GEORGETOWN GAS BONDS FEATURE ON D. C. EXCHANGE

Local Securities Enjoy Most Active Session In Months.

OTHER LOCAL NOTES

Redmond & Co. in New Home. Boyer Addresses Naval Officers; Personals.

Securities on the Washington Stock Exchange yesterday finally rid themselves of the spell of listlessness which had prevailed during the greater part of the past month, and enjoyed a lively and interesting session.

Activity in bond issues was the outstanding feature of the day. A total of $7,000, face value, was recorded, Georgetown Gas is, heretofore rather inactive, being responsible for $1,000, of the total sales of $7,000.

Redmond and Company, investment bankers, successors to the former independent firms of Redmond and Company and Frazier and Company, yesterday began operating in their elaborate new location at 1913 K street northwest.

The investment department of the institution is located on the first floor, while the firm's offices, customer's room and library are located above.

Mr. W. W. Hymon, manager of the gas branch of the National City Company, who has been spending some time with his parents at Atlantic City, interrupted his vacation yesterday by returning to Washington for the day.

Mr. C. F. Jacobson, cashier of the National Metropolitan Bank, is back after spending two weeks in the mountains.

Mr. Maurice D. Rosenberg, president of the Bank of Commerce and Savings, has left Washington with his family on a motor trip to the Thousand Islands.

Mr. A. S. Gately, cashier of the Lincoln National Bank, is back from a successful fishing trip.

Mr. Frank Owens, assistant cashier of the Bank of Commerce and Savings, has returned from his vacation.

Mr. Charles D. Boyer, assistant cashier of the Federal National Bank and past president of the local chapter, American Institute of Banking, addressed officers of the Supply corps, U. S. N., yesterday on "Protestants."

The lecture was the seventh of a series of twenty-one on banking topics being conducted by local financiers to aid supply officers in the better discharge of their duties.

EARLY ACTIVITY DEVELOPS INTO WEAK EXCHANGE

Trading in Favored Issues Makes Up Bulk of Transactions.

RAILS HOLD WELL

Oils and Tobacco Shares Are Heavy; Industrials Average Lower.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—After an active first hour, during which weakness among industrials was a feature, the stock market settled back into dullness.

Trading in favored issues makes up the bulk of the day's activity, but several new low records were made. Oil and tobacco shares were heavy, but scattering weakness appeared in other departments.

Rails held strongly well. Toward the close the changes among the latter were irregular, while the industrials were distinctly lower.

Weakness in German exchange markets, which developed on Saturday, was again a feature of the foreign exchange market.

A price of 1.15 cents being 3 points below the closing for last week.

The weakness contrasted with generally higher quotations for the other European countries.

sterling being up 1/2 of a cent at $2.65, and French franc showing a gain of 1 1/2 points.
