A happier soul you never knew. But by degrees the seene was changed;
The house must all be new arranged.
Good cheer, good company will draw;
A deal of company they saw;
And these were of the gay and young.
And some were of the highest ton.
The lady hinted to her spouse—
(Her face was red, she knit her brows)
"Could not your father, pray, my dear,
When any company is here,
Go dine up stairs? I wish him off
Whene'er I hear him sneeze and cough,
And tell old stories out of date;
And then he's got so deaf of late;
Would talk for ever; and so curious,
He pokes the fire so very furious!
The servants laugh—I've two dismissed,
I cannot bear to see him quizzed.
When folks are got so far advanced,
Their wits are, as it were, entranced. Their wits are got so far advanced,
Their wits are, as it were, entranced.
They must perceive, if they had sense.
That with them we could all dispense.
In his own room were he to dine,
He could not at the chance repine;
He'd have more comforts when alone,
And we'd be rid of such a drone." The husband with his wife complies, The husband with his wife complies,
Although some qualms of nature rise.
And gratitude and filal love.
His father now must dine above.
A month or so, 'tis preity well;
The servants now neglect his bell;
They're tired of dancing so up stairs;
One footman matters, t'other swears.
Some days he has his dinner hot,
Some days his dinner is forgot; Some days his dinner is forgot: His son scarce sees him once a week ... At length his health begins to break His given fortune he repents; He sees his folly and laments; But near upbraids the sen and wife, For fear it might be cause of strife. "Some company come here to-day.

A week or two, perhaps, they stay."
The lady said, and counting heads,
"I fear we shall be short of beds.
Set Timothy and Lady Bloom
Must have you're father's han some room.
Old dad can sleen. I think he was

Over the coach house there's a loft-I'll have a bed made warm and soft; The coachman he won't mind a pin, To take his quarters at the inn. Schold! now on the coach-house loft, tretch'd on a bed not warm nor soft, The venerable parent lies. And tears of sorrow fill his eyes. While in the house full plenty reigns, And ev'ry joy that mirth ordains; Their pleasures so o'erflow the brim. Nor son nor daughter taink of him. The servants have so much to do; The very dogs forget him too.

Old dad can sleep, I think he may

But scandal then will make a rout,

Down at the inn just while they stay;

And say I've turned your gather out ;

Besides, 'tis true, (as he's so old.)
To sleep from home he may catch cold.

But thought of still he was by one,. The offspring of his thankless son. and six years old his child might be... And like a cherub sweet look'd he ; A stranger to the worldly mask.
For grandpapa he'd often as'.
On grandpapa his prattle ran.
He dearly lov'd the good old man.
Who to the child goes ever kind. is grandpapa he needs must find ; He watched the piace he rose betimes.

And to the loft the sweet boy climbs.

Twas depth of winter, frost and snows,
The old man's bed was scant of clothes; and nip'd with cold, and pinch'd with pain, With sighs he ventures to complain. With innocent and anxious face,
The child surveys the wretched place;
And grief his feeling heart bespeaks—
The tears run down his beauteous cheeks: And to his parents quick he runs, And with the tale their ears he stuns. They never thought of this before, out ordered now a blanket more. To shield his age from winter's harm, And keep the old man snug and warm; The little boy with this was pleas'd: And of his grief his heart was cas'd; And of his grief his heart was cas'd;
The child was prais'd for so much thought;
The bell was rung—the blanket brought—
The child the fleecy blanket feels;
His smiling face his joy reveals.
"When I'm a man," cries he, "'twill freeze—Mamma, your seissors, if you please?"
"My soissors, child! Why, how you rant!
Boy, what can you with seissors want?" "My saissors, child! Why, how you ran Boy, what can you with seissors want?"
"To cut this blanket here in two.
Papa, when I'm a man like you.
Like you I'll then be smart and gay,
Like grandpapa you'll then be gray,
And feeble, helpless, weak and lald,
And then "Old Daddy" you'll be called.
So, when to coach-loft up I send you,
As every comfort I intend you,
Just half this blanket I will keep Just half this blanket I will keep fo make you warm when you're asleep." hese artless words so unexpected came. her struck their hearers like electric fiame. Pale were their cheeks from shame and keen i wmorse. Affection re-assumes its former course; The contrite son his penitence expressed. And took his infant angel to his breast: Flies to his injured father's sad retreat, And with repenting tears bedews his feet With smiles and cordials parting life rece la: Plac'd him once more within the mansion walls. With all those aids that affluence can give, The generous parent many years may live. The son's repentant spirit never sleeps: To keep it waking he the blanket keeps. The child who treats his parents with neglect Half of the blanket may himself expect.

Post Office Department, April 20, 1857.

An Act of Congress, approved 3d March, 1857, making appropriations for the service of the Post Office Department for the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1858, provides:

"Sec. 10. That the Postmaster General be and he is hereby authorized to contract for the conveyance of the entire letter mail from such point on the Misof the entire letter mail from such point on the Mississippi river as the contractors may select to San F ancisco, in the State of California, for six years, at a cost not exceeding three hundred thousand dollars per annum for semi-monthly, four hundred and fifty thousand dollars for weekly, or six hundred thousand dollars for semi-weekly, or six hundred thousand dollars for semi-weekly, service, to be performed semi-monthly, weekly, or semi-weekly, at the option of the Postmaster General.

"Sec. 11. That the contract shall require the service to be performed with good four-horse coaches or spring wagons, suitable for the conveyance of passengers as well as the safety and security of the sengers as well as the safety and security of the mails.

"Sec. 12. That the contractor shall have the right of pre-emption to three hundred and twenty acres of "Sec. 13. That the said service shall be performed within twenty-five days for each trip; and that, before entering into such contract, the Postmaster General shall be satisfied of the ability and disposition of the parties, bonafide and in good faith, to perform the said contract, and shall require good and sufficient security for the performance of the saine, the service to commence within twelve months after sufficient security for the performance of the same, the service to commence within twelve months after the signing of the contract."

Proposals will accordingly be received at the Contract Office of the Post Office Department, until 3 p. m. of the 1st day of June, 1857, for conveying mails under the provisions of the above act.

Besides the starting point on the Mississippi river, bidders will name the intermediate points proposed to be embraced in the route and otherwise designate its course as nearly as practicable.

its course as nearly as practicable.

Separate proposals are invited for semi-monthly weekly, and semi-weekly trips each way.

The decision upon the proposals offered will be made after the Postmaster General shall be satisfied of the ability and disposition of the parties in good forth to parties in the contract. faith to perform the contract.

A guarantee is to be executed, with good and sufficient sureties, that the contract shall be executed with like good security, whenever the contractor or contractors shall be required to do so by the Post-master General, and the service must commence within twelve months after the date of such contract.

Form of Proposal.

,—, of—, county of—, State of—, propose to convey the entire letter mail, for the term of six years, from the date specified in the contract for commencing service, from—, on the Mississippi river, by—, to San Francisco, California, agreeably to the advertisement of the Postmaster General of the 20th April, 1857, in good four-horse coaches or spring wagons, suitable for the conveyance of passengers, as well as the safety and security of the sengers, as well as the safety and security of the mails, semi-monthly, each way, for the annual sum of — dollars; weekly, each way, for the annual sum of — dollars; semi-weekly, each way, for the annual sum of — dollars. (Signed.)

The undersigned, residing at ____, State of ____, undertake that, if the foregoing bid for carrying the mail on the route from ____, on the Mississippi river, to San Francisco, California, be accepted by the Postmaster General, the bidder shall, when required by the Postmaster General, enter into the necessary obligation to perform the service proposed, with good and sufficient sureties. This we do understanding distinctly the obligation and liabilities assumed by guarantors under the Ath section of the act of Congress of July 2, (Signed by two guarantors.)

acquainted with the above guaranters, and knows them to be men of property, and able to make good their guarantee. (Signed.)

INSTRUCTIONS. Containing conditions to be incorporated in the contracts to the extent the Department may deem proper.

1. No pay will be made for trips not performed ; and for each of such omissions not satisfactorily ex-plained three times the pay of the trip may be de-ducted. Deductions will also be ordered for a grade of performance inferior to that specified in the contract. For repeated delinquencies of the kind herein specified, enlarged penalties, proportioned to the nature thereof and the importance of the mail, may be

2. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, or any portion of them, for the admission of passengers, being concerned in setting up or running an express conveying intelligence in advance of the mail, a quarter's pay may be deducted.

3. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certificates of postmasters, or the affidavits of other credible persons, for failing to arrive in contract time; for neglecting to take the mail from or delivering it into a post office; for suffering it (owing either to the un-suitableness of the place or manner of carrying it) to be wet, injured, destroyed, robbed, or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs or is concerned in unning a coach on the route. 4. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for repeated failures to run agreeably to contract; for violating the post office laws, or disobeying the in-structions of the Department; for refusing to dis-charge a carrier when required by the Department to do so; for assigning the contract without the assent of the Postmaster General; for running on express as aforesaid; or for transporting persons or packages conveying mailable matter out of the mail.

5. A bid received after the last day and hour named or without the guarantee required by law, cannot be considered in competition with a regular proposal reasonable in amount. 6. The route, the service, the yearly pay, the name and residence of the bidder, (that is, his usual post office address,) and those of each member of the firm, where a company offers, should be distinctly stated.

7. Altered bids should not be submitted; nor should bids once submitted be withdrawn.

3. Each bid must be guarantied by two or more responsible persons satisfactory to the Postmaster General. General guarantees cannot be admitted. The bid and guarantees should be signed plainly with the full name of each person. the full name of each person.

9. The Department reserves the right to reject any

9. The Department reserves the right to reject any bid which may be deemed extravagant, and also the bids of failing contractors and bidders.

10. The bid should be sealed; superscribed "Mail Proposals for overland route to California," addressed "Second Assistant Postmaster General," Contract Office. 11. A modification of a bid in any of its essential terms is tantamount to a new bid, and cannot be received, so as to interfere with a regular competition, after the last hour set for receiving bids.

12. Postmasters are to be careful not to certify the sufficiency of guarantors as sureties without knowing that they are persons of sufficient responsibility; and all bidders, guarantors, and sureties are distinctly notified that, on a failure to enter into or perform the contracts for the service proposed for in the ac-cepted bids, their legal liabilities will be enforced against them.

13. Present contractors, and persons known at the Department must, equally with others, procure guaranters and certificates of their sufficiency substananters and certificates of their sufficiency substantially in the forms above prescribed. The certificates of sufficiency must be signed by a postmaster, or by a judge of a court of record.

The attention of bidders, guarantors, sureties, &c. is directed to the following laws, viz:

Sec. 2. Act of March 3, 1825, requiring contractors, carriers, &c. to be sworn.

carriers, &c. to be sworn. Sec. 44. Act of March 3, 1825, in relation to failure to enter into contract. Sec. 27. Act of July 2, 1896, liabilities of guarantors.
Sec. 24. Act of July 2, 1836. authorizing bids of failing contractors to be rejected.
Sec. 28. An act of July 2, 1836, in relation to combinations amongst bidders.

Act of April 21, 18:8, provides that no member of Congress can be a contractor. Sec. 42. An act of March 3, 1825, provides that no postmater, assistant postmaster, or clerk in a post office shall be a contractor.
Sec. 7. Act of March 3, 1825, provides that no other than a free white male person shall be employed carrying the mail.

The Postmaster General will reserve to himself the right of annulling any contract made under the above act, whenever he shall discover that the same or any part of it, is offered for sale in the market for the purpose of speculation, and he will, in no case, sanction a transfer of the same, in whole or in part, to any assignee or sub-contractor, less qualified, in his opinion, than the original contractor, to carry the his opinion, than the original his opinion his o

The business of this Company will compare favorably with the most successful similar institutions in the United States. From the 1st day of August, 1855, in fifteen months, up to the 1st day of November, 1856, the premiums and interest received amounted to the large sum of four hundred thousand one hundred and eighty-five dollars and sixty-eight cents, with the payment of losses and expenses of one hundred and seventy-seven thousand one hundred and twenty-eight dollars and sixty-one cents. With these evidences of success and good man-

Medicines.

A RETIRED PHYSICIAN whose sands of life have nearly run out, discovered while in the East Indies, a certain cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and General Debility. The remedy was discovered by him when his only child, a daughter, was given up to die. He had heard much of the wonderful restor ative and healing qualities of preparations made from the East India Hemp, and the thought occurred to him that he might make a remedy for his child.—He studied hard and succeeded in realizing his wishes. His child was cured, and is now alive and well. He has since administered the wonderful remedy to thousands of sufferers in all parts of the world, and he has never failed in making them completely healthy and happy. Wishing to do as much good as possible, he will send to such of his afflicted fellow-beings as request it, this recipe, with full and explicit directions for making it up, and successfully using it. He requires each applicant to enclose him one shilling—three cents to be returned as postage on the recipe, and the remainder to be applied to the payment of this advertisement. Address

James's sole object is to benefit the world, and not to make money. He has no agents who prepare his medicines from the recipe, and never will have! The medicines from the recipe, and never will have: The impostors cannot make up the medicine from the recipe so as to sell it at a profit, the cost of importing the East India Hemp alone being too great to admit of a pecuniary speculation in the genuine remedy. THE PERCULAN SYRUP having successfully I passed the ordeal to which many discoveries in the Materia Medica are subjected, must now be reoeived as an established medicine.

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered state of the Blood, Boils, General Debility, and all Diseases which require a Tonic and Alterative medicine is beyond question. The proofs of its efficacy are so numerous, so weil authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably heartate to receive the Proffered aid.
The Peruvian Syrup does not profess to be a cure-

all, but its range is extensive, because many diseases, apparently unlike, are intimately related, and, proceeding from one cause, may be cured by one The class of diseases for which the Syrup promi ses a cure, is precisely that which has so often baf-fied the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

Those who may wish for an opinion from disinterested persons respecting the character of the Syrup, cannot fail to be satisfied with the following among numerous testimonials, in the hards of the Agents. The signatures are those of gentlemen well known in the community, and of the highest respectability.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not heartate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

From our own experience, as well as from the testimony of others, whose intelligence and integrity are altogether unquestionable, we have no doubt of its efficacy in cases of incipient Diseases of the Lungs and Bronchial Passages, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Neuralgia, &c. Indeed its effects would be incredible, but from the character of those who have witnessed them, and have volunteered their testimony, as we do ours, to its restorative ed their testimony, as we do ours, to its restorative power.
