Cabinet Gossip-The Senatorship Campaign-The Combination on Minister Morton - The President-elect will probably visit New Orleans in January.

Special Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR. ALBANY, December 15 .- The gossip over the cabinet here gives Senator Bayard the Secretaryship of the Treasury, W. C. Whitney, of N.Y., the Attorney Generalship, and includes John Quincy Adams, f Massachusetts, and Senator Garland, of Arkansas, for other positions. President-elect Cleveland has been invited to visit the New Orleans exposition, and has informed the committee who asked him that he may attend on the 15th of January. He has been offered the president's private car of the N. Y. Central R. R.

president's private car of the N. Y. Central R. R. for the entire trip.

The campaign for the senatorship increases in interest. Mr. Platt, the present senator, will lead the anti-Arthur forces, and promises a successful combination on Mr. Morton, the present minister to France. A good part of the cauvass will be carried on in New York city this winter, where, it is understood, Mr. Platt will make his headquarters. The Methodist Centenary.

A PAPER BY REV. F. M. HAMILTON, OF THIS CITY. BALTIMORE, December 15.—The Methodist centenary conference resumed its session at Mt. Vernon church this morning, Bishop Hood, of the A. M. E. Zion church, presiding. After devotional exercises, a paper on "Methodist Means of Grace," prepared by Bishop Haisey, of the colored M. E. church, was read by the Rev. P. M. Hamilton, of the colored M. E. church, of Washington. "The church" it said "Sphyllad be Washington. "The church," it said, "should the embodiment of innocence and plety, and the preaching of the gospel should be considered the most important means of grace. Nothing can take the place of the preachers who are filled with the spirit of God. The camp-meeting was another prominent factor in the salvation of souls, and should never be eliminated from the system of Methodism. The effect of fervent prayer, fasting, abstinence and of class-meetings as a means grace were severally considered." FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

Senator Mitchell's Seat THE STORY THAT HE INTENDS TO RESIGN IT NOT CRED-ITED-BLAINE MEN NOT ENTHUSIASTIC FOR CAMvania, contemplates resigning his seat in the U. made. In the judgment of the Commissioners the S. Senate to accept a judgeship, is not generally believed by Pennsylvanians in the House. Mr. Mitchell himself is quoted as saying that he knew by way of a compromise. Mr. Bayne, who is himhe did not think it likely that Senator Mitchell contemplates resigning; he had never before heard the thing spoken of. Speaking of Don Cameron's chances to be returned, Mr. Bayne said that he had not been paying much attention to the details of the matter, but presumed Cameron was much stronger in the legislature than in the state, as his workers had devoted all their attention during the past campaign to that body, while the anti-Cameron men were working for Blatne and not paying any attention to local matters. There was no doubt, he said, that Cameron had neglected the national ticket in his eagerness to set up the legislature so as to secure his reelection. If it were put to a popular vote, eight out of every ten republicans in the state would vote against Cameron, and there could be no doubt that all the best business men in the state who thought Pennsylvania should be represented in the Senate by a man worthy of so dignified a trust would do all they could to defeat him. The Swaim Court-martial.

TESTIMONY OFFERED BY THE DEFENSE. When the Swaim court-martial convened this morning the defense called Mr. Francis Trowbridge, a New York broker, to testify to Mr. A. R. Bateman's reputation among New York business men, but upon admitting that his knowledge of Mr. Bateman's reputation was limited in extent was not permitted to testify.

Mr. Joseph McDonald, chief clerk of the judge Silgo. The reason given by the engineer department is that the appropriation ran out, and the work had to be stopped. The citizens, living in that neighborhood want to know why so much more than could be finished, was commenced? It advocate general's office, was called and asked regarding an interview between Bateman and Swaim in October, 1882, the defense desiring to show, they said, that Bateman then regarded the "due bill" as a negotiable paper and sought to secure an exten-

Objection was raised to this testimony, and a long argument followed, during which Mr. Shellabarger said if the defense were to be prevented from proving that this paper was more than a memo-randum of deposit they might as well abandon their case. Mr. Chandler, replying to this, said that the statement about abandoning the case was a wall of despair, not an argument.

The court overruled the objection. The witness said he heard Bateman say he would like to have the money on the same terms as Mr. Brown had had it, and Swaim replied that he could not let him (Bateman) have it on those terms, because he did not want to become a partner in the concern. He preferred to let the money stand as it then stood.

The District in Congress.

PROPOSED EXTENSION OF THE ANACOSTIA AND POTO-MAC STREET RAILROAD. In the Senate to-day Mr. Ingalis introduced a bill to amend the act incorporating the Anacostia and Potomac street railroad company. It provides that the tracks may be laid from the intersection of its tracks on M street south to 6th street west, of its tracks on M street south to 6th street west, along 6th street to D south, along D to 7th west, along 7th to Louisiana avenue to a point east of 7th street in the space formed by the intersection of 7th street and Louisiana avenue, to be named by the Commissioners. The bill requires that the company shall complete this addition and run cars upon it in nine months; and it also provides that when the tracks of the steam railroad shall have been removed from 6th street the Anacostia and Potomac company may lay tracks from the intersection of 6th and D streets along 6th west to C street north, and along C street to 7th and Louisiana avenue. Referred to the District committee.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Friday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, while William Bayly, a young man living at 2421 Pennsylvania avenue, employed as a machinist in the Washington gas works, was hammering a bolt with a large hammer it slipped, striking him in the stomach, breaking a blood vessel and also rupturing him. Bayly was removed to his home. Dr. Newman was called, and rendered medical aid. Mr. Bayly is resting easier this morning.

A WIPE'S SUIT FOR DIVORCE.—On Saturday, a bill for divorce was filed by Fannie S. Lane against Augustin S. Lane, and an injunction was issued to restrain the defendant from interfering with the complainant in her custody of their child Jesse pending the hearing of the case. The Church of the Holy Cross Rossen.—
Thieves secreted themselves in the Church of the Holy Cross at the corner of Massachusetts avenue and 18th street last Friday night, and during the night carried off a set of candiesticks, communion service, a set of vestments and an altar desk, all valued at $100. The case was reported to the police, and Detectives Raff and Block were assigned to look it up, but as yet no trace of the robber or robbers has he had been discovered.
