AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT FORD'S THEATER .- Mr. Forrest will appear to-night as "Cardinal Richelieu," in Bulwer's beautiful play of that name. He will be ably sustaired by Mr. John McCulloch, Mrs. J. H.

Allen, Mr. Herne, Mr. Phillips, and others of Mr. Ford's company. As the Cardinal Duke. Mr. Forrest certainly stands without a rival, and all who would see the character properly delineated should not fail to visit Fords to-GROVER'S THEATER.-Mr. Grover holds on to the fairy spectacular drams of "The Seven Sisters," and he is no doubt right in doing so, for it has proven an immense success, and there are many yet who desire to see it. The acting is of high order; the scenery magnificent, and the music exquisite. Mr. J. E. McDonough is a fine comedian, and he throws all his powers into this play. CANTERBURY.-It is only necessary for parties desiring to spend a pleasant evening to note the list of performers at Canterbury, and the splendid bill in which they nightly appear, to be satisfied that they cannot go amiss by visiting this hall. To-night, among other things, the new pantomime of "Five Hundred Thousand More," will be performed. METROPOLITAN HALL.-Judging from the crowds nightly in attendance at this new place of amusement, it promises to be a formidable rival of similar places of amusement in this city. Many new features are introduced nightly. The vocalists are charming as to form, face and voice.

Variaties.-"The Female Pickpocket of Washington," a new sensational play by Fitzsimmons, continues to be a source of attraction. and delighted audiences witness it nightly. It professes to be an expose of certain life in the capital and all should see it.

PRESTIDIGITATION .- At Odd Fellows' Hall the Fakir of Ava continues to delight the audiences who resort there, and as he introduces many feats never before attempted by magicmas he is particularly well worth visiting.

RESISTING OFFICERS .- About 9 o'clock last night, officers Williams and Handley were called up to arrest Barny O'Donnell and Mich'l McGornick, two sailors, who were creating much disturbance at Canterbury. The sailors were very unwilling to be confined in the cells of the station-house, and resisted. At 4% street, opposite the City Hall, they turned in for a ular fight. O'Donnell was the prisoner of Williams, and fought hard, inflicting some severe bruises on the officer, but not without receiving a few iff return. Handley is a small man, and McGornish, a stai wart young sailor, was his prisoner. For a few minutes McGorpish had Handly down and nearly buried in the snow, but whenever he attempted to get up he found the little officer had a firm grip upok him. A gentleman who lives near the spot went to the aid of the officers, and the prisoners were secured. They were taken to the station-house and held for a hearing.

The case of E. W. W. and T. Griffin indicted

under the old English statutes for forcible entry and detainer, was taken up, District Attorney Carrington, W. J. Miller, and W. Y. Fendall for the prosecution, and Messrs. Davidge, Norris, and Utermehle for the defense. It will be recollected that at the opening of this case the defense pleaded to the jurisdiction of the court and on their demurrer to the indictment the question was referred to the full bench and the jurisdition of the Criminal Court was sustained. The case was tried at the commencement of this term but the jury failed to agree, and it is now being tried anew. It will propably occupy the greater portion of this

This entertainment promises to be the most brilliant ever given in this city. The distin-guished artistes, M'ile Charlette Varian, Theodore Habelmann, and Sig. Carlo Patti, who were accorded such an enthusiastic reception on the occasion of the first concert on Tuesday evening, will again appear. A very attractive feature of the concert is the song of "Slumber on, Baby Dear;" a mother's cradle song, which will be sung by M'lle Varian, with a piano accompaniment, by Mr. Gottschalk. Reserved seats are to be obtained at Metzero t's music store; and we advise our readers to secure them early, as the hall will undoubtedly

GEN. GRANT .- Yesterday afternoon, the Secretary of War, accompanied by General Grant, paid a visit to Brady's celebrated photograph gallery, Pennsylvania avenue, between 6th and 7th streets, and the latter sat for a picture which is to be finished (painted) after the style of the remarkably fine life size portrait of him previously taken at the same establishment, and now exhibited at its door. This new picture Mr. Brady designs for his fine New York gallery. The one Mr. B. now exhibits here is as fine a specimen of the combination of the photographic and painters arts as was ever produced in any land, while as a speaking likeness of General Grant it could not have been excelled in any particular.
