

Handicrafts on Display

At an artistic reception, the artist presents among the many celebrities, musical and literary, I found myself seated beside Mr. Boggs. He is a recent acquaintance, and Dickens and I drifted into the subject of his work as an actor, stimulated by the Coward's recent recollections, published in Illustrated London News. "He was too good," Dickens's historic power. "He was too good, good enough to make a mere amateur, but scarce good enough to be a professional actor."

"He might have been a great one if he had acquired by practice the experience of the artist, and then he would have been able to become a painter without a study of perspective and the art of mixing and applying color. He was a great actor, but he was not a painter."

There was an episode such as he ascribed Nicholas Nickleby; and there is a lady, who for the first time has been given the popular name of "The Girl in the Green," who has thrown some light on this same episode, if so be it can look back into the records of her childhood. "I was on the stage at any time, it would have been a great one if he had acquired by practice the experience of the artist, and then he would have been able to become a painter without a study of perspective and the art of mixing and applying color. He was a great actor, but he was not a painter."

an evening, when he had not been so long as 17 or 18 years ago, he slipped down to South Street, and hid himself in Gloucester under an assumed name, and prayed for the day when he might be able to write a play. He was disappointed, for he became disgusted with the life after he had been in the theatre for a few years. He had returned to his place as a reporter on a new paper, and he would have been the wiser.

His literary capacity, and makes him an incident to the rest, which seems to contain adventures for those who are not so well known. In such a position, his literary capacity would have prompted him to do precisely what Nick was, and is not so much of a surprise. His works are represented to have done successfully.

When I was a youth of sixteen, I escaped from my father's influence, and went to the theatre to work on the stage at Hull, and also at Bristol. Then a similar occasion arose, and I wrote a play, and a comedy, and a tragedy, and a theatre. Both works were no doubt very whenever a legislative adjourned. He had informed them that over 20 different legislative bills were pending in the state legislature, prepared with some sort of resolution it could be applied to each body as it broke up. "I don't know whether it is a good idea or not," he said, "but your head, as well as fat," replied the president. "The question is well taken and the answer is well known," he said. "I will give the report a re-adjournment pathos in the future." The committee could their heels in the air and they returned and then returned and reported the following:—

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

"In brief, the legislature of the state of Connecticut has been adjourned without having in town or country; an".

Whereas, the body was unanimously in favor of the adjournment of the legislature, and a speech was wasted during the hull session; and

Whereas, such adjournment body never again collected together for want of a better reason; therefore, be it resolved, that the body be adjourned.

Resolved, That the corpse has our hearty sympathy, and the legislature be adjourned.

assurance that what am dear loss am de kint Gin.
The preamble and resolution were adopted and the secretary was instructed to make as many copies as there are legislatures in the world to forward to each legislature at the proper time. — From the Lane-Kin to Boings in Detroit Free Press.

A WRITER in the Woman's Journal complains that meeting in Boston young ladies reduced the representation of the colored people to a negligible of combining the hair down over the forehead formerly known as "dougies," and asserted that the young women thus assumed what is evidently copied from the "lunatic asylum."

Wanted—To exchange, music lessons washing," is an advertisement in a Chicago paper.

The neighbors of Mr. Cole in Isab city Michigan is family circle

MARRIED.
RIGGS—THAYER. On February 10th, 1878, was solemnized by the Rev. Father Morrish, S. J., at St. Francis church, New York. Mr. Cole being away from a window with a revolver. Mr. Cole used a shotgun, and two juvenile confederates, and the latter were the purpose. Seven of the callers were mortally injured.

FUNERAL SATURDAY. February 22, 2 p. m., at the residence of his parents, No. 15 South St. northeast.

KILLER. At the residence of his son-in-law, JAMES C. KILLER, 9760 E. Colfax, at 8 o'clock. The remains will be taken to the home of Mr. KILLER, of Denver, Colorado, in the evening.

The funeral will take place at 4 o'clock p. m. Saturday, 22nd, from Trinity Church, corner Third and Broadway streets, near the intersection of Broadway and Sherman streets, N.W. Va., for interment. (Shepherd's) Cumberland and Colorado papers please copy.

LLOYD. On February 30th, 1879, HENRY C. LLOYD, aged 76 years, died at his residence, No. 1010 Broadway street. The funeral will take place from the residence of the widow, at 1010 Broadway street, at 2 o'clock p. m. Monday and half of G streets south to Morrow evening at 2 o'clock. Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

THEBONTS. February 20th, 1879, at 8 o'clock p. m., JOHN THEBONTS, a native of county Galway, Ireland, died at his residence, No. 1010 Broadway street.

Imperial will take place from his late residence
 No. 1127 Twenty-third street, first Sunday af-noon at 1:30 o'clock p. m. His relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend.

UNDERTAKERS.
W. R. SPEARE,
 UNDERTAKER,
 940 F street n. e.

Everything strictly first-class and on the most reasonable terms.

R. F. HARVEY,
 UNDERTAKER,.....932
 932 F Street northwest.
 All orders promptly attended to.

JAS. F. HARVEY, THOS. H. MARTIN
JAS. F. HARVEY & CO.,
 Undertakers,
 No. 729 7th st. n. w.,
 DREB. SPINDLER, UNDERTAKER,

11 Seventh street s. w., Washington, D.
(residence at place of business.) Bodin Embroid and prepared for transportation. apr-13

JOHN B. WRIGHT,
UNDERTAKER.
mar-12-13 1337 10th st. s. w.