TARIFF DEBATE IN THE HOUSE. A Bill Against Convict Labor.

House of Representatives.

The House met this morning at 11 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Rogers (Ark.), the Senate bil was passed granting the right of way through the Indian Territory to the Fort smith and El Paso Mr. Hopkins (Va.) introduced a bill to preven convict labor from competing with organized labor. Referred.

THE TARIFF DEBATE. The House then went into committee of the whole (Mr. Springer, of Illinois, in the chair,) on the tariff bill. Mr. Haugen (Wis.) concluded his speech in opposition to the bill. He criticised it as being political in its features, in that it but slightly interfered with democratic sugar, rice, iron, coal and whisky, while it selected republican wool, lumber and garden products upon which to try the experiment of free trade.

free trade.

Mr. Townshend (Ill.) spoke in support of the bill.

The issue presented by it, he said, had often been misstated in the debate. The issue was not between protection and free-trade. No one insisted that this was the issue, except some desperate Western republicans, who were forced by the party lash to betray their constituents by opposing a measure which would bring relief to the people from the curse of unjust and excessive taxation.

Mr. Townshend was followed by Mr. Milliken and Mr. Kean.

The other speakers assigned for the day are Messrs. Allen, Lelbach, and O'Nelli. Capitol Topics. THE MILLS BILL AMENDMENTS. The democratic members of the ways and means ommittee were in session this afternoon consider ing the amendments proposed to the Mills bill by democrats. Members offering amendments are being given an opportunity to make statements in support of them to the committee.

THE BILL TO RETIRE EX-GENERALS. The report which Mr. Spinola has been directed o prepare by the House committee on military affairs to accompany the bill to authorize the President to nominate for retirement with the rank and pay of major-general such ex-Army officers now in civil life as were promoted for gallantry or good conduct to the grade of major-general and commanded departments or divisions, will show that its provisions affect only about six of the generals of the late war. The list includes the names of Gen. Rosecrans, Gen. R. C. Schenck, of Ohlo; Gen. J. McCauley Palmer, of Illinois; and Gen. Buell,
