PINEHURST PLEASURES.

PINEHURST, N. C., February 9.-Interest week centered about the first equestrian gymkhana, a good field of finished riders participating and a company of several hundred onlookers enjoying the fun. The program was one of novelty, embracing contests which required skill and nerve. as well as those which were mainly to pro-

Among the new features was the "V. C.." or dummy-carrying contest, in which par-ticipants were required to ride to a given point, dismount, pick up the dummy figure supposed to represent an injured soldier and return to the starting point. Participants rode in heats, four at a time, and the antics of the horses as they approached "the injured" kept the riders busy and the crowd interested.

Another novelty was "the Cinderella." or elipper race, in which the men were asked to select slippers from a box fuli in the center of the ring and to fit them to the feet of waiting young women at the ring-side, who exercised great care to keep their slippered feet, the key to the situation, carefully hidden.

Of special golf events there were several, among them a match play team match of four teams of ten men each. Scoring was on the point system, two points being accounted for at each hole, one for the best individual score and another for the best total score of partners, halved holes in either case counting half a point in favor of each couple. The teams were divided up into couples, which met couples from other teams. As a novelty the event stands high up among contests of its kind held, here.

Events of the coming week include a large german at the Carolina, a lecture by Opie Reed, a bazaar for the benefit of the Catholic church building fund, a children's golf tournament and the first of the Country Club's stated tennis tournaments, men's Of special golf events there were several, day dinner given by Miss Esther Tufts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tufts of Boston at the Carolina. Late Washington arrivals include Rear Admiral Theo. F. Jewell, who is here for an extended visit.

PROPOSED CHANGE IN NAME. Plans of Women's Army and Navy

Club Announced. ing of the Women's Army and Navy Canteen Club, at which a proposed change in the name to include the word "temperance" will be considered. A vote is also being taken for national officers, and it is said that Dr. Anita Newcomb McGee will be chosen as president of the general body. There are now two clubs in Washington, two in New York, one in Illinois and one in several states. The organization is working for the restoration of the army canteen or post exchange and for "the general betterment of the American soldier and sailor. and Mr. Timothy A. Fitzgerald occurred last Wednesday at St. Aloysius Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father J. B. Kellerher, assisted by the bride's cousin, Joseph Geier, and the groom's brother, Bernard Fitzgerald. The bride was dressed in white crepe de chine, trimmed in real lace, and wore a long tulle veil, fastened with orange blossoms, and carried brides' roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Edith M. Loveless of Bloomingdale, was attired in blue Japanese silk and carried pink carnations. The best man was the bride's brother, Bernard A. Eslin. Supper was served and a reception held at the bride's former residence, 601 L street northeast. The couple will receive their friends at their home, 1117 6th street northeast.

Richmond Society

RICHMOND, Va., February 9, 1907. Mrs. Swanson entertained a number of her friends at a bridge party given in the executive mansion yesterday afternoon. The parlers were fragrant with spring flowers that were most tastefully arranged everywhere, white lilacs and daffodils making lovely decorations. Mrs. Swanson was beautifully gowned, as she always is. Her guests were all representative society women and after the game an elegant collation was served in the dining room, the different courses being arranged in the daintiest manner possible.

The Richmond German Club will give its last dance before Lent on Monday evening next. On the principle of keeping the best back, this cotillion promises to be the mos brilliant of the entire winter series. As the dance comes in Valentine week, there are to be all sorts of pretty favors in which cupids and hearts form the ruling device. The Richmond german proposes to give a beautiful Easter dance and to make it a signal event in the history of the organiza-tion. Already, much interest is aroused, and many Easter gowns will be planned with reference to this dance.
