Griffmen Lose Final Game To Barrows' Red Sox Tribe

Heavy Hitting by Beantown Crew and Poor Fielding by Nationals Cause Downfall of Griffmen.

By JOHN A. DUGAN.

Boston, May 2.—Harry Hooper's timely clouting, coupled with costly boots by the Nationals' inner and outer trenches, paved the way for these Beantown league leaders to land the final game of the series from the Griffmen today at Fenway Park by a 8-to-1 count.

As the farewell curve twister for this initial series, the Old Fox named Jimmy Shaw for the honors, while Dutch Leonard drew the assignment for Barrows' Red Sox. But Barrows' tribe just picked away on the Pittsburgh Stogie's delivery with such consistency that Jimmy was issued the shower call in the sixth to make room for a pinch hitter. Georgie Du Mont was then rushed into the fray in what was no doubt his war-time finale. George was allowed to retire in the eighth when Gharrity pinched, Craft making his initial appearance on the mound for the Nationals.

Griffith Receives Word That Outfielder Can Help If Needed.

Boston, May 2.—Sammy Rice, the Nationals' only 300 hitter of last season, who was called into military service while in the Augusta training camp, may yet play in a few major league games with the Nationals. Foxy Griff has ben pulling strings from all ends in an effort to obtain the services of Rice, and it now appears that his efforts may work out. Rige is stationed at Fort Terry, New York, with a brigade of cugineers who are just starting the tactics of bridge building and railroading. Rice is much further advanced than any of the other members of his troop, and has been granted permission by his commanding officer to take leave of absence for two and three day intervals whenever the Nationals. three day intervals whenever the Nationals are within striking distance of the New York post. The Nationals' pilot will not attempt to use Rice in any of these games which it is possible for him to make unless his present crop of infielders get gring bad. Shanks, Milan and Shotton have each delivered to date, and Foxy Griff has no intention of breaking up this combination, but this offer from Rice to help his old pilot along proves that Rice's claim for an extension while in the training camp was justified, and if it had not been for the faat that he was a public character, he would have no doubt heen granted the privilege of the six been granted the privilege of the six nonths' furlough. Manager Griffith received this word from Rice yesterday and is now con-sidering the question as to whether he desires to use one of Uncle Sam's doughboys during this war-time emer-

day when it was learned that the draft board of Joe Jackson's home in draft board of Joe Jackson's home in Georgis had placed him in Class Al for the national army. With Jack-son scheduled for services, it appears that the White Sox will be minus quite a few cogs in their great ma-chine by the time the Fourth of July-rolls around as it is known that "Harrolls around as it is known that "Happy" Felsch, the center fielder, and Faber, the big pitcher, are also in this early classification. With these two outfielders taken from the White Sox line-up and Faber put on the shelf, it sure looks like good goings, for the Red Sox, as Barrows has rathered about him. for the Red Sox, as Barrows has gathered about him a combination that can both field and hit the pill while they have lined-up one of the best, if not the best, pitching staffs in either of the big leagues.

The Nationals lift tonight over the N. Y., N. H. and Hartford, for Phil-adelphia where a three-game series will be opened with Mack's tribe tomorrow. Doc Ayers is slated for the honors in this game, while Harry Harper is booked to do the honors

Vean Gregg and Perry will be worked against the Nationals in these week end battles as both to date have proved puzzling to the Capital City Tribe. Ayers is about due to show some real class and it will not be a bit surprising if he turns back the Slumberland Crew. Manager Griffith stated just before train time that he intends using Harper in the entire game Saturday no matter what the Lanky South-paw states. I am going to back paw starts. I am going to back right up against the ice cooler and not say a word when I put Harper out there Saturday as he cannot do any worse for me than that memorial twenty-one base on balls which he handed Joe Cantillon out in the Association, and I believe that the big boy needs the work to round him into shape. The only way he will come off the mound will the emergency of a pinch hitter

After the game in Philly Satur-day the Nationals will jump down to Baltimore for an exhibition game with Jack Dunn's Orioles to be played at the Gentlemen's Driving Park. Quite a few of the athletes will make the jump to the National Capital as only one more game is scheduled for this trip, this being the Monday's contest in the Quaker

Eddie Gerrihty and Georgie Du-Mont are slated to leave the club after Saturday's game while Joe Casey, the catcher from Minneapolis and Val Picinich the receiver from Atlanta, are expected to report to the Nationals during the stay in
