Severe Thunder Storm-Lost at Johnstown-Religious and Educational Notes.

Correspondence of THE EVENING STAR:

FREDERICK, MD., June 17. The storm which came from the southwest and broke over this county, between 1 and 2 o'clock p. m. Saturday, was the flercest electrical storm that has passed over here for many years. The rain came in such torrents as to flood the streets of the city from pavement to pavement, the lightning was blinding, and the thunder terrific. Balls of fire were seen to fall in the street in various parts of the city, trees and telegraph poles were knocked down by the lightning, a portion of the wood-work at the P. R.R. station here was set on fire, and a rail on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio, quarter of a mile this side of Frederick junction, was struck and completely carbonized by the electricity, and it subsequently broke and the engine and the baggage car of a special train were thrown from the track and down a ten-foot enbankment. The wreck was not cleared away until noon yesterday. There were no passengers on the train, and the crew escaped injury. In the country the storm was severe on the growing crops, and a number of prominent farmers, who have been interviewed, state that the wheat has been damaged at least 25 per cent. It has been injured very much by the "scab," due to intervals of rainy and hot weather. In spite of the gloomy outlook many of the farmers are buying large quantities of new farming machinery, and the agricultural implement dealers of this city state that the present season so far has been the busiest for some years past. THE FLAG.

Friday last the centennial anniversary of the adoption of the American flag was celebrated by one lone patriot in Frederick, whose reverence for the memory of Francis Scott Key, whose bones are buried in Mount Olivet cemetery here, led him to bring out the only flag he had early in the day and wave it faithfully until evening came. This man was Alexander Woodward, an old resident of Frederick. PERSONAL.

The active work early mangurated by the people of Frederick for the relief of the Maryland flood sufferers goes on without abatement. Messrs, John C. Hardt and Geo. E. Meyer, the local relief committee, on Saturday received an urgent appeal for aid from Sleepy Creek, W. Va., and have sent there money and a lot of supplies. S. M. Hood, formerly of this county and now of Sleepy Creek, lost all he had. In the Presbyterian church here and the Reformed church at Middletown yesterday handsome collections were taken up for the flood sufferers at Johnstown. Over $200 has been raised for the relief committee by means of festivals and entertainments held in various parts of the county. A neat little sum was raised by the Frederick city Y. M.C.A. BURKE A PRINCIPAL. The Chicago Police Consider His Arrest Very Important.

IT WAS HIS PHOTOGRAPH AND NOT THAT OF MA-RONEY WHICH WAS SHOWN, AND THEY ARE GLAD MARONET AND M'DONALD ARE RELEASED-BURKE WILL RESIST EXTRADITION.

In the arrest of the man who is known as Martin Burke the heads of the Chicago police believe they have secured one of the principals in the murder of Dr. Cronin. They are firm in the conviction that he is one of the mysterious "Williams brothers," who bought the furniture at Revell's, rented the rooms at 117 Clark street and leased the Carlson cottage. The evidence of Burke's complicity with the crime is said to have been in Chief Hubbard's hands for some time, but Burke's dodging prevented his arrest in Chicago. It is said that the chief first learned of Burke's connection with the crime by examining the house of Dan Coughlin and finding Burke's name attached to certain letters. The contents were rather suspicious and the chief determined to look him up.

DETECTIVES ON HIS TRAIL. He placed his men on his trail, but he jumped from one place to another so often that he was not found until last Tuesday. The police decided to watch him and learn from his movements what connection he had with others implicated in the crime, but in some manner Burke learned that he was being shadowed, and on Wednesday he purchased a railway ticket for Winnipeg and succeeded in leaving the city.

One of Chief Hubbard's men, however, was behind him, and it was on information furnished by the Chicago department that Chief McRae arrested him. The police, besides being in possession of facts which implicate Burke, also have a photograph of the assassin. They never had a likeness of Maroney, and none was ever shown to Salesman Hatfield, Throckmorton, the real estate man, or to Martinsen, the expressman.

IT WAS BURKE'S PHOTOGRAPH. It was the picture of Burke that the three men looked at, but the chief, in order to observe as much secrecy as possible in the case of Burke, gave the witnesses to understand that it was J. J. Maroney's photograph they were looking at. Although the police don't say it, they are just a little bit tickled over the failure of Martinsen, Hatfield and Throckmorton to identify "M. and Mc." "It was Luke Dillon's steer," said a central station detective, "and the Pinkertons were working it for all it was worth. Chief Hubbard never put any faith in it, but he was bound to follow up every little clue."

PALMER JUBILANT. Detective Palmer was highly elated vesterday when he heard of the arrest of Burke. "Do you place much importance in the arrest of Burke?" he was asked. "Well, I should say I do," replied the officer. "He is one of the assassins and one of the

'Williams Bros.'" "Did you know that he was one of the murderers before he left the city?"
"Yes, sir. We have been looking for him for a long time. We knew that he was one of the men and would have arrested him before he left the city only he learned that he was being watched and suddenly departed. We learned the route he took, however, and the man, as you see, is now in custody.

EVIDENCE AGAINST BURKE. Mr. Palmer regards the arrest of Burke as the most important yet made. He declares that Chief Hubbard and himself are in possession of facts to prove that the man is one of the principals, and to also show his connection with others implicated in the crime. Word came during the day that Burke would not come expected that an indictment would be brought without taking any action. Woodruff, the horse-thief, still insists that he told the whole truth in the sensational confession he made yesterday.

Burke is from Hancock, Mich., the home of ex-Detective Dan Coughlin, and is an Irishman by birth, hot-headed, and about twenty-six years of age. He is a member of the Clan-na-Gael, and came here only a few weeks before the murder. Chief Hubbard is greatly pleased with the arrest, which he says is the most important yet and that they are nearer to unraveling the mystery than ever. "We shall get out extradition papers," he added. "as soon as possible and have the man here in three or four days."

Burke was seen in his cell, in Winnipeg, last night by a reporter. He is an athletic looking fellow and has a scar on the front part and left side of his face. His face expresses great determination and he looks like a fellow with sufficient nerve to assist in carrying out the details of the foul deed of which he is suspected. In roply to questions, he gave his name as Martin Burke, and said he was from Chicago, and on his way to the old country. On being pointed out to him that this was not the way to the old country, Burke seemed con-fused, and after some hesitation, said he was just taking a look around before going. He further stated he left Ireland four years ago, proceeding straight to Chicago, where he was employed by the corporation. He knew Cronin when he saw him, but was not personally acquainted with him.

Burke further stated that he was not a member of the Clan-na-Gael, and would claim British protection and refuse to go back with the Chicago officers. Burke, in purchasing a ticket to Liverpool gave his name as W. J. Cooper. He does not look like an innocent man who was outraged over his arrest, but takes it as a matter of course. He arrived in Winnipeg on Saturday night, and put up at a second-class hotel. He did not register.

In his valise was found a felt hat supposed to have belonged to Dr. Cronin. The name inside the hat appeared to be blotted out with the aid of chemicals. The chief of police sought to restore the letters, and characters to correspond with Cronin's name were clearly distinguished.

distinguished.

The prisoner admitted that he has a brother in Chicago, so that there is now little doubt he is one of the famous Williams brothers. Burke's solicitor, in response to a question, said the in-tention was to resist to the bitter end any effort to extradite the prisoner.

A Plan to Aid Colored People. The principal feature of the Congregational ministers' meeting in Chicago yesterday was an address by the Rev. C. B. Curtis, of Selma, Ala. Mr. Curtis made a very strong plea for aid in the work of educating the colored population of his state. He said that of 450,000 negroes who live outside of the cities in Alabama scarcely any have any educational facilities, and most of them are without any knowledge whatever of the improved agricultural and industrial [methods, His plan is to organize a stock company which will buy lands and rent them to the colored people at a low rate and furnish competent directors who will teach them agriculture and help them to im-prove their condition, and enable them to own their own farms. Valkyrie Wins a Race.

At the Queenstown regatta yesterday the Valkyrie made a good start, followed by the Deerhound and Yarana. The Irex was becalmed, and was five minutes behind the others in getting away. All carried jackyard topsails. Outside the harbor the Yarana passed the Deerhound in the beat for Poorhead, but the Yarana was headed somewhat by the south wind, and had to make one tack more than the Valkyrie before rounding the flagboat. At the flagboat the time was: Valkyrie, 1:43; Yarana, 1:54: Deerhound, 2:00. The Irex, in the meantine, had grounded, and retired from the race. the others made for Daunt's Rock with free sheets and bowsprit spinnakers. The Valkyrie, after rounding the flagboat, rapidly increased her lead, and won easily. The official time is as follows: Valkyrie, 5:02:33; Yarana, 5:17:54; Deerhound, 5:32:45.
