This is the elaborate defense of the institution of slavery, by the erratic Bishop Hopkins, of Vermont, which has been so eagerly seized by the rebels as material to bolster up their cause The book is a curious specimen of egotism, odd scraps of erudition, and superficial reasoning. CAIRO, April 12 .- The steamer City of Alton brings Memphis dates of the 11th instant. The rebel cavalry are scouring the country in the vicinity of Duval's Bluff. The steamer Lloyd was fired into on the White River, and had her pilot wounded. Forrest's forces are menacing ioth Columbus and Paducah, and a portion of his force is marching on the latter place. They passed Lovettsville to-day, and it is expected they will make an attack to-night. Our pickets at Columbus were driven in to-day. Besides the reinforcements sent from here, five gunhoa's are ready to receive the rebels. The steamer Belle of St. Louis has passed up with 150 bales of cotton for St. Louis. Later.

CAIRO April 13 .- The Rebel General Buford sent a flag-of trace at seven o'clock this merning, demanding the surrender of Fort Halleck, at Columbus, Kentucky, the white soldiers to be treated as prisoners of war, but no protection promised to colored troops if found in arms. Five hours was given for the removal of the women and children. The steamer Crawford arrived here at one p. m. crowded with the latter. As she was leaving Columbus two steamers arrived from below with three thousand veterans, en route home on furlough, also a battery.

.lay were landed, and would doubtless raterially change the calculations of the Reto s. The steamer Olive Branch, from New Cricars on the 6th inst, has arrived, and retotts that fighting was going on all day yesterday, and up to the time she passed there, when there was a cessation of hostilities. Ne. totations were pending, and a flag of truce

After passing, the fighting was renewed and the Federal flag was seen to come down, but it was believed to have been shot away, as there seemed to be efforts made to raise it again.

Amongst the passengers by the Olive Branch were Gen. Shipley, from Louisiana; Capt. Miliste acting Major, of New Orleans, and dept. Thompson, of the General's staff.

The Latest. General Buford's demand was for an unenactional surrender of Fort Pillow. It was stated that if the fort was surrendered the regroes would be returned to their masters, but it forced to take the place no quarter would be glown them. Colonel Lawrence, of the thirtyfour New Jersey Regiment, commanding the post, replied that his Government had placed him there to defend the fort and that a surlender was our of the question.

Paducah advices up to noon to-day report matters more quiet, and the probabilities of an track are greatly lessened. General Brayman has sent adequate reinforcements both to Columbus and Paducab, and no fears are entertained by the military authorities for the safety of either place. Passengers from below report that Forrest recently crossed the Coldwater River, near Jackson, going South with 3,000 horses and 1,900 wagons, but this is doubtless an exaggeration.

The regular troops on detached service are ordered to rejoin their respective regiments.

COURT MARTIAL OF COLONEL FISH. - A few days after the arrest of Colonel William S. Fish, Provest Marshal of Baltimore, upon charges affecting his character, an order was issued by General Lockwood, requesting the press to observe silence in relation to the matter. We now have authority for publishing the following particulars of the case: Colonel Fish was arrested and arraigned upon four charges, the first of which contained not less than seventeen specifications; the second, three specifications; the third, one; and the fourth, five. The animus of the charges may be classified as follows: "wrongful appropriation of goods for his own use," "rendering false accounts to the Government," and "the sending of cotton or Confederate bonds to Europe. Brigadier General Griffin, of the Regular Army, is the presiding officer of the court, and Major Hastings is the Judge Advocate. The number of witnesses examined was over one hundred, and the testimony, besides exhibits and accounts, makes over fifteen hundred pages. Milton Whitney, Esq., is the counsel for Colonel Fish. On Monday he occupied about four hours in the reading of the defence, and closed on Tuesday. Yesterday the Judge Advocate made his statement and submitted the case to the Court .- Balt. American, April 14.

A PERSONAL MATTER - We have seen a private letter from Mrs. Douglas, widow of the late Stephen A. Douglas, to a friend in this city, in which she denies, in the most explicit and emphatic manner, the reports which have been going the rounds of the newspapers that she is employed as a clerk in one of the De-partments at Washington. She complains, naturally enough, of the annoyance which the circulation of this unfounded statement eccasions her. It probably had its origin in the mistake of some correspondent not so familiar with her personal appearance as he supposes himself to be, and has been thoughtlessly copied by others .- New York Times.

WEST VIRGINIA POLITICS .- At a meeting of the Union men of Marion county, West Virginia, at Fairmount, on the 2d instant, to elect delegates to the State Convention. the following resolution was adopted:

CRAY'S PATENT

MOLDED COLLARS

Have now been before the public for nearly a year They are universally pronounced the neatest and best fitting collars extant. The upper edge presents a perfect curve, free from the angles noticed in all other collars. The cravat causes no puckers on the inside of the turn-down collar; they are as SMOOTH INSIDE

AS OUTSIDE, and therefore perfectly free and easy to the neck. . The Garotte Collar has a smooth and evenly finished edge on both sides. These Collars are not simply flat pieces of paper cut in the form of a collar, but are MOLDED AND SHAPED TO FIT THE NECK.

They are made in "Novelty," (or turn-down style;) in every half size from 12 to 17 inches, and in "Eureka," (or Garotte,) from 13 to 17 inches; and packed in "solid sizes" in neat blue cartons. containing 100 each; also in smaller ones of ten each—the latter a very handy package for travelers army and navy officers. EVERY COLLAR is stamped

"GRAY'S PATENT MOLDED COLLAR." Sold by all dealers in men's furnishing goods. The trade supplied by Mr. Rogers, of New Jersey, opposed the resolution, contending, on constitutional grounds, and by the common law of England, which has come down to us, that a man has a right to declare his sentiments herein order to more intelligent legislation for the benefit of ourselves and posterity. If the day should ever come when it would be necessary for him te declare such sentiments as those of the gentleman from Ohio he would do so though prison doors and the Bastile were ready to receive him. Mr. Colfax rose to move the previous ques-

Mr. Pendleton appealed to him not to do so, as various gentlemen yet desired to be heard. Mr. Colfax said although his heart inclined to the accommodation, public duty compelled him to move the previous question. Twentysix speeches had been made, equally divided on both sides, and he would remind gentlemen that Joshua R. Giddings, in 1842, was expelled under the operation of the previous question The House proceeded to dispose of the point of order raised by Mr. Eldridge on Tuesday, that Mr. Broomall's substitute for Mr. Colfax's resolution proposing to censure Mr. Long by declaring him an unworthy member-was not in order.

The Speaker pro tem (Mr. Rollins of New Hampshire) declared it to be in order. An appeal was taken from the decision of the Chair which was sustained, yeas 79; nays 65. Mr. Colfax .- The judgment of the House has thus declared, accepted Mr. Broomall's substitute-for censure-in place of his own, to expel Mr. Long, as it was evident a sufficient vote could not be obtained to expel Mr. Long. CONFEDERATE WAR VESSELS BEING BUILT IN FRANCE.

PHILADELPHIA, April 13 .- The trench paper of this city publishes this morning, an article taken from the "Opinion Nationale" of Paris, which includes official documents and proves that the French Government is quietly conniving with the efforts of the Confederate agents to have iron-clad war vessels built in France for the Confederate service. From the revelations of the Opinion, it appears that parties at Nantes and Bordeaux have been for months at work building war vessels, ostensibly for China, but really for the rebeis. Mr. Dayton, last fall, laid before the French Government proofs of the real destination of the vessels, and after much delay the work was stopped by Government orders; but during the last two months the Opinion declares that the work has been resumed, and two of the vessels are ready to be passed over to the Confederate agents.

Lieut. Maury and Capt. Bullock have been prominent in these negotiations. These vessels are iron-clad, and the rebel authorities have ordered an entire fleet.

THE TUBLE MURDER TRIAL.-The trial of the case of Cornelius Tuell, charged with the murder of his wife was resumed this morning in the Criminal Court before Judge Fisher.

As upon yesterday, the court was pretty well crowded by parties who appear to take a live-

Officer J. F. Kelly sworn.—Went to the residence of prisoner on the 19th of February, and examined the premises and found an axe and hammer, both having marks of blood upon them. There was blood on the handle and blade of the axe, and at the time marked both the hammer and the axe. The furniture was broken up considerably and there was a great deal of blood in the front room and also in the bed up stairs. At one place beside the bureau in the room down stairs there was a pile of coagulated blood which seemed to be half an inch thick. Withess sent the axe and hammer referred to, to police headquarters. The axe looked as though it had been rubbed in order to wash the blood off. In the center of the room down stairs there were marks as though blood had been washed up and ashes sprinkted over the spot. These ashes were in the front room and the stairs go up from the back room.

Did not see blood at the foot of the stairs, but blood smeared the steps as though some bleeding matter had been dragged up. (An axe and hammer were here shown witness and he identified them as the ones be had taken from Tu-ell's house.) Witness then continued and does not recollect he saw any sheets or bed clothing on the bed. About a week after the murder witness sold the furniture at Mr. Tuell's request and found a coffin screw in the back two squares of Tuell's. There was no one at the house when witness went there on the morning of the 19th. Officer Morris went with witness on the morning of the 19th, and while witness was there some women came in. There is a cooking-stove in the front room. The bureau is five or six feet from the store, and marks of blood were in front of the stove and bureau. The stairs leading up from the back room are not more than two feet wide, but witness thinks there is a railing. There was blood in the room up stairs. The blood at the stove looked as though an attempt had been witness did not see the father, about 8 or 9 o'clock in the morning, and left there about 9 at night, when the father came for them. The first time he came was about 7% o'clock, and asked the little boy where his mother was.

The boy replied that he did not know, and witness told Tuell that she thought she was in the house, locked up; when he replied no. the doors are all open, and she has gone. Tuell came back about 9 o'clock to get the children, but before this time witness heard the rumbling of a wagon in the alley, and the gate open. When he came for the children he did Intion requesting the school to subscribe to the Sunday School Advocate, and relating to the school becoming auxiliary to the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School. The teachers of the school in February last held several meetings to consider the action of the Conference, and after considerable debate, in which Messrs.

Harkness, Davis, Squires, Revs. W. A. Cook and Ferris took part, and during which there was much feeling exhibited, a report, accom-paried by a resolution requesting the Quarterly Conference to reconsider their action, was adopted by a vote of 39 to 16. The Quarterly Conference was held on the 21th March, when the Conference re-affirmed is action. At this meeting the Superintendent of the school (J. C.

Harkness) presented his 19th annual report, but it was ruled out of order by the Presiding

Elder. Some of the members of the Conference, on account of this action, left the meeting; and on Mr. Harkness going to meet his class at their Patroiman O'Connell arrested the conductor and conveyed him to the Fourth Ward Station, where his name was entered as W. T. Barnes. The injured man was taken away by somebody, and his name and residence were not ascertained, nor in fact, the extent of his injury. The conductor was required to give bail for court by Justice Giberson.

THE DISORDERLY BOYS .- The police in the vicinity of 7th street and Penna avenue are making a raid upon the disorderly boys who annoy the ladies and gentlemen passing along that thoroughfare by their vulgar language and mischievous acts. Eight of them, boot blacks and newsboys, were arrested by officer Burch and were locked up in the cells of the Fourth Ward Station, yesterday and last night. This morning they were discharged with a promise by Justice Giberson that upon a repetition of the offence their punishment shall be considerably increased.

PICKPOCKETS ABOUT .- This morning, while the sales were proceeding at Green & Williams Auction Store on 7th and D streets, some of the light-fingered gentry got into the crowd and relieved three ladies of their pocket-books and money. One of the ladies, Mrs. Stewart, of Georgetown, lost $83 by the operation. The thieves got off safely without being suspected.

STONING A CHURCH.-This morning, officer Howard arrested Benjamin A. Hamilton, for throwing stones through the windows of the colored Baptist Church, corner 4th and f. streets, about a week ago.
