Doctor’s Wife
Had Rheumatism

Mrs. John L. Cartwright, whose residence is on the Woodrow Br. 3rd, was taken ill Sunday evening and was pronounced dead yesterday. Mrs. Cartwright has had rheumatism for some time, but it was not considered of such a severe nature as to cause the doctor to issue a certificate of death. Mrs. Cartwright was 43 years old, and was the widow of a Union soldier, who died of typhoid fever in 1865. Mrs. Cartwright is survived by her husband and two children.
