How to Write and Answer Classified Want Ads

How to Write a Want Ad to Sell a Dog

HE kind of Dog you want to sell will determine largely the sort of Want Ad to write. For instance, if you want to sell a Blenheim Spaniel, you would appeal most likely to women; if a blooded Bull Terrier, men would probably be most interested; if a Scotch Collie, appeal to the mother or father of Children. If you want to sell a watch Dog, shepherd or a hunting Dog, be sure to give for what purpose the Dog you want to sell is

To sell a Dog to the RIGHT person and get the most money for your sale, the Want Ad columns of The Star cannot be excelled. Go into detail sufficient to get the interest of the reader most likely to buy your Dog. State breed, age, sex, weight and markings. Give the valuable features of your Dog-whether worth most as pet, household, show, hunting, farm, watch or trick Dog.

Any special training or peculiarity not common to the special breed of Dog you sell is worth while to mention. Especially is this a good point to bring out if the animal is to be bought for the use of Children as a companion. In such a case you should appeal to the parents of the Children, suggesting the delightfulness of the Dog as a playmate. Say where Dog may be seen, whether you have photo or can furnish pedigree. Name price or say that more information will be given on reEXAMPLE

For Show or Home. FOR SALE-HANDSOME, PURE-BRED COLLIN pup (male), 6 months old; sired by the famous Bench Show winner, Sir Admiral; out of Blue Heather, the unbeaten Madison Square champion; light tan in color, pure white markings; bead and lears perfect; weight, 22 pounds; an excellent playmate for children. To the one locking for a strictly high-class dog of the finest thool here is a real bargain. This is an excellent opportunity for some one to get a good show dog; pup may be seen at owner's kennels. Photograph, price and further information furnished on request. Address R. H. B., Star office.

This Want Ad stould be Classified under "Dogs, Pets," etc.

O sum up—State for what purpose Dog is best adapted. Give full description and mention valuable features of Dog for special purposes
