$3,000 Verdict Against the District.
Mrs. Catherine Hennessy yesterday in the Circuit Court, Chief Justice Bingham, won her case against the District of Columbia, the jury assessing her damages at $3,000 and costs. Mrs. Hennessy sued for $5,000 for injuries sustained by falling at the corner of 10th and M streets southeast on the night of February 18, 1888, and breaking her ankle and commencing a lawsuit, and she claimed that the cause of her fall was a plank which the defendant allowed to be so placed. The defendant, by Mr. Hiddle, pleaded that the plank was there for the purpose of being removed by the city, and that it was not the duty of the city to remove it. WHERE TO SPEND THE SUMMER.

Inviting Resorts on the Mountain Top and at the Seaside.
This is the time of the year when weary professional and business men want to rest; when the wives and little ones require change of air; when the invalid long for the ozone-laden breezes that ruffle the white-tipped surface of the great ocean. In days gone by the summer excursion from the city had but one goal—a leafy, mosquito-populated grove, away from the rough description, malaria, and a two-weeks' religious service. Now there are hundreds, thousands of pretty places accessible to the restless wanderers after rest. The mountains are dotted with comfortable hotels, where guests enjoy themselves and accumulate adipose tissue for winter wear. The seaside has its natural charms and its hotels and boarding-houses. Everywhere there is enjoyment, heightened by the presence of what real-estate dealers call "the sea." From day to day The Star assists its readers in making choice of a summering place by noticing the most desirable resorts.
The Manassas Mountain, Manassas-head, Amni Brown, proprietor, is one of the popular resorts on the Massachusetts coast. The ocean scenery is fine and the place possesses many attractions.
The Manassas house, Manchester-by-the-sea, Mass., has begun its twelfth popular season. Mr. G. W. Mackay, the manager, writes that this will be the most popular of them all.
There is fine bass and blue-fishing at Block Island, and the Ocean View hotel offers superior accommodations. The hotel is in excellent bathing and the hotel is supplied with all the modern comforts of hotel life. F. C. Cundall, Windsor hotel, New York, will give further information.
D. B. Slackman & Co., proprietors of "The Bluffs," Mt. Desert Ferry, offer superior attractions to their guests for the summer, in their new house overlooking the sea. The hotel is in full view of Bar Harbor, and there is a beautiful beach and a fine view of the bay.
Very delightful summer resorts are the Nantuxet, W. M. Tupper, proprietor; the Springfield, C. H. Mowry, proprietor; and the Ocean House, C. L. Stewart, proprietor, on the island of Nantuxet, 30 miles out to sea.
The combination of the mountains, woodland and ocean are attractions of Block Island, the new summer resort on the coast of Maine. There are excellent hotel accommodations and the best facilities for fishing and boating. Bay Point is at Rockland breakwater, Rockland, Me.
The "Woodlawn"—a newly-built hotel at Rockville, Md., having all modern improvements, has been opened to guests. The hotel is complete in its appointments, the charges are reasonable, and the city easily accessible. Mrs. M. J. Colley, of the "Clarendon," is the proprietor.
The disciples of Isaac Walton are promised great things if they stop at the Morrill House, on the Potomac, near the city. The hotel is centrally and attractively located, and the proprietor, Mr. W. S. Broadhead & Son, the proprietors, will furnish information upon application.
Among the summer resorts furnishing quiet and ease to the traveler is the Fairview hotel, Williamsport, Pa. The hotel is beautifully situated, is spacious, has all modern improvements, and combines first-class accommodations with moderate prices. The hotel is centrally and attractively located, and the proprietor, Mr. W. S. Broadhead & Son, the proprietors, will furnish information upon application.
The lovely Keo-Mar Heights or Seminary, situated in the suburbs of Hagerstown, Md., offer special inducements to those desiring rest and ease. The hotel is in charge of Mr. Chas. E. Rosch. The terms are from $7 to $12 per week.
Virginia furnishes many summer resorts where the weary can enjoy rest and the sick find health. The celebrated Rockbridge Hotel, near the city, is one of the most attractive resorts offered this season have never been surpassed. The Fanguier White Sulphur Springs, famous in the history of Virginia, is an entirely new management this season. It is but three hours' ride from Washington. A new brick hotel has been erected, and everything is as comfortable and pleasant as the old hotel. There is a fine table, and the waters of the springs are highly beneficial.

The region is a delightful one, and the waters have numerous healing qualities. Full information may be obtained of E. C. Jordan, Jordan Springs P. O., Virginia.

Married at the Court-House.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. James Burke, a young man about twenty-one years old, and Miss Sallie Bell, a handsome girl, entered the court-house and procured a marriage license, giving their place of residence as Arlington, Va. Volunteers offered their services to find a minister and a place for the ceremony. The Criminal Court room, where persons are sometimes sentenced to death, was regarded as an inappropriate place. The Circuit Court room was occupied at the time, but the Equity Court room, where many matrimonial knots are untied, it was thought was the proper place in which to unite the couple. Accordingly they were sent to that room, and Rev. E. D. Bailey was sent for, and responding to a few moments of the marriage ceremony was performed, and about twenty or more gentlemen present extended their congratulations.
