FIGHT INCREASED FARES ON W. R. E.

Citizens File Protest with Utilities Commission; Call Company Unfair.

Notice of a protest against the granting of any increase in rates to the Washington Railway and Electric Company was formally served upon the Public Service Commission yesterday in the form of a demurrer filed by William Clayton.

Attorney Clayton represents the Federation of Citizens' Associations. He points out that the company was given permission to raise fares from six for a quarter to straight five-cent rate only four months ago and claims it has yet to be proved that the measure of relief granted is not sufficient. Attention is called to the fact that the commission has not completed its investigation into the physical valuation of the company's properties and therefore no fair rates can be determined.

The demurrer then claims that any increase would be discriminatory on patrons of the W. R. and E. since they would pay a higher rate than the Capitol Traction Company patrons.

In conclusion, it sets forth that the service given by the W. R. and E. is not the kind which the public is entitled to under the law.

WORLD'S GREATEST HOTEL SUCCESS

BIGGEST IRISH DAY IN D. C., SAYS MORAN

Sees Universal Support for Erin at Liberty Hut.

According to Patrick T. Moran, the mass meeting at Liberty Hut St. Patrick's Day was the biggest demonstration that Irish-Americans have ever given in this section.

The cosmopolitan character of the audience, which applauded the words of former Senator Bailey, Hattie Taylor and others, championing the cause of Ireland, showed, said Moran, the universal opinion that the Emerald Isle should receive independence.

On the stand at Liberty Hut were Catholic priests, Protestant ministers and Jewish rabbis.
