SECRETARY SHAW EXPLAINS

Why He Cut the Estimates of the District Commissioners.

Secretary Shaw, when asked today why he had cut down the estimates of the Dis trict of Columbia by the sum of $1.400 sod, making the total $11,022,370, said that committee of the department had given consideration to the estimates, as submitted. They had taken the matter up with him. The total amount asked for by the Secretary, $11,062,370, was, he said, just double the estimated receipts of the District government during the year. It was not desired, he said, to meet the Disof the United States. He could not determine what items in the estimates ought to be cut and so he avoided that field by recommending a total reduction of $1,493,806.

MILITARY CIRCLES INTERESTED. Proposed Selection of Gen. Miles for Puty With Massachusetts Militia.

Military circles are deeply interested in an announcement just made by Gov.-elect Douglas of Massachusetts that on his assumption of office early in January he will ask the War Department to detail Lieut. Gen. N. A. Miles, U. S. A., retired, to duty with the National Guard of Massachusetts. under the provisions of the Dick militia law, authorizing the detail of retired army officers to such duty, with their own consent, upon the application of the governor of the state.

Gov.-elect Douglas explained that the ideas of Gen. Miles and himself regarding mili-tary affairs in Massachusetts were in exact accord, and he desired Gen. Miles to serve as his chief military adviser during his administration. He had talked over the matter with Gen. Miles and was assured of his willingness to accept the detail if made by the War Department. Gen. Miles had informed him that he would consider it an honor to be asked by the governor of his native state for advice and assistance, and the governor-elect said that the great ability and experience of Gen. Miles could not fail to be of inestimable benefit to the state of Massachusetts and its organized militia. Mr. Douglas also intimated that he would ask for the detail of Maj. Gen. William A. Kobbe, retired, for duty with the state militia as an assistant to Gen. Miles. Officials at the War Department are dis inclined to discuss the matter of the suggested detail of the two officers named at this time, as they do not wish to anticipate the action of the War Department in a case that will not reach it for consideration until next month. About thirty retired offi-cers, including several of the rank of brigadier general, are now serving with the National Guard of as many different states and are receiving the full pay and allow-ances of their respective ranks on the active list, in accordance with the terms ment will take on the proposed application of Gov.-elect Douglas is a mere matter of speculation, as the officials say it will not be even considered until it has been made in official form. As a retired lieutenant general, Gen

Miles receives $8,250 a year, without allowances. If the proposed detail is made he would be entitled to receive from the government the full active pay of his rank, which is $11,000 a year, with allowances for quarters and forage. In addition to that sum he would receive $3,600 a year from the state of Massachusetts, that being the compensation fixed by the state law for the adjutant general of the militia. Gen. Miles is out of the city at present.

MAN'S TRAGIC DEATH.

Rescued From Drowning to Become Raving Maniac and Died.

NEW YORK, December 5. - Pinned between two piles of a pier at the foot of West 23d street so tightly that the combined efforts of a score of firemen and policemen only released him after long and frantic effort, and with the rising tide threatening death by drowning, a man supposed to be George Fahey became a raving maniac and died today after having beer removed from his perilous position.

A policeman heard cries from under the pier today, and as the calls for help seemed to be growing faint Fahey was found wedged between two piles whose tops were close together. A rope was passed under the man's arms and five men attempted to pull Fahey out of his plight, but only wedged his body more tightly in its prison, rising tide was at the frightened man's chest, and his screams urged the rescuers to greater haste. Four more policemen were summoned, but the man could not be released. An urgent call for more help brought a fireboat and three members of a nearby hook and ladder company with axes and hooks. Ferry hands and passengers joined the rescuers.

The water had risen to Fahey's chin. One man raised his head above the water and poured whisky down his throat, while the firemen chopped with all their might at the spiles which held him prisoner. When it was nip and tuck whether the tide or the rescuers would win, the piles gave way and Fahey was taken out, a rav

RAILROAD SUBSIDY FOR ALASKA Congress to Be Asked to Aid in Territory's Development.

SEATTLE, Wash., December 5.-Alaska operators resident in Seattle and others inerested in the development of that country say they will urge upon Congress to extend governmental aid or subsidy in the matter of railroad construction in the territory, insisting that a rider to this effect be placed upon the bill passed by the last House guaranteeing 5 per cent income upon the money invested in such enterprises in the Philippines, and which is now coming as unfin-ished business in the Senate.

They claim that the United States is in duty bound to do at least as much, if not more, in the matter of development for Alaska, which is American soil, as for her far eastern island possessions.

Secretary Hay is preparing a circular rote to the signatory powers of The Hague convention informing them of the gratifying reception which his note of October 23 inviting them to a second peace conference has met. The note will give in substance the replies of all the powers, including the Russian answer, which suggest that the conference be postponed until her war is er ded. The note will not be sent, however, for several days, as the Japanese answer has not yet been received, and until it has been completed the State Department withholds comment upon its contents. It is understood that this government feels that the good results of the conference would be lessened unless all the powers parneipated, and is therefore disposed to rest on its oars for the present. NAN PATTERSON CASE INAUGURATION WORK

Called for a Second Time in Gen. Wilson and Secretary New York Court Today.

LITTLE WHEN TERMINATED.

Health and Spirite-Telegram

From Mother-Confident.

NEW YORK, December 5.-For the secand time Nan Patterson, the former show girl, today prepared to face a jury which is expected to decide whether she is guilty or innocent of causing the death of Caesar Young, the wealthy bookmaker who was shot to death while riding in a cab with the young woman just six months ago yesterday. Contrary to the usual order of things, it is expected that the present trial will attract even more widespread interest than did the first.

Comparatively little of the evidence, which the prosecution claims to have, had been presented when the previous trial was brought to an abrunt termination by the serious illness of a juror. The defense had not even shown its hand.

The case had scarcely passed the preliminary stage when the interruption came. Not one of the several persons frequently spoken of as "star witnesses' had been called to the stand. Hyman Stern, the pawnbroker who sold the revolver with which Young was killed, was ill and unable to attend court.

J. Morgan Smith, Miss Patterson's broth-er-in-law, whose photograph Stern has identifled as that of the man to whom the revolver was sold, had not been found by representatives of the district attorney's ofwho have a warrant for his arrest on charge of contempt of court.

Mrs. Young, the widow of the dead bookmaker, was in court ready to tell the story of her husband's relations with the woman case had not reached the stage when her testimony as required. Smith is still miss ing. Stern the pawnbroker has recovered however, and will be ready to repeat the testimony given by him before the grand jury. Mrs. Young and many others who had no real part in the first trial also are expected to be ready to tell their stories at the proper time.

Extra Provision to Secure Jury.

Only 100 talesmen were called when preparations for selecting the first jury were made, and many of those had not been examined when the panel was completed. This time, however, in view of the added publicity given the case, it was thought that more trouble would be experienced in filling the jury box, and a special panel of 200 talesmen had been summoned.

During the past week Miss Patterson, weakened by the strain from the first trial, has been ill in her cell in the Tombs prison, but she had recovered sufficiently to permit her to go to court today. The name of W. R. Hearst is on the panel of 200 special jurors from which the Patter-

Miss Patterson was very pale when she took a seat beside her father in court to-day. Her counsel said that talesmen would tal condition to prevent further delay.

CHEERED BY A TELEGRAM. Nan Patterson Received Missive From Her Mother Today.

Special Dispatch to The Evening Star. NEW YORK, December 5 .- "Be of good cheer. I know you will come out of this trouble all right. I pray for you constant-MOTHER."

Weeping from joy and clasping this tender missive to her breast, Nan Patterson, on the morning of her second trial, poured out her undying gratitude to the sender. She received the telegram simultaneously with a visit to the city prison of her devoted father, who ever since the tragedy has been his daughter's ardent comforter. To add to the young woman's joy came more cheerful news that her mother was now on the road to recovery and in probability will be able to sit at the Christmas dinner table, at which time the young actress declared she would be a free woman, firmly ensconced in the bosom of her family, in their pretty home in the capital.

"I will be out of this horrible place in time to eat my Christmas dinner," said the girl after her spasm of tears and joy had subsided. "I am more confident today of an acquittal than I ever was before. You can say for me that I will be breathing the pure air of heaven and home with my family, at 'hristmastide.' Patting her affectionately on the shoulder, as if to emphasize her optimistic prediction, her gray-haired old father sat beside her.

"Yes, I have just told Nan some news that has cheered her up greatly," he added. 'Her dear mother, who has been seriously ill, is now practically out of danger, and will be up and around soon. Truly it will be a great event when my poor, innocent daughter and her devoted mother are again in our Washington home.' After saying this, Patterson threw arms lovingly around the neck of

EXTRA PAY NOT ALLOWED.

Naval Officer's Claim Dismissed by the Supreme Court. Justice Brown today delivered the opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of C. M. Thomas vs. the United States, involving the rights of naval officers in respect to extra pay under the navy personnel acts of 1900 and 1901. The opin-ion is in favor of the government. The claim presented was that naval offi-cers who go to sea should be allowed 10 per cent in excess of their naval pay because the increased allowance is made to army officers who are assigned to duty at sea o at a foreign port, the purpose of the law being the assimilation of the salaries of captain in the navy and made claim for the extra pay because of service in the Philip-pines, in China and at sea. Most of his claims were allowed by the court of claims, but this decision was reversed, Justice

Brown saying:
"It is not for a moment to be supposed that Congress contemplated any such sweeping innovation. This construction would not only render nugatory and obso-lete the provise of the naval personnel act that officers to be entitled to army pay shall be detailed for shore duty, but largely discriminates in favor of naval officers by adding 10 per cent to their pay for their normal sea duties, without corresponding addition to the pay of army officers for the performance of their normal duties, which are upon land; in other words instead of assimilating the pay of army and naval officers it actually dissimilates them."

On another point in Captain Thomas' case, the court affirmed the finding of the court of claims, in which that court held that "no service shall be regarded as sea service except such as shall be performed at sea, under the orders of a department and in vessels employed by authority of law." This ruling was made upon a claim for sea pay while Captain Thomas was proceeding from the Barbadoes to China in 1900, the voyage being made by merchant vessels, although under orders.

Hitchcock Getting Busy.

200 TALESMEN CALLED MANY APPLICATIONS

PREVIOUS TRIAL HAD REVEALED ORGANIZATIONS WANT POSITIONS IN BIG PARADE.

Prisoner Appeared Pale, but in Good Problems Which Face the Executive Committee-Use of Pension Of.

fice Seems Assured.

The headquarters of the Roosevelt innugural committee were formally opened this morning in the F street end of the New Willard Hotel, and the work of arranging all the details of this grand ceremony has been begun. General Wilson, chairman of the executive committee, and Frank H. Hitchcock, secretary, were at their desks bright and early, and spent the day receiving callers and attending to the mass of correspondence.

Many applications for positions in the line of the inaugural parade have been received, but will be held until the formation of the minor committees, when they will be turned over to the proper chairmen. All applications of military bodies will be referred to Gen. George H. Harries, nominated for chairman of the committee on military, while the applications of the civic organizations will be referred to Mr. B. H. Warner, provided the gentleman is elected chairman of the civic organizations committee. Inaugural problems already are becoming apparent, and many important matters must be attended to at once. First among these is the place for holding the inaugural ball. It is understood that at the initial meeting of the executive committee, scheduled for Wednesday at 11 o'clock, the chairman of the committee on legislation will be instructed to immediately prepare a bill providing for the use of the pension office. and that that bill will be submitted to Congress forthwith. Notwithstanding that it is the particular province of the legislative committee to at-tend to these matters, it was stated today that every member of the executive committee who could spare the time would use all influence to have the bill considered and passed without delay. There seems to be no fear that the use of the pension office will not be granted, but the executive committee members are anxious to have the question settled.

Time for Ceremonies.

A second problem, and one probably of as much importance as the first, is the time for holding the inaugural ceremonies. General Wilson today received a letter from Mr. Charles C. Lancaster, president of the Northwest Suburban Citizens' Association, inclosing a resolution passed by that association suggesting that the ceremonies be spread over three days, Saturday, March 4, Monday, March 6, and Tuesday, March 7.
The idea was suggested because of the fact that if the inaugural ball is held on essarily cease by midnight, as no one conessarily cease by midnight, as no one con-nected with the management of the inau-gural would think of allowing the dancing and gayety to continue into Sunday morn-ing. Thus if the ball is held Saturday, it smaller attendance would be consequent. As the attendance is the only medium of re-paying contributors for the money advanced for inaugural expenses, it is safe to as-

which will diminish the attendance. For this reason the scheme of having the induction into office on Saturday, the ball Monday and the concerts following immediately, will receive the most careful and serious consideration of the members of the executive committee. An argument in fa-vor of this plan has been made, in the statement that the flowers, which will form the principal decoration, will fade and wilt if the ceremonies are held Saturday. This phase of the situation also will be considered probably at the first meeting of the

PENSION ATTORNEY PASSES AWAY AT UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

Had Been Ill | for Several Months-Prominent to Grand Army

Theodore W. Tallmadge, one of the bestknown pension attorneys in the country and neat member of the Grand Army of the Republic, died last evening at 7 o'clock at the George Washington University Hospital. The immediate cause of death was heart failure, following a severe operation. Mr. Tallmadge had been ill for several months and was admitted to the hospital a short time ago in the hope that an operation would benefit him. The operation was performed by eminent surgeons and it was at first thought that the patient would re-

Funeral services will be held at the Metropolitan M. E. Church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The interment will be at Rock Creek cometery. The pallbearers will be made up from members of the Burnside Post, G. A. R., the Loyal Legion, the Metropolitan Church and the Sunday school of the Metropolitan Church and the Sunday school of the Metropolitan Church.

Mr. Tallmadge was one of the best known residents of Washington. He was born in Maysville, Ky., January 22, 1827, and received his early education in Ohio, He afterward attended Princeton University, from which he was graduated. He studied law and was admitted to the bar in Ohio, where he practiced his profession until the outbreak of the civil war. Mr. Tallmadge entered the army from Ohio and became a entered the army from Ohlo and became captain and quartermaster on the staff of General Rosecrans. He served in this capacity with great credit and distinguished himself on several occasions. Shortly after the close of the war he came to this city, where he established himself in business as a pension claim agent. Mr. Talimadge built up a large business and became known by veterans throughout the country.

Interest in Organization.

He took an active interest in the organization of the Grand Army of the Republic, and joined Burnside Post, No. 8, of this city not long after its organization.

During his career in the G. A. R. Mr. Tallmadge has held important posts on the staff of several of the national commanders-in-chief, and has been on the staff of a number of the commanders of the Departnent of the Potomac. He had the unique distinction of having served in the office of chaplain of his post for a longer period than any other person in the history of the organization in Washington. At the close of his thirteenth year as a chaplain, only a few months ago. Mr. Tallmadge declined unanimous re-election on account of illhealth, and his comrades presented him a solid gold badge set with diamonds. Tallmadge was a member of almost all the veterans' organizations, and was promi in the Loyal, Legian as well as the

Mr. Tallmadge was a prominent member of the Metropolitan M. E. Church of this city, where he was a class leader and a Sunday school teacher. He was active in all church work. CAUSED MUCH COMMENT.

Bill Introduced Requiring Publication of Campaign Contributions.

A bill introduced by Representative Bourke Cockran of New York today created considerable comment. The measure provides that all contributions exceeding $50 in money hereafter made to political parties at elections where presidential electors or representatives in Congress are chosen shall be embodied in a statement to be made in not more than three days thereafter to the clerk of the district court in the district in which the person, firm, corporation or society making such contribution for expenditure shall reside. It is provided that the amount of the contribution, the names of the donors and the person or committee receiving it shall be included in the statement. In the event of the giver of the contribution failing to make the statement it is provided that the person or committee receiving the money shall make the statement immediately, and that the facts shall be published in at least two newspapers supporting the opposing candidate in that district. For failure to comply with the provisions of the bill a enalty of from one to three years' imprisonment is provided. Mr. Cockran also introduced another bill along the same line providing for the for-mation of a commission, composed of the senior associate justices of the Supreme senior associate justices of the supreme Court, the junior judge of the circuit court of the third circuit, two United States senators, to be chosen from the Senate, and two members of the House of Representatives, to ascertain the amounts of money collected and expended by the committees of political parties during elections of presidential electors and representatives in commission is to report to both houses of Congress not later than January 1, 1906. COTTON MARKET NERVOUS.

NEW YORK, December 5.-The cotton market showed continued weakness, opening at a decline of from thirty to sixty points. The near months sold down to about 71/2 cents a pound during the first few minutes of trading, or a decline of practically 10 cents a point since the culmination of the bull campaign last winter.

The trade seemed to apprehend weakness in the southern spot market. After the initial break the market showed some slight recovery, but the undertone continued ex-tremely nervous on advices from the outhern spot markets.

LIVERPOOL, December 5.—Owing to the Agricultural Department report on the American cotton crop, and the consequent break in the New York cotton market Saturday, the cotton market here today opened very excited. The first transaction of the day was a sale of March and April at 4.45, a loss of 20 polots. This was quickly followed by running sales down to 4.22 or 46 points lower than Saturday's closing. January and February opened 34 points lower. Trading was very heavy in January and February, March and April and May and June. The tone after the first hour was somewhat steadier.

The corresponding department report last year sent prices up 40 points against about the same decline today.

After the opening the market was subject to fits of excitement. When the first New York prices were received January and February dropped from 4.25 to 4.18, and other options were correspondingly lower. A slight rally followed, and at 3.30 prices were about 40 points under Saturday's closing quotations. break in the New York cotton market Sat-

SIX-DAY BICYCLE BACE.

Start Marked by Phenomenal Sprinting -Two Rivals Collide.

NEW YORK, December 5.-The first serious accident in the six-day bicycle race which began at Madison Square Garden occurred early today, when Patrick Keegan, the Lowell, Mass., boy, was so badly hurt that he was forced to leave the track. Whether his injuries will retire him permanently from the race could not be determined until later in the day.

While the men were engaging in a heartrounding the 4th avenue embankment, suddenly went down. Agraz of the Australian-American team, who was following close behind, went crashing into Rockowitz. Just as both riders started to slide down the embankment Keegan came around at a terrific burst of speed. with terrible force. Keegan struck on his face on the board track, and with the two other riders rolled down in a heap on ble sight. His face was covered with blcod, which flowed from his nose and lip and a cut across his head. After a hurried examination the physicians said that his nose probably had been broken. One team had been practically ridden out of the race before the Keegan accident happened. Numerous spills during the early morning hours had made no change in the position of the riders who started away on the long journey at midnight. A long, hard sprint led by the French team, which continued for nearly an hiur, however, ended in the King-Rossino team losing three laps. As the bunch of riders passed him for the third time King steered down from the track to the enclosure, and with the remark "That's enough for me."

declared that he was out of the race for The long sprint added many miles to the score, and at the end of the hour the figures were within one lap of the record distance for the time. After that time the pace slowed considerably, however, and the riders were several miles behind the record at 8 o'clock. At that hour the sixteen teams on the track were tied, with 173 miles even to their credit. Gougoltz and Breton, the French riders, had a lead of a few yards at that point.

Fractional Rise All Around.

DISTRIBUTED VOLUME

Bealizing Put Prices Generally Back to Saturday's Level - Reading and

NEW YORK, December 5.-Prices of stocks today advanced easily a fraction all around on a large and well-distributed volume of business. United States Steel preferred on the sale of 5.000 shares touched 951/2, compared with 95 on Saturday, and the common rose %. Colorado Fuel advanced 11/2 and Ontario and Western, Illinois Central, Linseed and General Electric gained large fractions. There was a very large absorption of Southern Railway at a rise of a half. With but few exceptions, early prices of the active stocks proved to be the best made during the first hour's business. Realizing was very heavy in all quarters, despite the vigorous strength displayed by Pennsylvania, Reading, Illinois Central and various minor stocks. The decline forced St. Paul, Atchison, Missouri Pacific, Louisville and Nashville, Union Pacific and New York Central slightly below last week's closing.

The realizing put prices pretty generally back to the level of Saturday, but Reading and some of the southwesterns showed good resistance. Reading's subsequent rise the coalers. duced Today. The usual grist of bills was dumped into the House hopper today to be ground out and disposed of during the session. Among the measures of interest was one by Representative Dalzell of Pennsylvania to lim-be appointed.

Representative Vreeland of New Jersey introduced a bill to prevent the use of devices calculated to give the impression that the United States government certifies to the equality of gold or silver used in the arts. The term "United States assay" is particularly proscribed.

Representative Morrell of Pennsylvania introduced a bill providing for the erection in Washington of a monumental statue to Rear Admiral Charles Stewart, who served seventy-one years in the United States navy. The Secretary of the Navy and the chairman of the joint commission of the library of the Senate and House are to have charge of the project. The sum of $50,000 is named in the bill.

Representative Goulden of New York introduced a bill providing that McDonald's colossal busts of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln be placed in each public school building in the District of Columbia.

of a tariff revision commission, to consist of ten members of the House of Represent-atives, and to report on the results of their labor at the first session of the Fifty-ninth resentative Dalzell of Pennsylvania to limit the sale of liquor in the District of Columbia on certain days. The bill provides that on New Year day, Washington's birthday, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving day, election day and inauguration day all saloons, bar rooms and public houses where spirituous liquors are dispensed shall be closed, and provides a penalty of $500 fine or 100 days in jail for violations.

Representative Spaulding of North Dakota introduced a bill providing for a permanent tariff commission, to consist of nine members, the compensation to be $5,000 each a year. It is provided that ex-members of Congress are eligible for positions on the commission, but no two are to be from the same state, and no one interested in any protected article of commerce shall be appointed.
