AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

GROVER'S THEATER .- Mr. Wilkes Booth closes his engagement this evening. It has been a most successful one, though short, and our play-goers feel that the name of Booth is vet to hold its own on the stage. His closing bill is "The Marble Heart," the piece which made such a hit the first night he appeared. ITALIAN OPERA .- Washington Theater was crammed last night, on the occasion of the appearance of the Grau Opera Troupe in "Trovatore." To-night an opportunity is given of Brignoli and others, appearing. CANTERBURY .- The past week has been one of pleasure to the patrons, and of remuneration to the managers of Canterbury, for the bills nightly have been admirable and the audiences large. Julia Mortimer, Kate Pennoyer, Ernestine de Faiber, the sisters Marie and Augusta, and all the performers appear to-night in a splendid bill.

THE RUSSIAN WAR panorama draws crowds nightly at Odd Fellows' Hall, Seventh street. Go by all means and see this great work of art. The battles by land and sea, and the scene depicting the fall of Sebastopol, are remarkably successful.

VARIETIES .- This resort has now two immense attractions in the persons of C. W. Parker, the boneless man, and Harry Leslie, the fearless rope walker, who appear nightly. Ada Laurent, Helena Smith, Ada Tesman, Nellie Seymour and other first-class favorites appear.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH FAIR will close this evening. This has been one of the most entertaining fairs of the season, and on this last night all should aid in making it remunerative. It is held at Odd Fellows' Hall, Navy-Yard.

FAIR AT RYLAND CHAPEL.—The ladies of Ryland Chapel continue their fair at Potomac Hall, Island, and offer as fine a display of useful and ornamental articles as could be desired. The refreshments, too, are most palatable, and are gracefully dispensed by fair ladies.

THE CAMPBELL HOSPITAL ENTERTAIN-MENTS .- Last evening, another fine entertainment took place at Campbell Hospital, which was attended by nearly all the patients and convalescents quartered there, numbering some 3:0, a number of soldiers from neighboring hospitals, and quite a number of ladies and gentlemen, friends of the patients. The affair took place in a large ward, which has been fitted up with a stage and scenery, and otherwise ornamented, which is used during the day as a reading-room by the patients and for the entertainments. The scenery was painted by one of the convalescents-C. W. Bolza, 6th Michigan.

The entertainment was opened by a grand procession of the company. An excellent instrumental troupe of six persons, with black faces, next appeared, and with music, songs and witty sayings, for a time entertained the audience, and drew forth much applause. The song, "Katy Dean," was sung with fine effect by C. E. Peabody, 12th Mass., and was fol lowed by a jig dance by A. J. Kilburn, 146th N. Y. The redoubtable "bones," C. H. Seely, 26th N. Y., gave an exhibition of his skill on the rattlers. A. F. Hamilton, of Hawkins' Zouaves, a clever comedian and musician, played a solo on the concertina, drawing down the house. This part of the performance closed with the "Railroad Smash-up," which was done up in style. Prof. Sell (white) followed, giving a capital burlesque on the "dissolving views." The "Congo Lay," by C. De Forrest, contract nurse, E. C. Cole, 12th Mass., Seely and Kilburn, something on the order of the Arab Lay, was done up in style, and was re-ceived with shouts of laughter. Mr. Cole appeared as a stump orator, and spoke upon the cry-sis." The evening's entertainments concluded with the farce of "Box and Cox," in which Mr. Hamilton appeared as Box, J. Trask, 12th Mass., as Cox, and C. H. Frye, 21st Mass., as Mrs. Bouncer, the latter character being played with much effect.

At present there are about 300 patients and convalescents at this hospital, although there are treated in such a way as to make them as cheerful and comfortable as possible, these entertainments doing much to that end. At the entertainment last night, the effect was not only with those able to be present, but those confined to their beds seemed to be well pleased that their comrades were enjoying themselves. Dr. J. H. Baxter, in charge, and his assistants, Drs. Kelly, Hinkle, Leman, Kemp, True, and Sidney, are assiduous in their attentions to the patients, and deserve much credit for the fine order observed, and the excellent condition of

Dr. F. Hinkle, as treasurer of the hospital, has received $167.85, as the net proceeds of the exhibition of dissolving views, for the purpose of purchasing a library, given through the exertions of a number of ladies, to whom the surgeons and patients desire to return their thanks. The library will, we understand, be fitted up shortly.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE A. M. E. CHURCH .-

Sixth Day.-The committee on business submitted resolutions, which were adopted. The resolutions express sympathy with every advancement of the principles of liberty, whether it be in the disenthrallment of the slaves in the British West Indies, the liberation of the serfs in Russia, the emancipation of slaves in the capital of the nation, the States in rebellion, or the extinction of the entire system in all lands. The resolutions assert that the colored people are loyal, and have no sympathy with those who are laboring either "directly or indirectly for the overthrow of a Government whose independence was purchased in part by the blood of our forefathers and sustained by that of their sons." While grateful to the President and his associates for their liberty, they nevertheless attribute their disenthrallment to the overruling Providence of God. They declare that the 16th of April, 1862, and the 1st of January, 1863, are days entitled to the veneration and commemoration of the colored race. While desirous that the war should terminate, they will patiently and prayerfully await the result. They are gratified that the Administration has determined to use the negroes as soldiers, and conclude by pledging themselves to use their efforts to induce the colored race to adopt such a course as will commend them to the favorable consideration of the humane and intelligent everywhere.

WE TAKE great pleasure in noticing the following letter, written by one of Professor Alex. Wolowski's pupils:

To the Editor of the Daily and Sunday Morning Chronicle: -SIR: Being desirous of learning on the piano by the new method of Prof. Wolowski, I commenced, not having the slightest idea of music, and I am now on the second half of my course of instruction, and I must say that in that short time my progress has been wonderful. His method, as well as his way of explaining, is so remarkable that it enables the pupil in a very short time to understand the theory of music thoroughly, and what is more, enables the pupil to read music with the greatest facility; and as I have derived great benefit from Prof. Wolowski's instruction, I would advise all those who would wish to become fine musicians not to lose this oppportunity, as he is about to commence his last course. JOHN ACKER.

to which time the court adjourned.

A CHAPLAIN ARRESTED .- Rev. B. W. Mitchell was arrested yesterday, and committed to the Old Capitol prison by the detectives under Col. Volunteers, notwithstanding the fact that the War Department efficially notified him that he was not considered chaplain of that or any other regiment.

Justice Drury committed her to jail for court.

FOR COURT .- G. Shirres and Thos. Dutton were arrested by Roundsman Tait for assault and battery on a boy named James Harkness. Dearest Samuel thou hast left us, We our loss most deeply feel; But 'tis God that hath bereft us,

His funeral will take place to morrow (Sunday) afternoon, at 4 o'clock, from No. 245 Bridge LINES WRITTEN ON THE DEATH OF C. S. WHITNEY, BY MRS. D. DAVIS.

'Tis hard to live, and yet to feel
Whilst living you are dying:
To leave all loved ones here below,
This, this is very trying.

And is there nothing that can save Us from the arms of death? Can no physician claim the power To banish it forthwith?

Alas i no power on earth can heal, Or save us from the grave; Our Father's will must be obeyed, 'Tis He alone can save.

And He will save all those that call On Jesus Christ his Son,
And through His all atoning blood
He'll pardon every one. And if it is God's will on earth,

These blessings will be given; And should He bid us come away, lie'll save us all in Heaven. Now let us say "Thy will be done," No matter go or stay;
We'll meet again with those we love,
And dwell in endless day.
