NO MAN'S LAND.

Mr. Peters, of Kansas, urged the necessity o some legislation touching. No Man's Land, which at present was out of the pale of United States law. He said that Mr. Chase desired to have the privileges of the floor, so that members who wishedfor information relative to the Territory might receive it without having to go into the lobby to meet Mr. Chase.

Mr. Blonn', of Georgia, inquired whether the Territory of Cimaron had been recognized by the Territory of Cimaron had been recognized by the United States.

Mr. Springer replied that it had not, but recalled the fact that California had not been recognized until after it had formed a provisional government.

Mr. Cox, of New York, said that the circumstances attending the admission of California had given rise to infinite trouble, and he did not think that a contest as to a Territory in future should be brought up in the House before the adoption of any rules.

Mr. Blount took the same view of the case and Mr. Blount took the same view of the case and opposed the latter part of Mr. Springer's resolution.
Mr. Jackson (Penn.) thought that it was not contemplated that this small strip of land should be organized into a Territory and admitted as a State, of a lobbyist.

After further brief discussion, the resolution and petition were, on motion of Mr. Cox, laid upon the fifteen members who will constitute the committee on elections for the present session.

Mr. Turner (Ga.) could not acquiesce in the belief that there was any necessity for the Speaker to abdicate his usual functions. He for one believed that the Speaker was better informed about the membership of the House than anybody else, and was the proper person to be responsible for the character of the committees. The embarrassment under which the Speaker labored arose from a single contest involving his own title, and he (Turner) thought that the Speaker should be relieved from the embarrassment of appointing the tribunal which was to consider his case. That was as far as the Speaker and the House should go. He, therefore, offered as a substitute for Mr. Holman's resolution, providing for the election by the House of a special committee to hear and decide upon the Thœbe-Cariisle contest. This, he said, would permit the Speaker to appoint the committee which would try all other election contests.

Will Have Charge of District Matters THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, POTOMAC FLATS AND LIBRARY COMMITTEES OF THE SENATE. The District committee of the Senate as finally made up for the Fiftieth Congress is composed of six of the old members and three new ones, or more properly speaking, of two new ones, for Mr. Riddleberger returns to the committee after a brief period of retirement. Senators Cheney, whose term ended with the last Congress, and Palmer, republicans, and Brown, democrat, give place to Messrs. Riddleberger and Farwell, repub-licans, and Faulkner, democrat. Senator Riddle-berger was appointed on the committee in 1883, and served until June of last year, when he was berger was appointed on the committee in 1883, and served until June of last year, when he was excused at his own request. Senator Faulkner, though assigned to the committee, has not yet been admitted to his seat, but that is only a question of a short time. His case is virtually decided, and he will probably be admitted in time to attend the first meeting of the committee. The old members are Messrs. Ingalis (chairman), spooner, and Chace, republicans, and Messrs. Harris, Vance, and Blackburn, democrats.

The Potomac flats committee has two new members, Senators Hearst and Riddleberger, and four old members, Senators McPherson, Ransom, Manderson, and Spooner. The vacancy left by the retirement of Mr. Conger is not filled, and the committee now stands three democrats and three republicans. Senator Ransom, whose interest in the Potomac flats improvement raised the committee originally, remains upon it, and he is as deeply interested in the subject as ever, and will look after the all-important matter of appropriations with the same zeal as hitherto.

Senator Voorhees, who put the new library building project on its feet, properly remains at the head of the committee on additional accommodations for the library, and he has associated with him as members Senators Butler, Gibson, Morrill and Chandler, all of whom are earnest workers in behalf of the library.

FERRY'S ASSAILANT A LUNATIC. His Action Significant of the Great Unpopularity of the Opportunist pecial Cable Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR. LONDON, Dec. 12.-There seems no doubt that the man who shot at Jules Ferry is a lunatic, but the ttempt is significant of the hatred and distrust elt toward the leader of the opportunists. A gendeman who resides in Paris, and who has witessed three revolutions there, writes to inform ne that the danger of civil war had Ferry been nade president would have been more serious than s commonly supposed. He says: "I am well acuainted with the humor of the Parisians, and ever in my recollection has it been more menacing." This is the deliberate view of a man accus omed to weigh carefully public events at the tomed to weigh carefully public events at the French capital. The dislike of Ferry arises chiefly from his connection with little wars like that in Tonquin. He is strongly suspected to be led away by speculators and stock jobbers. The feeling against foreign expeditions of doubtful utility is stronger in France than in England, owing to the compulsory military service. Moreover, the Tonquin expedition was unsuccessful, therefore all the more unpopular. In the course of a prolonged tour through the north of France quite recently I found strong evidence of this unpopularity of Ferry. Among military men he is almost always referred to as "The Tonkinois."

is an undoubted fact. An independent eye witness, who has seen much gold mining in Austria—I refe to Wm. Specks of gold can be seen by the naked eye in some quartz, and a little moisture applied to others revealed more. He sampled perhaps a hundred pieces. All obviously contained gold, sometimes a speck or two, sometimes larger quantities. He says there is no doubt gold is there in paying quantities. The mine is situated in the picturesque country near Dongelly, well known to tourists.

From Wall Street To-day. New York, Dec. 12, 11 a. m.—The opening of the stock market this morning was irregular as compared with Saturday's closing figures, though prices were generally from ½ to ½ per cent lower. The market displayed the same narrowness which distinguished it during most of last week, and the same six or eight stocks monopolized the trading though in those stocks there was an active business, Lackawanna, Richmond and West Point, Reading and Union Pacific being most conspicuous. Decided weakness was soon developed and Lackawanna led the decline, losing 1½ per cent, rollowed by Missouri Pacific with 1½, Richmond and West Point 1½, Union Pacific 1 per cent, and the remainder of the active list fractional amounts, while Richmond and West Point on very light trading declined 2½. Late in the hour Reading and St. Paul showed increased weakness, the loss in the former reaching 1½, and in the latter 1½. There was no halt in the decline whatever, and at 11 a. m. the market was active and decidedly weak at the lowest prices reached.

Washed Ashore at Atlantic City. BODY THOUGHT TO BE THAT OF WEALTHY PROSPS ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 12.—Patrolman Aaron B. Steelman, of life-saving station No. 29, this beach, discovered a body at an early hour this morning on the strand. It is supposed to be that of Wm. Reed, the eccentric and wealthy iron and oil prospector of Pittsburg, who, with his mysterious electrical divining rod, went to Somers' Point in search of buried wrecks, supposed to contain treasure, and was drowned there from a small skiff on October 21. Coroner Irving will hold an inquest to-day. It is reported that a large reward has been offered for the recevery of the body. A considerable sum of money, jewelry, and valuable papers were found upon the body. Mr. Reed's family at Pittsburg have been telegraphed for.

A Colored Burgiar Killed. CINCINNATI, Dec. 12.—A special from Huntington, W. Va., says that on Saturday night Jos. Mullin, who keeps a small general store, was awakened by some one entering the store. He took a pistol, went down stairs, and, seeing a man entering the window, fired. The ball struck the head of the burglar, killing him instantly. He proved to be a colored man named Isaac Moore. His companions fled.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—Fire last evening destroyed St. Mary's chapel and parochial school. St. Mary's Hospital was saved. The loss on the buildings will not exceed $15,000, but many valuable relics preserved in the chapel were destroyed. Among them is supposed to be the only genuine Gobelin tapestry in America, a representation of Lake Tiberius shortly after the Resurrection. This work of art, which is valued at $3,000, was brought to Boston from Europe and subsequently came into the possession of Rev. Father Hugh Gallagher, of San Francisco, who presented it, a short time before his death, to the sisters attached to St. Mary's Hospital.

A Disastrous Freight Wreck. CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—A special from Akron, Ohio, says: The through freight on the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio road, in this city, last night ran into a local freight. The collision occurred on a high embankment and men and cars were hurled forty feet downward. Engineer Mike Cassidy and Brakeman Mike Keihl were probably fatally hurt, being horribly cut up. The engine is a pile of scrap iron. Many cars were demolished, including several loaded with meat. The loss is $35,000. ERAL CARS DEMOLISHED.

After a Family Quarrel.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—A Wharton, Texas, special says a double tragedy took place last night on the Wharton plantation, ten miles from here. A tenant named James Porter quarreled with his wife and, grabbing his Winchester, ran out of the house declaring he was going to leave her forever. When he reached the yard he turned and shot his wife through the window, killing her instantly. Porter then turned the rifle against his own breast and fired it off with his foot. The ball tore a fearful hole through his lungs as large as a man's fist. Porter died in half an hour.

rier, who has traveled much about the western part of the State during the last two weeks, says that the condition of the people, so far as fuel is concerned, is truly pitiable. Coal is not to be obtained at any price, and many cases of actual suffering are reported everywhere he went. The last cold wave exhausted what little they had, and should another follow soon none can estimate the misery that will ensue and probably death. In a majority of cases where there is such a scarcity of coal it is partially the fault of the railroad companies and the dealers. The latter did not order coal until late in the fail. Then the mines were not of sufficient capacity to supply the orders. The railroad corporations saw that they would be cut short if all the dealers were supplied, and by one pretext and another failed to deliver coal to the dealers, but put such restrictions and rates upon it that the mines were compelled to furnish them in advance. Their supply is not limited, but they have hoarded it up to the suffering and detriment of thousands of people who have settled upon the prairies of Western and Southwestern Kansas.

HARPER GETS TEN YEARS. The Jury Return a Verdict of Guilty and He is at Once Sentenced.

CINCANNATI, Dec. 12.—The greatest crowd yet gathered in the corridors of the United States court-room assembled this morning long before the court-room assembled this morning long before the time for the assembly of the court. It was simply impossible for ladies to get in at the public door, and only those who had friends to show them the private entrances could reach the court-room. At 10 o'clock Judge Sage appeared alone, Judge Jackson having been called to hold court in Covington. Court was opened, and seven minutes later the jury filed in. As soon as they were seated, Judge Sage asked if they had agreed upon a verdict and the foreman said they had. The judge directed the cierk to receive it. At this point Mr. Blackburn called the court's attention to the absence of the defendant. "Let him be brought in," said the judge. In two minutes Marshal Urner entered followed by Mr. Harper, looking pale and concerned. Behind him came his wife, her face a study. It looked as if she was upborne by a faith that in some way she was to hear good news from that jury. Miss Matthews, her sister, followed as calin as she could compose herself to be.

When they were seated the clerk took the scaled envelope enclosing the sentence, tore it open, and read the fatal words: "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment." This meant guilty on all the thirty-three counts left for the jury to act upon. There was no outery from either of the two women. Mrs. Harper sat as if transfixed, but Miss Matthews found relief in tears, which she struggled with all her power to repress. Mr. Blackburn moved an arrest of judgment, which the court instantly overruled. Then District Attorney Burnett moved for immediate sentence, and that the sentence be cumulative. Judge Sage, in a somewhat lengthy opinion, stated the result of his investigation on the question of cumulative sentences in a case like this, and this gave some relief to the suddenness of the blow upon Mr. Harper's family. Mr. Blackburn arose and said that the delendant wished to speak to him to say that he had nothing to add to what had been said, except to thank the court for its fair and impartial treatment, and to ask that GUILTY AS CHARGED IN THE INDICTMENT. what had been said, except to thank the court for its fair and impartial treatment, and to ask that the court be as merciful as the circumstances and the law would permit. At 10:25 the court directed Harper to stand up. It was a most distressing scene. The strong man steod erect with tears coursing down his cheeks, but no other sign of emotion, save his bianched tace. Behind his chair, with bowed head, sat his wife in an agony that had no better manifestation than the wringing of her hands. Tears did not come to her relief. Miss Matthews, far more demonstrative, still repressed her sobs, and in her own distress reached over to try to comfort her sister by a touch.

HARPER GIVEN TEN YEARS.

BARPER GIVEN TEN YEARS.

So they sat while the court with impressive solemnity recited the usual form of sentence, saying the evidence left no doubt of the defendant's guilt, and that the offense merited the highest penalty of the law, which would be used now, ten years in the Ohio penitentiary, and that the imarsaal convey him thither at once. As Harper sat down he turned to his wife. Their lips met, and they clasped each other in an embrace. The slience in the court room was awful. The jurors wept and women and men all over the court-room were in tears. The slience was broken by Mr. Blackburn making a last request from the court.

HARPER MUST GO TO JAIL AT ONCE.

That was that the order for lammediate imprisonment be suspended, and gave as a reason that there was much business to be attended to by Mr. Harper in which his wife was closely concerned, and it would be exceedingly difficult to attend to it unless Mr. Harper could remain here for a few days. But the court was relentless. Judge Sage said there could be opportunity for his wife to see said there could be opportunity for his wire to see him in Columbus, and he repeated the order to the marshal to convey him thither to-day. At 10:30 the jury was discharged, and Marshal Uniter con-ducted the defendant to the marshal's office.

THE BROSNAN LICENSE CASE Female Temperance Workers Wai Upon the Commissioners

THEY ASK A REVOCATION OF THE LIQUOR LICENSE GRANTED BROSNAN-THE DISTRICT COMMISSIONER WHICH WILL PROBABLY BE REFERRED TO THE A TORNEY FOR THE DISTRICT.

The temperance people of the city are much dis-turbed over the District Commissioners' action in the liquor license case of John Brosnan, of No. 201 G street northwest. Last Saturday Mrs. La Fetra, of the W. C. T. U., accompanied by seven ladies appeared before the Commissioners and appeale for the revocation of the license that had been granted Brosnan on Friday, on the ground that it had been illegally issued. They claimed that when the Commissioners approved the application of Brosnan he had not the required majority of consenting property owners, as Mr. J. G. Reisinger, of No. 235 G street, had, by power of attorney, sent he had given before the license was granted. But the delivery of this paper to the Commissioners was prevented by the death of Capt. S. S. Blackford, in whose possession it was at the time he fell dead in front of Galt's flour and feed store on Indiana avenue. Capt. Blackford was then on his way to the Commissioners' office to present it for their consideration before the time expired in which he was required to produce it. Therefore they asked that the ilcense be revoked.

Commissioner Webb assured the indies that the Commissioners would do what they could in the matter, and would submit to their attorney for his advice the question whether they can revoke a license for this reason after it had been granted, apparently, in compliance with the law. The ladies withdrew after submitting to the Commissioners a petition to the above effect, in which they took occasion to refer to Brosnan's character as a "persistent violator of the Sunday law."

Reisinger, dated December 9, withdrawing in his father's name the consent the former had given to Brosnan's application. It was enclosed in the following letter to the Commissioners:

"Gentlemen: In the liquor license matter of Jno. Brosnan, of No. 201 G street northwest, we have the honor to submit for your consideration and action the enclosed letter from Jno. G. Reisinger to or from any paper or papers of any character whatsoever. As will be seen, the paper enclosed is a formal withdrawal of the consent of Jno. G. Reisinger to the granting of a liquor license to J. Brosnan, the person mentioned above, and is dated December 9, and it is hereby affirmed by Mrs. — and Miss —, whose names are appended hereto, that said withdrawal was obtained from said J. G. Envelopes of Third-Cines Mail Matter. THE DISTRICT SUPREME COURT REPUSES MR. STEPHEN. SON A MANDAMUS AGAINST POSTMASTER CONGER. In the court in General Term to-day Judge Hagner, in the case of F. D. Stephenson against City Postmaster Conger, announced the opinion of the court refusing the writ of mandamus. The petitioner, a lawyer and chaim agent of this city, had, by Messra. Preeman and Money, filed a petition for a writ of mandamus to compel the postmaster to receive and forward third-class matter in envelopes on the outside of which was his business card. The Postmaster-General had, in his interpretation of the law, decided that such envelopes could not be forwarded as such third-class matter. The court said, as they viewed the case, the petition would be dismissed, but an appeal was open so the parties.
