No interest in regislation is felt at the Capitol just now. Congressmen of both parties occupy at Chicago, and the other half in trying to learn semething of what is going on there. But few private dispatches from the scene of strife have been received at the Capitol so far. It was rumored through the corridors about noon today that Don Cameron had been deposed from the chairmanship of the national committee.

terribly during the past two days, and the defeat of the ex-President is almost certain. Blaine's friends claim that he gains new strength with every defection from the Grant forces. The feeling between the champions of the rival candidates is so bitter that grave doubts are expressed by expert politicians of the success of either of them. Mr. Conkling's hatred of Sherman is well known, and the Senator from New York has said within the last month that he w uld not in any contingency assist Sherman in New York. Mr. Windom is the second choice of the Grant managers for President. Although the name of the Senator from Minnesota was originally mentioned to prevent the Blaine men from capturing the delegation from that state. Mr. Windom, it is thought, will be supported earnestly by Conkling and Logan if they are compelled to abandon their favorite.

The General Deficiency Appropria-ation Bill.

The general deficiency appropriation bill was taken up in committee of the whole this morning, and after half an hour's squabble Mr. Reagan was permitted to make his speech on the subject of inter-state commerce. The speech was carefully prepared, but the members were too much interested in discussing, privately, the situation in Chicago, to listen to it. There are 52 pages in the bill, and the total amount recommended to be appropriated is $4,334,580. A fight will occur over the item for the payment of deficiencies in the judicial department. The bill appropriates for 1879, for fees of clerks, U. S. attorneys, U. S. commis-he came, and after some conversation and reading of certain papers, pretended to start to go, but stopped and toyed with her ear-rings, and after some dallying said, "Good-bye, Mrs.

tending to apologize, and attempted the same thing, and she ordered him to leave:

that he called several times after, still offering to apologize and winding up with compliments lap and attempting the same indecency; that she tore away from him and asked him how he could dare to come there after her warning to he would see about it in a very short time; that wife; that he said in reply his wife would admire his taste; that on the 2d of December he came, and, going down on his knees, begged her (Mrs. Polk) to forgive him; said it was too bad for an old man of 63 to make such a fool of himself, that it was giving him a great deal of trouble, and, he added, "You know David fell

Last Night's Chicago Dispatches.

At an early hour last evening large crowds of people came from extreme parts of Chicago to attend the two meetings on the lake shore. The meeting of Grant's supporters was held in Dearborn Park, and the anti-Grant meeting just across the street, in the base ball grounds. The speakers at the Grant meeting were Senators

Conkling, Logan, Carpenter, C. L. Woodford, Leonard, Jewett, Emory Storrs, Robert T. Lin-at the meeting last night began by Chaffee, of Colorado, offering a resolution reciting the precedents made by former national republican conventions in regard to the unit rule and the right of individual delegates to vote their preferences. Cameron decided that this resolution was out of order. He said the only power the committee had was to select a temporary chairman. It could not instruct him as to what he would rule. Chaffee went for Cameron ferociously, and denounced his conduct as arbitrary and infamous. Chandler said he appealed from the decision of the chairman, and Cameron said he would not allow an appeal. Chandler wanted to know if the committee had any rights the chairman was bound to respect. Frye, of Maine, made an indignant speech, and was replied to by Chauncy I. Filley, of Missouri. Forbes, of Mass., moved that a committee of six be appointed to select a temporary chairman for the convention. The committee was named in the

The fire was caused by the explosion of a kerosene lamp. The vessel was run ashore as soon as possible after the alarm, and the passengers, 60 in number, aroused and safely landed, with the exception of those mentioned. When the boat touched the shore she swung around, and the flames swept her from stem to stern. SENATE.-The President pro tem. laid before one-half of the time in discussing the situation the Senate a communication from the Secretary of War transmitting a copy of a letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Q. A. Gilmore, corps of engineers, president of the Mississippi river commission, recommending that the estimate heretofore submitted for surveys by the commission for the next fiscal year be increased to $300,000. and the third term managers have suffered This recommendation is made after an inspection of the Mississippi river from St. Louis to St. Paul. and is concurred in by the chief of engineers and by the War department.

Also a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury, acknowledging receipt of the report of the Senate committee on appropriations, in which recommendation is made that the legal tenders, national bank notes, stamps, bonds and other securities of the government. be passed through some accounting department before delivery to the officers putting them into use. While the Secretary is of opinion that no additional security is needed, he is willing to make such provision if Congress will make the necessary appropriation for additional clerks, whose services will be required in counting, namely, one clerk at $1,800, one at $1,400, two at $1,200, sixteen counters at $900, one messenger at $840 and six assistant messengers at $720 per annum. Mr. Slater, from the committee on agriculture, reported without recommendations, Senate bill to provide for the purchase of 200 acres of land in Florida, and to establish an experimental farm thereon for the cultivation of pro ducts suitable to that part of the United States. Placed on the calendar.

Mr. Bayard, from the committee on finance. reported favorably on Senate bill for the relief of S. Rosenfelt & Co. Placed on the calendar. Mr. Allison, from the committee on finance reported with amendments, House resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to furnish to states, for the use of agricultural col-leges, one set of standard weights and measure. Placed on the calendar.

Mr. Cockrell, from the committee on military affairs, reported favorably on the bill granting use of artillery, muskets, tents, etc., to the soldiers' reunion in northeast Missouri, and it was passed. He, also, from the same committee reported favorably on House bill for the relief of the 15th and 16th Missouri cavalry volunteers. Placed on the calendar. Mr. Burnside, from the same committee, reported favorably on the bill lending arms, accoutrements, etc., to the soldiers' reunion committee of the northwest, and it was passed. Mr. Vance, from the select committee on the "exedus" of negroes from the southern to the northern states, submitted a report of the majority of the committee. Mr. Windom announced that he would hereit the views of the minority. Mr. Dawes, from the committee on revolutionary claims, reported a bill to increase from $8 to $16 per month the pension of Abigail S. Tilton. He said this lady, over 90 years old, was believed to be the last of those entitled to such increase. She would have received it in 1859 but for the dishonesty or her agent. This would probably be the only report from that committee for this session. The bill was passed. Mr. Jones (Fia.), from the committee on pub lic lands, reported favorably on Senate bill for the relief of certain purchasers of the public lands. Placed on the calendar. Mr. McDonald, from the same committee, re ported with amendments House bill to amend section 2238 of the Revised Statutes relative to fees for final certificates in donation cases. Placed on the calendar.

Mr. Butler moved to take up his resolution requesting information from the Treasury department as to the status of the claim of the government for 5 per cent tax on the 89 per cent stock dividend of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Co. of 1869; but, on objection of Mr. Ransom, who wished the river and harbor bill considered, the motion failed Mr. Wallace submitted a resolution that the select committee on alleged frauds in the late election be continued, with power to report at the next session, and to file reports with the secretary of the Senate during the vacation. Laid over, on objection by Mr. Ingalis. Mr. Ransom, as per previous notice, moved postpone all prior orders and take up the rive and harbor appropriation bill.

Mr. Morgan hoped this bill would not be taken up in the morning hour. It contained many appropriations of doubtful public useful ness, and would lead to much debate. It could not drop through the Senate as through the House, by its own weight, but would be thor oughly examined. He was in charge of a bill affecting the safety of the whole country in the next election (the bill to enforce the constitu tional provisions relative to the election of Pres ident and Vice President), and he hoped the Senate would now consider that bill, which could not pass at this session unless it were considered speedily. Mr. Ransom's motion was agreed to-yeas 45

The river and harbor appropriation bill was thereupon taken up. Replying to Mr. Morgan, Mr. Ransom stated the amount appropriated by the House to be $8,482,500, to which the Senate committee has added $152,000, after making some reductions in the amount in the House bill. The bill was read for action upon the committee amendments. On motion of Mr. Withers, the amendment reducing from $5,000 to $3,500 the appropriation for improving the harbor at Onancock, Va., was disagreed to.

Mesers. Brown and Hill (Ga.) opposed the amendment striking out the appropriation of $10,000 for improving Brunswick harbor, and it was disagreed to. Messrs. Davis, Wallace and Windom were appointed members of the conference committee on those bills. Consideration of the river and harbor bill was resumed, and several amendments were acted on. The amendment inserting an appropriation of $5,000 for improving Annapolis (Md.) harbor was concurred in, as were others. The morning hour having expired the unfin-ished business, being the Eaton tariff bill, was, on motion of Mr. Ransom, informally laid aside and the river and harbor bill proceeded with. It being evident, however, that the chair would overrule the point, Mr. Valentine withdrew it, preferring that Mr. Reagan should proceed by unanimous consent, than that he should do so by virtue of the chair's decision. Mr. Reagan then resumed his speech, criti cising the features of the "Henderson bill" and

SKIRMISHING AT CHICAGO. [Special Dispatches to the Evening Star.]

The Anti-Grant Mass Meeting. CHICAGO, June 1, 10 -a.m.-The anti-Grant mass meeting last evening at the White Stocking base ball grounds was one of the largest political demonstrations ever held in Chicago. It is estimated that not less than 15,000 persons were present, and the enthusiasm from first to last was extraordinary. All of the speakers predicted the defeat of Grant if he shall be nomnated, and nearly all of them expressed a determination not to support him.

The Grant Leaders Hissed. The names of Senators Cameron, Logan and Conkling were greeted with vociferous hisses whenever their names were mentioned. When the oratorical part of the program had been completed, a series of resolutions, declaring in effect that if Grant is made the nominee of the Chicago convention a bolt will be justifled, were adopted without dissent. G. W. A.

[SECOND DISPATCH.] Before the Battle.

CHICAGO, June 1, 1:30 p. m .- The day before the convention opens bright and cool, and the streets are resonant with the pyrotechnics of the great struggle. Processions, headed by bands, are moving in all directions. The side walks are almost impassable, and at the hotels the crowds are so great the police allow no one to pass up stairs without a ticket.

Bitterness of the Contest. The bitterness of the contest is best illustrated by the monster Grant and anti-Grant mass meetings held here last night. They overflowed into the streets all night, and the town, to the sleepless visitor, seemed to be in the hands of a mob. Cheers and groans for the various candidates came from every street in the vicinity of the large hotels.

The Democrats for Grant. Nearly every man indicated his preference by a badge, and personal collisions were numerous. This was always the case where an anti-Grant man met a democrat wearing a Grant badge. All the democrats appear to be working for Grant, and they swell the rush and roar outside for his candidacy. All parties are distributing badges freely. The Grant Column Wavering.

The impression telegraphed yesterday, that some headway had been made in the Grant column, is confirmed to day. The protest of the 16 members of the New York delegation published to-day against Grant is followed by a break up in the Pennsylvania delegation, where 25 are claimed for Blaine. The Philadelphia portion met this morning and divided evenly between Blaine and Grant Members of Congress are using an influential argument against Grant in declaring that if he is nominated all close districts will be lost to the republicans. The Dark Horse in Probable Demand.

Now that there is a possibility of Grant's defeat, a new man is talked of, and Edmunds The Grant leaders had a conference to-day, and decided to surrender nothing, but to contest every inch, and to stand by Cameron to the end.

Stormy Times. The national committee met at noon and had a stormy session. Cameron declared that he would not be dictated to, nor submit to removal.

A Conkling Boom. A Senator who has all along been counted as a staunch supporter of Blaine is now said to be advocating Conkling's nomination in case neither Grant nor Elaine develops sufficient strength. The Old Soldiers.

The convention of national veteran soldiers met this morning. Two hundred delegates were in attendance. Bad News for Roscoe. A portion of the Wisconsin delegation, headed by Dr. Rodgers, called on Conkling to-day, and informed him that they did not believe Wisconsin could be carried for Grant. Bowen Recognized.

Sayles J. Bowen, of the District of Columbia delegation, has been put on the committee in charge of the hall. [THIRD DISPATCH.]

An Ultimatum for Don. CHICAGO, June 1-3. p. m.-The national committee took a recess this afternoon to give Don Cameron the choice of abandoning the unit rule or resigning. The anti-Grant men have determined to make the fight. G. W. A.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Threatening to Depose Don Cameron. CHICAGO, ILL., June 1 .- Thirty anti-Grant members of the national committee this morning agreed to depose Cameron from the chairmanship if he continued to decline to entertain their motions or to abide by the decision of the majority of the committee. The committee is now in secret session at the Palmer House. Senator Edmunds Has Not Withdrawn in Favor of Grant. CHICAGO, June 1.—The report that Senator Edmunds had written to a member of the Vermont delegation in this city, withdrawing as a presidential candidate, and urging the Green Mountain delegation to support General Grant, is most emphatically denied. One of the delegates received a letter from the Senator, but it contains no recommendations, except the delegation combine on the man most likely, if nom-inated, to carry the 5 or 6 debatable states. DECORATION DAY RIOT. Colored People Attacked by Roughs. New York, June 1.—As the colored companies composing the rear of the procession yesterday were returning from Cypress Hill cemetery to the station of the Rapid Transit road, in east New York, they were assaulted by a gang of roughs, and a riot ensued, in which a policeman named Hatfield received a dangerous sabre cut on the head. The colored men are said to have charged on the police and roughs alike, but being overpowered by numbers, were compelled to run for their lives. The streets were filled with an excited mob, and several persons were injured. The captain and a sergeant of the Veteran (colored) Guard were arrested.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS. The Burial Bill in the House of Lords.

GOSS-RYAN PRIZE FIGHT. The Former Defeated in S7 Rounds.
COLLIERS, W. VA., June 1.—The Goss-Ryan prize fight took place here this morning and resulted in the defeat of Goss after a fight of 87 rounds in 1 hour and 2s minutes. The ring for the fight between Goss and Ryan for the heavy weight championship and $2,000 was pitched at 4:25 in a ravine near Colliers station. W. Va., about 300 yards from the Pennsylvania boundary line. Some 300 persons were present. P tts burg being well represented with a slight sprinkling from New York city and Troy. At 5 o clock two deputy sheriffs appeared and warned those present that the governor of West Virginia said that requisitions would be is sued for the arrest of the principals. The fight began at 6.15 o'clock. Ryan entered the ring first, and was followed shortly after by Goss Schell Fairchild was chosen referee. The fight was closely contested, and but for the age of Goss would probably have lasted still longer In the 85th round Goss' seconds claimed a foul and it not being allowed refused to fight their man longer, and the referee awarded the fight to Ryan. The latter was terribly punished about the face and body, but held out. Goss was not apparently much cut or disfigured, but became winded.

Details of the Fight.

STEUBENVILLE, OHIO, June 1 .- The long expected prize fight for the heavy weight championship and $2,000, took place near Colliers, W. Va., in a ravine 300 yards from the Pennsylvania boundary line. The fight caused considerable excitement in the surrounding country, but through lack of transportation facilities only about 300 persons were present, and most of them remained without shelter at Colliers. Both men were at the ring, which was pitched at daylight, by 5:30 o'clock. The weather was all that could be desired, the sun being obscured by light clouds. Little delay was made in the preliminaries, as a rumor prevailed that the sheriff and posse would be on hand at 7 o'clock. but they never came. At 5:45 Ryan jumped into the ring, and a few minutes later Goss entered. They saleted each other cordially; Ryan going over to Goss with a "Hew do you do, Joe?" To which Goss returned a warm shake of the hand. They immediately stripped. Goss won the toss for corners. Ryan was seconded by Johany Roache, of New York, and David Jones, of Pittsburg, and Goss had as his aids Arthur Chambers and a Pittsburg boy. Jas. Shannon and John Tracy officiated as umpires for Ryan and Goss respectively. On time being called at 6:15 o'clock both men advanced, shook hands and immediately began to feel each other. A smile played around Ryan's mouth, while Goss exhibited the utmost self-possession, and full five minutes elapsed before either struck out. The fight continued to the 53d round with little advantage to either. Ryan receiving the most punishment, though some of his blows fold powerfully on his opponent, who began to show signs of exhaustion. The 53d round began with both sparring carefully, Goss leading off and re-ceiving some sharp hits in return. Goss went over to Ryan's corner and delivered one on Ryan's body. The next round both hit wildly and Goss fell. From the 54th to the 58th round Goss appeared to be growing weak, but rallied in the next round and forced the fighting. The 60th round was Ryan's, he going into Goss corner and held him while he belab rei his head till Goss broke away and fell. The next was devoid of anything special; but the following (the 62d) was the most savage round of the right, both men giving and receiving blows in the face, Goss undoubtedly hitting hardest. Each man presented a terrible appearance, particularly Ryan, who was literally covered with blood. The 70th and 71st rounds were fought hercely by Goss, but it was evident that he was fast giving out, while Ryan was freshening up. In the next round Ryan aimed a vicious blow, but it missed its mark and he fell. The 73d, 74th and 75th rounds. Goss countered on Ryan's ear. They clinched

WHAT TO DO WITH TURKEY .- The sick man is now little more than a putrefying corpse. The Sultan's palace is surrounded by troops and earthworks, behind which the wretched creature cowers in dread of dethronement or assassination. To suppose that Turkey can be regenerated by means of the ruling Turks is to ignore palpable facts. The first step towards regeneration would be to sweep away their political existence. To treat with them, or to discuss with them, is a mere waste of time. The right to govern means with them the right to rob, and to put down official robbery is to extinguish their raison d'etre. The mistake that, as yet, has been made has been to have regarded these knaves as statesmen in the European sense of the word. In intrigue, it is true, they are exceedingly clever; but it is intrigue in its lowest form. For the last two or three years their sole aims have been to obtain a loan from their sole aims have been to obtain a loan from Europe, which they may divide among them-selves, and to maintain themselves in place, so as to be in a position to profit by the loan, if ever that manna is rained down upon Constan-tinople.—London Truth.

The Christiancy Divorce Case. MONTH ALIMONY AND $300 COUNSEL

FEES DECREED. This morning in the Equity Court, Judge Hagner, the case of Hon. Isaac P. Christiancy (United States Minister to Peru) against Lillie M. Christiancy (nee Lugenbeel) came up on motion by defendant for alimony and counsel fees, Hon by defendant for allmony and counsel fees, Hon. Mr. Willet, of Michigan, and Mr. E. C. Ingersoll for complainant and Mr. J. N. Oliver for respondent. The latter stated that this was a bill for divorce filed May 12th, and defendant had on May 27th filed an answer and cross bill He read the motion for allmony as also an affidavit of respondent that she had not seen her husband since November 5, 1879, when she was forced to leave him; that being without means she has been compelled to look to her parents for support, and that complainant has a salary of $10,000 per year. He also read the affidavit of her father, John W. Lugenbeel, stating that Mrs. Christiancy is dependent wholly upon her parents for support. Mr. Oliver read a number of cases as to the allowances made being usually one-fifth of the income of the husband.

Mr Ingersolf conceded the right to alimony. but said the question was as to the amount, whether the court could go further than to turnish the means necessary for her to have while making her defence. They were entirely willing that her counsel should be paid, and she should be sustained during the pendancy of the suit, but he submitted that a salary or $10,000 in a foreign country was not equal to more than an ordinary salary here. After some further argument Judge Hagner remarked that while the books fix one-fifth of the compensation of a husband as the just proportion to decree to the wife, yet this amount is not usually allowed. He cited the case of Denton agt. Denton, where the husband was reputed to be worth $200,000, and but $100 per month was allowed the wife, and in the Forres case the amount was fixed at $200 and increased to $250. Allusion had been made to her posi tion in life, and he would take that in consideration. He therefore made an order fixing the amount of alimony at $150 per month, commencing with May 1st, to be paid within 15 days, and ordering plaintiff to pay defendant's counsel $300 within 20 days.

Political Notes.

"Why not Hayes?" asks the Boston Herald in the head-line of an editorial article in last Saturday's paper, and the Springfield Republican of yesterday declares that if it were not for his pledges against a single term he could be renominated.

General R. L. Gibson was nominated for Congress yesterday by the democrats of the 1st Louisiana district. The Toledo Blade wants Harrison, of Indiana, and Hawley, of Connecticut, nominated at Chicago, and declares that they would surely be elected. It might be added, also, that they would give the country an uncommonly good administration. The statement is attributed to Sam Ward that

Tilden is bent upon having an Ohio man in the second place on his ticket. Thurman, Jewett, Payne, Groesbeck and Pendleton are mentioned. He regards Indiana as undoubtedly democratic, and hopes to carry Ohio. Tilden isn't the only man with a bar'l. The story in Chicago is that Levi P. Morton and J. H. Starin, of New York, would either of them give a million dollars campaign fund for the nomination to the vice presidency. "If Grant is the republican candidate, neither Tilden, Randali nor Hancock could defeat him, says the New Orleans Tomes, which believes that Bayard is about the only man who could do the job.

A gentleman who has lately been in Galena says that a visitor to General Grant within the past week remarked that Mr. Washburne must have been aware of the movement of his friends to get the republican nomination. Grant said: "Several times during the war I have been puzzled at seeing a body of troops moving in the distance, and unable to tell whether they belonged to my command or were the enemy But before the end of the battle I have generally found out." INDIAN OUTRAGES.-The Indians in New Mexico on Saturday captured a stage coach, killed and burned the driver, Samuel J. Lyon, and four other persons. The stage coach and three wagons were also burned. Major Bird, a paymaster, and escort, pursued and fought the Indians. Cook's canyon is reported full of hos tiles. There is a perfect reign of terror east of Silver City, N. M., and mail communication is suspended. The mail due at Bismarck, D. T. from Fort Keogh, Saturday, was captured by Indians Thursday last. The carrier and two other employes of the contractors were killed and six head of cattle stolen. The next mail is also supposed to have been captured. The Fort Keogh route is in the hands of the Indians. Seven men and 27 head of stock are missing.

WORSTED BY A GORILLA.-Last evening Chas Silmore of the Zoological Garden, on Mississipp street, went into the cage of the gorilla for some purpose and was attacked by the beast, He struck the brute with a cane several times, breaking a number of his teeth, but was not able to make a successful resistance.
