Sec. 2 And he it further enacted, That it is, and shall be the duty of each and every citizen of these Confederate States specific to give information to the officers charged with the execution of this law of any and every lands, tenements and hereditaments, goods and chattels, rights and credits withen this Confederacy, and of every right and interest therein held, owned, possessed or enjoyed by or for any alien enemy as aforesaid. Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of every attorney, agent, former partner, trustee or other person holding or controlling any such lands, tenements r hereditaments, goods or chattels, rights or credits, or any interest therein, of or for any such alien enemy, speedily to inform the Receiver, hereinafter provided to be appointed, of the same, and to render an account thereof, and so far as is practicable, to place the same in the hands of such Receiver; whereupon, such person shall be fully acquitted of all responsibility for property and effects so falling to give such information and render such account shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and, upon indict-ment and conviction, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars and imprisoned not longer than six the court trying the case, and shall further be liable to be sued by said Confederate States, and subjected to pay double the ra'ue of the estate, property or effects of the alien enemy held by him or subject to his control. Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the several Judges of this eracy to give this act specially in charge Grand Juries of these Confederate States, and it shall be their daty at each sitting well and truly to inquire and report and a can string well and ruly to indine and repor-all lands, tenements and hereditaments, goods and chattels, rights and credits, and every interest therein, within the jurisdiction of said. Grand. Jury, held by or for any alien enemy, and it shall be the duty of the several Receivers, appointed under this act, to take a copy of every such report, and to proceed in obtaining the possession and con-trol of all such property and effects reported, and to institute proceedings for the sequestration thereof in the manner hereinafter provided.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted. That each Judge of this Confederacy shall, as early as practicable, appoint a Re-ceiver for each section of the State for which he holds a court, and shall require him, before entering upon the duties of his office, to give a bond in such penalty as may be prescribed by the Judge, with good and sufficient secu-nity, to be approved by the Judge, conditioned that he will diligently and faithfully discharge the duties imposed up-on him by law. And said officer shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Judge of the district or section for which is appointed, and shall be removed for incompetency, or efficiency, or infidelity in the discharge of his trust. And should the duties of any such Receiver, at any time, appear to the Judge to be greater than can be efficiently performed by him, then it shall be the duty of the Judge to divide the district or section into one or more other Receivers districts, according to the necessities of the case, and to rpoint a Receiver for each of said newly created districts. And every such Receiver shall also, before entering upon the duties of his office, make oath in writing before the Judge of the district or section for which he is appointed, diligantly, and well and truly to execute the duties of this signed by him, setting forth that no alien enemy has any interest in the right which he asserts, or for which he attigates, either directly or indirectly, by trust, c pen or secret, and that he litigates solely for himself, or for some citizen of the Confederate States whom he legally represents: and when the defence is conducted for or on account of another, in whole or in part, the plea shall set forth the name and residence of such other person, and the relation that the defendant hears to him in the litigation. If the case in-volves matter which should be tried by a jury, according to the course of common law, the defendant small be entitled to a jury trial. If it involves matter of equi y jurisdiction, the court shall proceed according to its usus I mode of pro-cedure in such cases, and the several courts of this Confederacy may, from time to time, establish rule, of procedure of the cause as shall to it seem most promotive of justice, or should it deem answers to the interrogatories necessary in order to secure a discovery, the court shall imprison the party in default until full answers shall be made.

Seo. 9. Be it further enacted. That it shall be the duty of the District Attorney of the Confederate States, diligently to prosecute all causes instituted under this act, and he shall receive a compensation therefor of two per cent, on and from the fruits of all liti-gation instituted under this act: Provided, That no matter shall be called litigated except a defendant be admitted by the court, and a proper plea be filed.

Sec. 10. Be it further enacted, That each Receiver ap-pointed under this act shall at least account and the pointed under this act shall, at least every six months, and as much oftener as he may be required by the court, ren-det a true and perfect account of all matters in his hands or under his control under the law, and shall make and state just and perfect accounts and settlements under oath of his collections of monies and disbursements under this law, stating accounts and making settlements of all mat-ters separately, in the same way as if he were administrator of several estates of deceased persons by separate ap-pointments. And the settlements and decrees shall be for each case or estate separately, so that the transaction in respect to each alien enemy's property may be kept recorded and preserved separately. No settlement as above provided shall, however, be made until judgment or decree of sequestration shall have passed, but the court may at any time pending litigation, require an account of matters in litigation and in the possession of the Receiver, and may

Sec. 13. Be it further enacted, That all settlements of Receivers for sequestered property shall be recorded and a copf thereof shall be forwarded by the clerk of the court to the Treasurer of the Confederate States within ten days after the decree, interlocutory or final, has been passed; and all balances found against the Receiver shall by him be paid over into the court, subject to the order of the Treasurer of the Confederate States, and upon the failure of the Receiver for five days to day over the same, execution shall issue therefor, and he shall be liable to attachment by the court and to suit upon his bond. And any one embezzling any money under this act shall be liable to indictment, and on convic-ion shall be confined at hard labor for not less than six months nor more than five years, in the discretion of the court, and fined in double the amount embezzled.

SEC. 14 Be it farther enacted. That the President of the Confederate States shall, by and with the advice and consent of Congress, or of the Senate, if the appointment be made under the permanent Government, a point three dis-creet Commissioners, learned in the law, who shall hold at the seat of Government two terms each year, upon notice given, who shall sit so long as the business before them shall require, whose duty it sha'l be, under such rules as they may adopt, to hear and adjudge such claims as may be brought before them by any one aiding this Confederaev in the present war against the United States, who shall allege that he has been put to loss under the act of the United States, in retaliation of which this act is passed, or under any other act of the United States, or of any State thereof, authorizing the seizure, condemnation or confisca-tion of the property of any citizen or resident of the Con-federate States, or other person niding said Confederate States in the present war against the United States, and the finding of such Commissioners in favor of any such claim shall be prima face evidence of the correctness of the demand, and whenever Congress shall pass the claim, the same shall be paid from any money in the Treasury deriv ed from sequestration under this act: Provided. That said Board of Commissioners shall not continue beyond the organization of the Court of Claims, provided for by the constitution; to which Court of Claims the duties herein provided to be discharged by Commissioners shall belong upon the organization of raid court. The salaries of said Commissioners shall be at the rate of two thousand lies.

Commissioners shall be at the rate of two thousand five hundred dollars per annum, and shall be paid from the Treasury of the Confederacy. And it shall be the duty of he Attorney General or his assistant to represent the in terests of this Government in all cases arising under this sect before said Board of Commissioners.

Sec 15. Be it further enacted, That all the expenses incurred in proceedings under this act shall be paid from the sequestered fund, and the Judges, in settling accounts with Receivers, shall make to them proper allowances of compensation, taking two and a half per cent. on receipts, and the same amount on expenditures as reasonable compensa-the same amount on expenditures, as reasonable compensa-tion, in all cases. The fees of the officers of court shall be such as are allowed by law for similar services. In other cases, to be paid, however, only from the sequestered fund:

GUNPOWDER FOR THE SOUTH .- We were yesterday on board the steamboat New Moon, and seeing a large lot of kettles, between twenty and thirty, some of great size, and the men at work getting a steam engine on board, we inquired what these articles were for, and were informed by the captain of the boat that they were intended for the manufacture of saltpetre at a spot in the mountains some sixty or seventy miles distant from Jacksonport, Ark., to which town the boat would convey them. We learned that Mr. Brinkley, of this city, and Mr. Jones, who resides down the river opposite the town of Commerce, have bought from Capt. James Smith who lives on Black River, the saltpetre cave about to be worked, at the price of $25,000. The purchasers, in the present contingency, have determined, patriotically, to spare no pains or expense to supply the South with an article she so much requires as saltpetre for the manufacture of gun powder. As soon as thirty or forty hands can be obtained, they will be set to work, and it is believed that a large amount of saltpetre will be procured .-Memphis Appeal, 14th.

THE KANGAROO'S FAST .- Abraham Lincoln has appointed the last day of September as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer, to be observed by the people of the United States. There can be no use of this observance for three

1st. "Fasting" has already been extensively ob served and practiced among the Northern paupers thrown out of employment, as evidenced by the armies of women in their cities begging for bread. 2nd. Their "humiliation" was rendered complete on the 21st July, on the plains of "Manassas," unless the scoundrels are dead to shame. 3rd. Their "prayers" are forbidden by the Good Book, which says the prayers of the wicked availeth not; and in this view, there can be no propriety in the rogues, hars, thieves and scoundrels of Yankeedom invoking a just God to favor their invasion of the South, for purposes of plunder, robbery, arson, murder, rape, confiscation, and the overthrow of true (iovernment on earth .- Columbus Times.

NEW CLOTHING STORE!

ISAAC OETTINGER, AT THE (Corner of Fayetteville Street and Market Square,) 20,000 DOLLARS WORTH Of Men's and Boys Ready-Made Clothing, Boots,

And a great many other articles. I wish it distinctly understood that these Goods were bought in times of peace, consequently at much lower prices than they could be bought for now. They will be sold again at the old retail prices. I have no particular fancy for saving so much, all I ask of the public is, to give me a call, they will certainly not be disappointed in the quantity, the quality, as well as in Remember corner of Favetteville St. and Market Square, the prices of my games Remember corner of Favetterms (formerly occupied by Mr. Poole.)

Respectfully,
