Easter Cards, Booklets, Novelties-First Floor, Eleventh Street.

Friday is Remnant Day.

A clear-up of all remnants which have collected since last Friday. The store must be kept clear of odd and small lots. And there are many such-goods and garments for present use, for personal wear and home adornment. Some are soiled or mussed or otherwise imperfect. Some are just odds and ends, short lengths or broken sizes, or incomplete lines, and as good as they ever were. Some are reduced a half; some Dress Goods remnants, woolen and cotton, are especially interesting this week. Choicest of the spring fabrics, in goodly assortment, and in lengths suitable for a separate skirt, a waist, a child's dress—all marked at remnant clearance prices. Every department in the house is represented.

My family physician told me to try "E-Z" Tablets, as he had found them of great benefit in several obstinate cases of constipation, indigestion and dyspepsia. I bought a 5-cent package, and felt better in a day; was soon greatly relieved. I have for years been subject to headache, my bowels would only move every two or three days, until I began taking "E-Z" Tablets, and you don't know what a relief to be en-and you don't know what a reflet to be entirely free from these.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HOLTZ.

Representatives of Four Generations of Her Family Honor Her Memory. Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Sarah A. Holtz were held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of her son-in-law, Dr. A. E. Johnson, at 211 A street southeast. Rev. Samuel M. Hartsock of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Rev. Geo. E. Maydwell of Waugh Chapel. M. E. Church, and Rev. Edward Warren of Faith Chapel officiated. About the casket were gathered four generations of the Holtz family, and thirty-nine of the immediate descendants of the gentle woman so sincerely mourned.

The floral tributes were unusually numerous and beautiful, many of them comng from Philadelphia and Baltimore friends. Among the fragrant remem-brances those of Green Clay Smith Command, U. V. U.; Lincoln Post and Lincoln Relief Corps were conspicuous tributes to the memory of Mrs. Holtz, who had so often busied her hands with making little gifts in aid of these patriotic organizations. Rev. Dr. Hartsock, who had known Mrs. Holtz for forty years, and who was her pastor in Baltimore twenty years ago, paid high tribute to her virtues, saying she had been an active Christian for sixty-five years. He referred to her as "one of the Barbara Freitchies in her devotion to the flag and the principles it represented." Gathered at the funeral ceremonies were all her surviving children—her daughter, Mrs. Annie W. Johnson, and her three sons, Mr. G. G. Holtz of Baltimore, Mr. Joseph E. Holtz and Mr. James Holtz of Philadelphia. The friends and relatives from Philadelphia were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Holtz, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holtz, Mrs. Lizzle Holtz and Master Franklin Pierce Holtz, a great
