

O. J. DeMoll & Co. 1229, 1231, 1235 and 1237 G St.

Finest Pianos

—instruments whose superior qualities are recognized the world over.

WHEN you buy a piano buy a good one, and it will afford a lifetime of enjoyment. The pianos we offer are the kind that will endure until long after the next generation matures. More than ten leading makes are represented in this big stock. All are worthy instruments—pianos that are famed for substantial merits and superior musical qualities. We guarantee every instrument we sell, and we quote the fairest possible prices. Of the instruments shown, we direct special attention to the following:

- HARDMAN PIANOS, Priced from $400 to $500.
- VOSE PIANOS, Priced from $375 to $500.
- SOHMER PIANOS, Priced from $400 to $500.
- SHONINGER PIANOS, Priced from $350 to $450.
- HARRINGTON PIANOS, Priced from $225 to $300.
- MARTIN PIANOS, Priced from $200 to $250.

Piano Players.

The AUTOPIANO and the ALTOPIANO are leaders in the ranks of self-playing instruments. They represent the very latest achievements in construction and equipment. These instruments are the means of introducing good music into the homes whenever music is desired.

The handsome HARDMAN Piano, fitted with the AUTOTONE attachment, can be bought on easy $850 terms for.....

The AUTOPIANO — an ideal self-playing instrument — sells for..... $600

Generous allowance made for old pianos taken in exchange.

Special Values in Used Square Pianos.

- Weber Square..... $90
- Steinway Square..... $75
- Gabler Square..... $50
- Knabe Square..... $35
- Emerson Square..... $35
- Chickering Square..... $35

Special Values in Used Upright Pianos.

- $300 Irving..... $150
- $400 Vose & Sons..... $175
- $400 Steiff..... $175
- $300 Henning..... $175
- $400 Bradbury..... $190
- $400 Shoninger..... $275
- $400 Shoninger..... $290
- $400 Shoninger..... $290
- $400 Vose & Sons..... $325
- $450 Shoninger..... $350
- $500 Hardman..... $350
- $450 Sohmer..... $350
- $450 Hardman..... $360

O. J. DeMoll & Co., High-Grade Pianos, 1229, 1231, 1235, 1237 G St. N.W.

"Hair AND ITS Growth"

A copyrighted book—new. Particularly interesting to every person troubled with dandruff, falling of the hair or baldness. Edition limited. Write for free copy today.

The Modern Vacuum Cap Co., 909 BANCROFT BLOCK, DENVER, COLO. 8018-Su.1f

Light Station BROUGHAM

A magnificently constructed, richly designed Light Station Brougham. All glass top, full morocco trimmings, etc. $850

T. E. Young, CARRIAGE REPOSITORY, 464-466 PA. AVE. N.W.

MALARIA CURED

and the entire system built up by taking

MILBURN'S Malaria Capsules.

Read the directions and follow them out carefully. 25c. Sold by all druggists.

SOCIABILITIES this week are mainly in the interest of the buds and brides, the whirl starting off today with Miss Juliette Williams' debut luncheon at Chevy Chase.

Tomorrow Mrs. William Curtis Hill will entertain at a tea for her guest, Miss Ducau, and Tuesday afternoon Miss Evelyn Chew will make her debut at a tea given by her grandmother, Mrs. Tittan J. Coffey.

The Horsey-Lee wedding, early in the day, and the Washburn-Langhorne wedding at 4 o'clock are intended for companies limited to relatives and personal friends, while both take place in church.

Wednesday the coming out of Miss Laura Clifford Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wells, the Shibley-Belt and other weddings are the leading events.

Thanksgiving day has a debutante, Miss Olga Conover, and a bride, Miss Grace Mantz, whose marriage to Mr. William Francis Bowen will take place at 8 o'clock at St. Stephen's P. E. Church, with a reception for the wedding party and a few intimate friends at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Mantz, 2615 14th street.

Mrs. Charles G. Campbell has asked her friends to a tea Friday next, the day that Miss Marion Leutz's debut will occur, at a luncheon to be given by her mother.

Mrs. William Morton Grinnell, who has been here lately with her parents, Gen. and Mrs. Ernst, has taken an apartment for the winter in Paris and will sail early in January, accompanied by her two little ces Cornelia Coulter, daughter of Mr. B. F. Coulter of Los Angeles, will marry

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Sauter, 1419 10th street, are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary today, when they will be at home to their friends from 3 to 10.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ward of Port Chester, N. Y., formerly of this city, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter Lydia Marie to Mr. William Briggs Fosbury. The ceremony is to be performed at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Port Chester, Wednesday, November 28, at 7:30 o'clock, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents on Webster place. The bride party will be as follows: Miss Ernie Epley of this city, maid of honor, and Dorothy Baptista, flower girl; the Misses Rita Minsing, Rickle, Johansen of Washington D. C., and the Misses Florence and Bernice Brown, Ethel Miller, Anna Wilcox of Port Chester will be the bridesmaids.

The residence of Mrs. Mansfield, 418 D street northeast, was the scene of a surprise party on Tuesday evening November 20, given in honor of her daughter, Miss children. Mr. and Mrs. Grinnell, father and mother of her late husband, have lived in Paris for a number of years.

DEBUTANTES OF 1906.

Mrs. John W. Mackay has been in New York lately with her sister, the Countess Telford, but will shortly return to Paris, and later to her home on Carlton Terrace, London.

A notable event will be the marriage at noon Tuesday in St. Anthony's Chapel, St. Matthew's Church, Mon. Mary Digges Lee, daughter of the late Dr. Charles Carroll Lee of New York, and Mr. Outerbridge Horsey of Maryland. Miss Horsey will be maid of honor for her sister and Mr. Philip A. Carroll will be best man. Messrs. James P. Lee and Robert J. Collier and Messrs. Lee Horsey and Charles C. L. Horsey will be ushers. The bride will be escorted by her brother, Dr. Thomas S. Lee, and the ceremony will be performed by the rector of St. Matthew's, Rev. Thomas S. Lee, who is the bride's uncle. Rev. Father Buckley will celebrate the nuptial mass which will follow. A small wedding mass which will be given at the home of the bride's mother, 1501 18th street, before the departure of the couple for their honeymoon trip.

Ex-Senator and Mrs. Washburn of Minnesota and other relatives of the bridegroom have already arrived here to attend the wedding Tuesday afternoon at St. John's Church of Miss Alice Langhorne and Mr. Stanley Washburn. The bridal attendants will be Mrs. Powell Clayton, Jr., sister of the bride, as matron of honor, and Mr. E. C. Washburn, brother of the bridegroom, as best man. The ushers will include two other brothers of the bridegroom, W. D. Washburn, Jr., of Minneapolis and Cadwallader Washburn of New York, Mr. John H. Powell, Jr., of New York, Mr. Richard Barry of this city, Marshall Langhorne of Norway and Cary Langhorne, the two latter brothers of the bride. Mr. Richard Barry was an American newspaper correspondent with Mr. Washburn during the Japanese war. Mr. Marshall Langhorne is now on his way from Christiania, Norway, where he is in the consular service of the United States. A reception, to which the invitations are limited to personal friends and the bridal party, will follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Langhorne.

At the wedding of Miss Mary Elsie Belt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Belt, and Mr. James George Shibley next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at McKendree M. E. Church, the bride will be attended by a maid of honor, Miss Maude Tracy, and the following bridesmaids, Miss Elsie Hanna, Miss Agnes Hubbard, Miss O'Brian, and Miss Beatrice Kramer. Mr. Harold Martin will be best man and the following will serve as ushers: Messrs. Rickard, John Francis, Jr., Walter O'Bannon and Frederick Steckman. Miss Rose Maxwell Dickey will render a selection on the violin during the ceremony. A reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents, 1314 10th street.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Rapley of 1735 P street spent last week in New York visiting the horse show. In their apartment at the Waldorf-Astoria they were the central figures in a delightful Washington colony, all the members of which were in attendance at the horse show. Mr. and Mrs. Rapley returned home last evening.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Allison was filled with joyous young folk last Friday evening, the occasion being the celebration of the eighteenth birthday of their third daughter, Miss Eleanor A. Allison. The observance of her host of friends were numerous and handsome. Amusement appropriate to the occasion was the order of refreshments. The dining room, which was all repaired to the dining room, which was tastefully decorated with palms, smilax, carnations and roses when the good cheer continued around the table. There were present Mr. and Mrs. John H. Allison, parents of the debutante; Miss Edith Dooley, Miss Lenora Danabarger, Miss Maud Ridgeway, Miss Bease Volkersen, Miss Elsie Holmes, Miss Ethel Blinnz, Miss Katie Briel, Miss Agnes Mason, Miss Margaret Mason, Miss Louise Hoyle, Miss Capitola Allison, Miss Lillian Allison, Miss Ella Allison, Miss Laura Allison, Mr. Frank Crawford, Mr. Joseph Fineran, Mr. Clarence Fisher, Mr. Earl Watson, Mr. Augustine Mr. R. Groff, Mr. Robert St. Clair of Harrisburg, Pa., Mr. W. Clarke Allen, Mr. Lewis Johnston of Richmond, Va., Master T. Ellis Allison and Mr. and Mrs. James W. Allison.

Mrs. John Wesley Smith, with Mrs. M. D. Wickersham and her son Maurice and her niece, Miss Ethel McGrew Moneypanny of Columbus, Ohio, will sail Tuesday next on the Carpathia for Naples and will remain abroad about a year.

Mr. James C. McReynolds, assistant attorney general, will be best man at the wedding of his brother, Dr. Robert P. McReynolds of Philadelphia and Miss Fran-Emelia, on her sixteenth birthday. Miss Emelia was accompanied by a select party in the afternoon, and upon returning was greatly surprised by finding the parlor of her home filled with so many friends and schoolmates of old-fashioned and new games were played before partners were selected for supper, which was served at a nicely decorated and lighted table. Miss Emelia Mansfield and Mr. I. W. Shoemaker headed the long line and led the march into the dining room, where they took their places at the head of the table. Just a few minutes before 12 o'clock came the dancing of the old Virginia reel, in which every one took part and danced until midnight. Those present were Misses Emelia A. Mansfield, I. W. Shoemaker, Louise C. Warden, Clara L. Mansfield, Elizabeth Hettlinger, Catherine G. Davis, Ethel Johnson, Helen M. Tyler, Bertha L. Schaper, Emerald C. Herrmann, Lula Cook, Mary Davis, Messrs. Turner Carder, Warren H. Wagner, Sutton Jones, A. A. Dampier, Harry Ellis and Claude B. Latham.

The reception and ball which was given by Capt. and Mrs. Hawley aboard the United States revenue steamer Wachusett at Boston, upon which occasion their young daughter, Miss Beatrice M. Hawley, was introduced to society, was a most brilliant affair. The greatest interest of the occasion was exhibited by both officers and men attached to the ship, and their efforts in decorating the fine old frigate were most valuable.

The spacious cabin was decorated with palms and filled with flowers sent to the young debutante by numerous friends in distant and nearby cities, and the soft glow diffused by numerous pink-shaded electric lights made a scene of snow and ice.

The fair debutante wore a girlish gown of white point d'esprit lace trimmed with white satin ribbon and carried an armful of American Beauty roses. Her hair wore an exquisite gown of black lace over white taffeta. The spar deck was decorated here, as well as society generally. They were accompanied by a select party of diplomats are likely to be, and have besides musical tastes which have been highly cultivated.

Mrs. Mida Peabody entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Moore, 18 K street northwest, with a luncheon appropriately decorated for the occasion. Progressive euchre was played, and first prize was won by Mrs. Peabody. A beautiful supper was served, which was suitable to the occasion were given. Among those present were Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Randall, Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Bennett, Mr. Muller, Miss Dodd, Miss Horton, Miss De Lay, Miss Addie Clark and Mrs. Peabody.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Newton of Virginia and their four children have come to the city to spend the winter. They have taken the home of Mrs. Clara Barnes, 1319 Vermont avenue. The Misses Newton, who are very interesting young ladies, gave a musical Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Tompkins have issued cards for the wedding reception of their daughter, Lida Roberta, and Mr. Charles H. Tompkins, Friday evening, November 30.

Miss Esther P. Denny, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Denny, was given a luncheon yesterday by her mother, one of the pleasant occasions to mark her debut. The other guests were Miss Leutz, Miss Crawford, Miss Schaefer, Miss Williams, Miss Dooze, Miss Schroeder, Miss Newlands, Miss Jennings, Miss Symons and Miss Wells.

Mrs. Thomas F. Richardson, who has rented her home here, will soon sail for Europe to join her husband, Mr. Charles Richardson, who is an attaché of the American embassy at Copenhagen, Denmark.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Watson of the British embassy will leave tomorrow for Brookline to attend the wedding of the cousin of the latter, Miss Marion Low, daughter of Mr. Augustus Low, who is to marry Mr. Raymond Tuesday. Miss Maxwell, stepdaughter of Rear Admiral Barker, will also go on for this wedding.

Washington and Mr. Will Hickson of Lynchburg, and there were six groomsmen.

The six bridesmaids wore white net over white taffeta, made princess, and each carried a large bunch of pink chrysanthemums. The maid of honor, the bride's sister, wore pink crepe de chine over taffeta, and carried pink chrysanthemums. The bride was gowned in white chiffon cloth over liberty satin en traine, made princess, and trimmed in real lace, with bertha and pearl ornaments. Her long tulle veil was caught with a handsome diamond crescent. A gift of the groom, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley, tied with white gauze ribbon. A wedding supper followed before the departure of the couple for a trip to Canada. Mrs. Walker and Mrs. A. Parkins of this city were present at the wedding.

Miss Pauline Heilmiller of Q street northwest entertained informally Thursday in honor of her birthday.

Dr. and Mrs. Huts entertained last Thursday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Thiele of Fort Wayne, Ind. Mr. Thiele is at present the secretary to the treasurer. The features of the evening were cards and music.

Representative and Mrs. Page of North Carolina who are with the Cadmus for the congressional season, have gone to New York to spend a week.

Miss Luella Hughes, who spent the past month in New Hampshire, returned last week after having a very enjoyable trip.

The three attractive young daughters of the minister of Ecuador are decided acquisitions to the South American circle

Philipsborn THE OUTER GARMENT SHOP. 608 TO 614 ELEVENTH STREET.

To meet your demands, to fulfill fairly and squarely your expectations, to disappoint in nowise and to make fast friends—that is the purpose of this store. Fair prices for quality that is the best of its kind. Prompt and courteous treatment without regard to the amount of the purchase. The same spirit of welcome whether you come to buy or only to look. Continual effort to increase your confidence. A desire to have you think of this store as the store to go to when your object is to obtain the greatest value. Each item below will convince you of the truth of these plain facts.

We Have Especially Prepared and Arranged an Extraordinary Sale of Ladies' Outergarments

Various Lengths in Black Broadcloth, also White, Pink, Champagne, Red, Light Blue and Pearl Gray, Fur-lined Outergarments and Fancy Long Coats, in Plaids and Mixtures.

The Greatest Values in Coats We Have Ever Offered

Black Broadcloth Outergarments.....	15.00	20.00	32.00
Outergarments in Evening Shades.....	25.00	29.75	45.00
Fancy Full-length Coats.....	12.50	17.50	25.00
Fur-lined Outergarments.....		30.00	55.00

Ladies' and Misses' Tailored Suits

- $55.00 Chiffon Velvet Suits, black and colors..... 42.00
- $45.00 Broadcloth Tailored Suits, several styles..... 35.00
- $45.00 Tight-fitting Jacket Suits of Broadcloth..... 35.00

Ladies' Gowns and Costumes

- Princess Gowns of Messaline and Taffeta Silk..... 32.00
- Princess Gowns of Crepe de Chine, all colors..... 35.00
- Silk-lined Voile Dresses, all colors..... 32.00

Separate Walking Skirts

- Separate Walking Skirts of Chiffon Broadcloth..... Value, 20.00..... 15.00
- Separate Walking Skirts of Voile..... Value, 15.00..... 10.00

Waist Department

- Messaline and Taffeta Silk Waists..... 3.95 4.95 7.95 9.75
- Lace Waists, Net, Cluny and Baby Irish..... 4.95 7.50 9.75 15.00
- Tailored Waists, Linen, Velling, Poplin, Flannel 1.50 2.50 3.50

Fur Department

- Black Russian Lynx Sets, Muff and Boa..... 25.00
- Natural & Sable Squirrel Sets, Muff and Boa..... 13.50 20.00
- Persian Paw Sets, Muff and Boa..... 15.00 20.00
- Eastern Mink Sets, Muff and Throw..... 25.00 40.00

—The Handsomest—
—Specimens of—
Solid Mahogany FURNITURE.

MAHOGANY of fine quality is constantly becoming scarcer—hence the trend to the use of inferior imitations in manufacturing furniture. The mahogany pieces we offer for sale are made of genuine solid San Domingo mahogany, the finest of cabinet woods.

Excellent examples of Old Colonial Styles constitute a special feature of this exceptional showing.

Our stocks of Draperies, Laces and Upholstery Stuffs embrace the newest and richest effects.

RICHARD W. HENDERSON,
1109 F St. N. W. Opposite Columbia Theater.

EXQUISITE—effects in Painting and Papering are produced by our people. Consult us about beautifying your home. Estimates free.

PLITT, Painter, 1727 7th st. n.w. Phone No. 4123.

Healing by Mental Suggestion.

Mrs. Sexton treats patients in their homes or at her office, The Cup Inn, 723 17th St. n.w. Chronic nervous conditions and drug habits often cured.

PLATT, Counsellor, 9-30 10th St. n.w. WITHOUT CHARGE. Telephone Main 6181. 4:15 to 6 p.m. CO-OPERATING WITH PHYSICIANS. 6010-628, St.

Stylish Millinery
At 20% Off.
Many beautiful and becoming Hats of our own creation—duplicates of stylish imported models—at 20% discount from regular prices.
Magnificent line of Fashionable Fur.
Mrs. C. Stiebel, 1113 G St. n.w. 10-10-10

worn, and orange blossoms caught the veil of tulle. An ivory prayer book showered with valley lilies was carried by the bride. The matron of honor wore a pink messaline satin gown and a hat of deep brown velvet. She carried pink chrysanthemums. The pink messaline satin and a toque of white marabou feathers were worn by the maid of honor. Her flowers were American Beauty roses. The bridesmaids were attired in gowns of white net and wore white marabou toques. Their bouquets were of American beauty roses.

Miss Lillian M. Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Scott, was married to Mr. Daniel D. Welch of Washington, last Wednesday morning, at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church in Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. J. Dacey. The bride wore a traveling dress of navy blue broadcloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Maude Barnett, wore a dress similar in every respect to the bride's, but carried yellow chrysanthemums. The groom was in a suit of blue cloth, and the groomsmen were in suits of blue cloth. The bride party consisted of the bride, bridesmaid, two flower girls, and two maids of honor. A reception followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Welch left for a northern trip and upon their return will live at the home of the bride's parents in Baltimore.

A surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. A. McKie, at their cottage, Brightwood Park D. C., on Saturday, November 24. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Refreshments were served, the table being handsomely decorated. Those present were: Mrs. J. Gernuller, Mrs. R. A.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Childs, daughter of Mr. Harvey Childs, Jr., and Mr. Charles A. Foster, son of Senator and Mrs. Foster, was a very beautiful affair, marked by great beauty in the matter of church decoration and much solemnity, last week in Pittsburg. The reception was a brilliant affair.

At the supper guests were seated at small tables placed in the dining room, the bride's table being arranged in one of the upper rooms, with places for twenty-eight. Later the same evening Mr. and Mrs. Foster left for their wedding trip. Upon their return they will live in woodlawn road, Pittsburg.

The church was decorated with palms and the bride was given a luncheon yesterday by her mother, one of the pleasant occasions to mark her debut. The other guests were Miss Leutz, Miss Crawford, Miss Schaefer, Miss Williams, Miss Dooze, Miss Schroeder, Miss Newlands, Miss Jennings, Miss Symons and Miss Wells.

The marriage of Miss Augusta Hardin and Mr. Ralph Smith last Wednesday evening was an event of great social interest in Atlanta. The bride was attended by Mrs. Charles H. Hardin, matron of honor, Miss Lucile Hardin, Miss Kate Harris of Birmingham, Miss Mary Lou Smith and Miss Annie Laurie Puller, bridesmaids. Mr. John Smith was best man, and the groomsmen included Mr. Edwin Johnson, Mr. Marshall Lane, Mr. John F. Hardin and Mr. Clarence Constantine of Athens. The ushers were Mr. John S. Cohen, Mr. M. L. Britton, Mr. Royal Daniel and Mr. Forrest Adair.

The bridesmaids wore white liberty silk, and carried bouquets of red roses tied with white tulle. The matron of honor wore white messaline panels of Irish lace and carried swansonia.

The bride, who is an unusually charming young woman, wore a white chiffon gown, its bertha of old point lace, which has been in the family for a hundred years, and the skirt trimmed elaborately with valentines lace. Her bouquet was of bride roses and swansonia.

The church was decorated with palms and the bride was given a luncheon yesterday by her mother, one of the pleasant occasions to mark her debut. The other guests were Miss Leutz, Miss Crawford, Miss Schaefer, Miss Williams, Miss Dooze, Miss Schroeder, Miss Newlands, Miss Jennings, Miss Symons and Miss Wells.