WASHINGTON, D.C., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1901—THIRTY-TWO PAGES. TWO CENTS.

PHILIPPINE TARIFF

Matter Discussed by Ways and Means Committee.

CURRENT CAPITOL NOTES

At the White House

Another Big Bash of Callers on the President Today.

An Indiana Judge

President Harrison's Public Address at Opening of the Senate's Session.

WASHINGrON TERMINAL

LOCAL COMPANY FILES CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

Washington National Bank and other institutions incorporated with United States.

McKinley Memorial

Joint Conference of Committees Today at Arlington House.

LOCAL AND CANTON ORGANIZATIONS

Commissioner McClelland's Proposal for Cooperation.

Matter Being Considered

By the request of a number of the cooperative committees of the McKinley National Monuments at Washington, D.C., it has been arranged that the commission for the erection of the monument in memory of the late President shall be held here to-morrow.

The守则 of the formation of this commission was adopted, and the commission was directed to begin the construction of the monument immediately.

COMMENT FOR MAIL ORDER

Passenger on the Transcontinental Express

The passenger train left this city early this morning, and arrived in Chicago late last night.

COST OF THE PANAMA ROUTE

Register Sails Today in Panama for New York.

The Register was launched from the dock of the Panama Canal Company today, and started for New York.

STATIONERY OF THE POST OFFICE

Post-office Department since the opening of the Panama Canal.

The post-office department has been in operation since the opening of the Panama Canal, and has been in operation for the last few months.

The register sail is expected to arrive in New York about the 10th of this month.

McKinley Monument

The monument in memory of the late President will be built on the site of the original monument, and will be completed in a few months.

The register sail will be ready for departure about the 10th of this month, and will sail for New York on the 11th.

WASHINGTON, D.C., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1901—THIRTY-TWO PAGES. TWO CENTS.