Arguments for Half and Half System Tomorrow.

Hearings on the half-and-half plan for District appropriations will be resumed tomorrow morning before the House District committee, members of the citizens' committee on fiscal relations resuming testimony in favor of the plan.

Theodore W. Noyes, who, with Henry B. F. Macfarland, presented figures Friday to show that the District is well taxed, will continue his testimony before the District committee. Chairman Macfarland of the citizens' mony before the District committee.

Chairman Macfarland of the citizens' committee, said that Congress listened "very attentively" to the arguments advanced by him for retaining the present half-and-half plan.
This provides for an equitable division of expenses for the District between the Federal government and the municipal government, both appropriating equal amounts to cover the indebtedness.

Chairman Macfarland presented

Chairman Macfarland presented statistics in support of his contention that citizens of Washington are not under-taxed, as alleged. It is expected that Mr. Noyes will continue the argument along similar lines tomorrow.

Chairman Mapes, of the House District Committee, has introduced a bill proposing to abolish this equitable system of appropriations and it is not the tricked that his stand will easily be

SCHOOLS GIVE $3,300 TO HOSPITAL'S DRIVE

"When the returns from the public schools are all reported the mount will exceed $3,300," said Cuno H. Rudolph, president of the vision of the Children's Hospital campaign for $100,000 they are classed as a team, yesterday. "This contribution is particularly appre-ciated by the directors of the hospital, as it indicates the deep interest taken in the drive by the teachers and pupils alike, and especial thanks are due the former through whose friendly co-operation the children were aroused to the needs of the institution which is distinctly their own."

Miss M. Woodworth, superintendent of the hospital, announced that $203.10 had been collected from the colored scholars in the Eleventh division of the public schools under the supervision of Miss Marion P. Shadd, supervising principal.

The standing of divisions is as follows: Thomas Bell Sweeney, lows: Thomas Bell Sweeney, leader, $25.094; Cuno H. Rudolph, leader, $17.526.79, and Mrs. J. W. Wadsworth, jr., leader, $16,436.42. These sums, together with subscriptions from other sources, bring the grand total up to date of $66,843.76.

ENGLISH ACTOR IS DINNER HOST

Godfrey Tearle, Entertaining Here Surprised at Dry Law But Impressed by Capital's Beauty.

Godfrey Tearie, a prominent English actor who will make his first American appearance tonight at the Belasco Theater with an all-English company in "Carnival," was the host last night at a dinner given to the dramatic and society editors of Washington.

Mr. Tearle and Miss Malone, his leading woman, discussed some of the differences between the theatrical customs of America and England. They seemed overswed at the administration of prohibition in this country and cited the fact that in England it was not unusual to see women smoking in the theater. Both were very much impressed by the beauty of the National Capital and compared it most favorably with New pared it most favorably with New York City.
