SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE.

local Odd Fellows Planning to Attend Meeting at Indianapolis. The week of September 18 to 21 promises to be a big one for Indianapolis. Besides having the annual Indiana state fair scheduled for that week, the city is to entertain the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows and the Patriarchs Militant branch of this order. An executive committee, composed of many of the leading citizens of the state, alded by numerous subordinate committees, has been hard at work for months preparing for this affair, and the result promises to be one of the greatest meetings ever held by this greatest of fraternal

One of the leading features will be a parade of the order, including all its branches, Tuesday, September 17, and the committee in charge promises that it shall be a "twenty-five thousand count us" parade. The order's records show a membership of nearly half a million within a radius of 300 miles of Indianapolis, and the claim of the committee is regarded as not

The local Odd Fellows, under the leadership of Canton Washington, No. 1, are making preparations to attend in large numbers. Captain D. V. Chisholm is now drilling the canton several nights of each week, and expects to make a fine showing in the parade and drills. The delegation will leave Saturday, the 14th instant, at 3 The canton will go into Camp Cable at Indianapolis with the rest of the cantons of the country. Great preparations have been made for the comfort and entertainment of the Patriarchs Militant in this camp. The cost will be but nominal. Tents, wire cots, plenty of straw and water are provided for the camp. Chevaliers must provide their own blankets, pillows, soap

Chevaliers are requested to have all articles for camp use, which they desire shipped, in the custody of J. A. Shackelford, quartermaster, at Odd Fellows' Hall, as early as the 12th, and earlier, if possible, in order that they may be packed and checked in ample time. The committee is composed of Mesers. CHARMING WEDDING PARTIES AT HOME FIRESIDES.

Ceremonies at Church and Residence -Recent Sociabilities Here and Elsewhere-Personal Notes.

The marriage of Miss Mamie A. Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Fosyesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at St. Peter's Church, 2d and C streets southeast. The ceremony was attended only by the mmediate relatives of the contracting parties and a few invited friends. The cere-O'Brien. The bride was gowned in blue crepe de chine trimmed in real lace over blue silk, with a picture hat of gray and pink panne velvet trimmed with feathers. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. Following the ceremony was a supper at the home of the bride's parents, No. 18 4th street southeast. Mr. George F. Foster, father of the bride, arrived in time for the wedding from Canton, Ohio. Mr. Foster is President McKinley's bodyguard, and after the ceremony left for Buffalo, where he joined the presidential party this morning. At the house the rooms were adorned wit handsome bouquets of flowers. The supper table presented a charming appearance with flowers and candelabra with pink can dies. Among the presents sent to the bride was a huge bouquet of flowers from the White House conservatory. Numerous pieces of silver, cut glass and paintings were also received. Among those enter-tained by the parents of the bride at the wedding supper were Mrs. C. A. Hammer, Miss Lillian Hammer, Miss Margaret Hammer, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ferguson, Mr Edward Hammer, Mr. George P. Foster, Mr. Robert Foster, Mrs. Richard Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. James Ryan, Mr. Charles Hammer, Mr. Howard Fisk, Miss Mertle L.
