the contest store, and the demonstrations of merchandise and awards have aroused the interest of the whole city. The contest is on a healthy boom-see that you make the most of the increased interest. Get your friends interested—every vote counts.

Awards and Merchandise.

Washington has never seen a more interesting exhibit. The products on display and for sale cover practically every need. The value and beauty of awards are exciting favorable comment on every hand. The $25,000 Contest is so unusual-so big and so interesting-that it's no wonder it has become the talk of the city.

Contestants are on the jump-planning, working-the contest gets keener every day. Manufacturers and retailers co-operating in the contest report an ever-increasing demand for votes all over the city.

Everybody's Interested in the Display of Wide-awake Contestants Are Making Big Gains

Even the Presidential race is subordinated to The Herald's $25,000 contest. Everybody in Washington can vote for their favorites. Men, women, and children have equal privileges. It's a free-for-all contest, in which the hardest workers and best

It's an unusual contest, in that contestants and their supporters are not required to spend an extra penny in furthering their interest. Everything you need is included in the contest, and your standing increases on strictly necessary purchases.

RULES OF THE CONTEST.

Every contestant should be familiarly acquainted with the rules and conditions governing the contest. They should be strictly adhered to. Read them carefully and observe them in letter and spirit. They are as follows:

1. Any reader of The Herald may nominate himself or another person by filling out the nomination blank and sending it to The Advocate; or, if he has not the nomination blank at hand, by forwarding the same, address, and telephone number, if any, of the person placed in nomination. Upon acceptance, proper notification will be made, and 1,000 votes will be credited to the contestant as a "starter."

1. Merchants and manufacturers cooperating in cannot be transferred to the credit of another person.

5. Votes can be obtained only by patronizing the firms and products advertised in connection with the contest.

6. The Washington Herald reserves the right to introduce new advertisers at any time during the contest. Contestants and which watch the paper every day for these changes. The advertisement of any testil merchant or manufactured product may be withdrawn at any time by withdrawn at any time during the contest. Contestants was the contest. Starter. Contestants as any time during the contest. Contestants are any time during the contest. Contestants an tying.

4. Contestants are requested to send their votes to The Advocate as often as governing the contest, will appear in possible. Persons may cast votes for any The Washington Herald from time to of the contestants, but those once sent time.

• 2. Merchants and manufacturers cooperating in the contest, employes of the firms, members of their families, and employes of The Washington Heraid and employes of their families are barred from competing.

3. In case of the votes, the article involved will be sold and the proceeds equally divided among the contestants
tying.

5. Candidates are not restricted to their districts, however, in the matter of securing votes. Votes may be procured any contestant, regardless of districts
9. The contest is now on and continues until 12 o'clock (midnight), February 25
tying.

10. The relative standing of contest.

1913.

10. The relative standing of contest

Washington's Newest and Most Interesting Establishment

The Herald Contest Store

714 Thirteenth St.

HE Advocate has transformed the first floor of the new headquarters of The Herald's $25,000 contest into a live, hustling store, where practically all the products advertised in connection with the contest will be on sale.

The object is not to compete with the merchants of the city, but to insure contestants and their supporters of one place where ALL the manufactured products with which votes are given can be found. It is for the convenience of those who have difficulty in getting these goods at their regular dealers.

vocate will conduct a wholesale as well Merchants are invited to bring or send in their orders. Immediate

THE CONTEST STORE IS GROWING FAST

It's the Liveliest, Busiest, Most Interesting Spot in This City.

Such a variety of products on sale that the store is a real wonderland for shoppers. Merchants who give The Advocate their wholesale orders are assured of prompt delivery.

Nomination Blank. THE ADVOCATE, THE WASHINGTON HERALD:

Dear Sir-Please enter below as a candidate in The Washington Herald $25,000 Voting Contest.

Cut out this blank and mail to The Washington Herald Contest. Note that each entrant will be credited with 1,000 votes as a starter

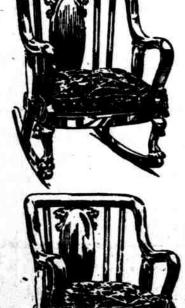

Award To Be Given By The

Extra

LANSBURGH FURNITURE and CARPET COMPANY

512 Ninth Street N. W.

Caps with letter "W" redeemable for 10 votes in The Herald contest.

All first-class bars, cafes, and hotels. Family trade supplied at $1.75 case. 50c rebate on bottles.

> MONUMENTAL BREWING COMPANY. Washington Branch, 7th St. and Rhode Island Ave.

The Big 5c Can

Labels redeem ace for 5 votes in votes each in The Herald $35,000 contest.

EVERT 1-LB. ELK GROVE CAR-TON GOOD FOR & VOTES IN HERALD CONTEST.

ELK GROVE

GOLDEN & CO., 922-928 La. Ave.

"THIS SIGN MEANS PERITY." Box tops redeemable for one vote for each penny of retail sale price. Frederick W. Lippo, Bultimore, Md.

W. D. Breakfast Coffee, 28c Bag Good for 28 Value

The Coffees Par Excellence. Save the

Bags and

Illinois Special Butterine, 25c, the highest grade manufac-

Armour's

Washington Dairy Company, 940 LOUISIANA AVENUE. Phone Main 5906.

We Beliver Goods to All Parts of City.

Established Vanilla and Lemon, 10c and 25c Bottles, and 8 Other Flavors of Unexcelled Richness and Delicacy.

MACARONI

START NOW

PRITCH-ARD'S

Baking Soda, Indian Corn Starch. at Herald Office

WHEN YOU BUY White House Brand Macaroni or Spaghetti

In Packages at Your Store You Get a Home Product Made in Washington.

AFTER-DINNER TRADE MARK

THIS BAND

Herald Contest Votes given with all purchases.