AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT. FORD'S THEATER .- "Fanchon" has been withdrawn after a successful run, and to-night charming Maggie Mitchell's admirers will have an opportunity of seeing her in another character. "Satan in Paris," is announced as the play, and Maggie will sustain five different characters. She will be well supported thoughout by Mr. Ford's splendid company of artists, male and female.

GROVER'S THEATER. - The opening of this elegant place of amusement last night was a oplendid success; and while Mr. Grover must have been gratified at the evidence the public gave of their appreciation of his efforts to please; those who were present were no less gratified to find that so much had been done for furnishing the public with a first-class place of amusement and first-class amusements. The play announced for to-night is Beaumont and Fletcher's drama, "The Bridal." Wallack, Davenport, Mrs. Farren, &c. appear.

CANTERBURY .- It is seldom indeed that one has an opportunity of seeing upon the same boards and upon the same wight, so much beauty, grace and elegance as is now employed at Canterbury Hall. Julia Mortmer, the sisters Marie and Augusta. Clara and Millie Fowler, and Erzestine de Faiber, are all stars in the Terpsichorean world and besid s these, Sinn has a splendid company, and all will appear to-night.

WIMAN, the Wizard, will give four more magical entertainments at Odd Fellows Hall; this evening being included. At each entertripment the automata will be istroduced, and Wyman will display his powers of ventrilo-

BALL - The annual ball of the Meagher Club will take place at Temperance Hall to-night. It will no doubt be a pleasant and agreeable affair, as all the parties given by this club are.

THE NEW NATIONAL RACE COURSE. - Among the various new enterprises started in this city is the National Race Course, located near the Insane Asylum, over the Eastern Branch, which, from the character of the gentlemen connected with it, and the large outlay expended in making the course and improving the grounds, bids fair to prove a permanent institation. The association under whose anspices this enterprise has been started is composed of some of our best citizens.

The course is located directly back of the Asylum, and the approach to it, over a gently rising road, which turns to the right after the Navy-Yard bridge is crossed, and which has been recently, by the direction of the Lovy Court, graded and graveled, forms one of the most pleasant drives about the city. The course is on high ground, and a fine view is had from it of the entire district and the surrounding country. About sixty-two acres of ground are included in the enclosure, and the place has been so much improved that the locality is scarcely recognizable. The track, which is pear or egg shaped, has been laid out and graded, and is now in fine condition. Stabling for the accommodation of two hundred horses is being erected, and already a large stand, calculated to accommodate three thousand persons, has been put up, and other stands are yet to be The 20th instant has been fixed upon for opening the course, when running races will take place for one week. Among others the following have been eagaged for the running races, and during the season other famous horses will arrive: Capt. Tom Moore's Kentucky stable, consisting of Idlewild, Ali, Momena and filly, by Ringgold; Dr. Welden's string, (Ky) - Lizzie W. Smpathy, Carary Bird and Hillsbore: Walton's string -John Davisson, Egger, Capt. Moore, Alda. baron, Lexington filly (three years) and Kuight of St. George filly (three years.) Readdy's Janada) string-Thunder, Virge and Harper; R. P. Ford & Co.'s string-Eluebird, three years Lexington filly and others; Morris' (N. Y.) string-Reomge, Dangerous, Surprise, Re-Copac; John B. Clay's (Ky.) string—Lable and what a dollar will buy. daddle and three others: Bush's (N.Y.) string-Trovatore, Ben Bruce, Seven Oaks; George Wilkes' string-Ben West and Panic. For the trotting, (second week,) a number of owners of crack horses in New York and other places have signified their intention of bringing on their stables. Messrs. Jos. Crocheron and No. land, of the Fashion Course, (L. I.,) were here yesterday, and made arrangements for the following horses to trot for the $1,000 purse: Butler, Fellingham and California Bell. They have each trotted in less than 2.21. Patchen and other noted trotters, it is expected, will be here during the season.

GRAND I. O. O. F. LEVER .- There has been talk some time of a Grand Levee by the Odd Fellows for the benefit of their library, and it will be seen by the advertisement elsewhere that the project has now fully taken shape, and that the entertainment will come off on the evening of October 14. It will be a "big thing," undoubtedly, like all affairs of the sort given by the Order, assuring the public as they do, full enjoyment with excellent order. The cosy Library Room, with its attractive shelves, is one of the institutions of the city; and every one must be glad to give a lift to so meritorious an institution as this excellent library, especially when they may enjoy themselves immensely at the same time.

FORD'S NEW THEATER .- A New Feature .-This evening the beautiful and charming Maggie Mitchell at this theater in an entirely new role. The attraction which manager Ford promises this evening cannot fail to draw general interest. The modern comedy of Satan in Paris is a piece which is always welcome to lovers of the proteau drama. Miss Mitchell will assume in the play five distinct characters. She will be supported by the entire company, in their beststyle. We notice that manager Ford underlines on his bills as being "in rehearsal," the comedies of Katy O'Sheil, and The Pet of the Petticoats," both pieces of rare merit, and doubly attractive when Maggie Mitchell appears as the heroine in each.

RECOVERED.-Last Friday, a man who gave his name as Edw. P. Jones hired a horse and buggy from Chapin & Matlock, 450 G street north, and failed to return. The owners fearing their property was gone, notified the police. who made a search through the city without success. Yesterday, Sergeant Cronin, of the Fourth Ward, sent officer Crown to Alexandria to search; and at the stable of Huyck & Veazey Crown learned that the missing horse and buggy had been left at Heise's stable, in Washington, on Friday night. The officer returned to the city, and went to Mr. Heise's stable and found the property, and returned it to the owners.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- Yesterday, a colored man, named Cuffy Burr, in a fit of passion threw a stone through the house of J. H. Sulivan, on Maryland avenue, corner of Thir teenth street, Mr. Sullivan barely escaping severe injury. He went after Burr, got into a scuffle with him, and the latter seized a stone and struck Sullivan in the mouth, splitting his lip. Burr vas arrested and taken before Justice Clayton, who committed him to jail for court. Sullivan was taken to the station also, but released to get his lip sewed up. OPERATION OF THE GEORGETOWN POLICE .-Last night the police of the Third Precinct were kept busy by the disorderly conduct of parties in Georgetown. They made thirteen arrests, an even dozen of which were for disorderly conduct. Cherry Alley, so famous in the days when railroads and steamers were few, and Georgetown was a favorite resort of sailors and teamsters, has been very quiet comparatively during several years past, but was worked up last night by parties who tried to restore the customs of those old times. The police arrested all the leaders of the disorderly squads, who were made to pay for their sport according to the extent of their participation; the fines and costs ranging from $2.44 to $5.62 each. Our quiet neighbors of Georgetown appland their police for the promptness with which they performed their duty.

"Going Through" a Soldier.-Yesterday, Sergeant Reineker and officer Clements arrested Nicholas McGowan on the charge of robbing Wm McSbeehy, a soldier, of $39.40, and he was taken to Capt Camp, at the Soldier's Rest, who sent him to the Central Guardhouse.
