Miss Amelia Neville Oliver, the daughter of Mrs. James B. Oliver of Shields, Pa., and Mr. William J. Crittendon, a son of former Gov. Thomas L. Crittendon of Missourl, were married last Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Oliver residence. The Rev. Dr. Maitland Alexander, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, per-formed the ceremony in presence of a small party of relatives and personal friends. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Daniel Leete Oliver, and the Marquise Alfred Dusmet de Smours of Italy attended her sister as matron of honor. A small niece, Miss Neville Johnson, the daughter of Dr. Loren B. F. Johnson of Washington D. C., was flower girl. The only other attendant was Huston Crittendon of Kansas City, Mo., a brother of the groom, as best man. All 'he appointments, though handsome, were very simple, owing to the Oliver family being in mourning. The bride were white satin and lace, with tulle veil and orange blossoms, and carried lilies of the valley. Her sister, also in white, carried white sweet peas. The house decorations were mainly of white blosoms and foliage. Crittendon and his bride will sail for Mexico this week, to be gone until the fall, when they will make their home with Mrs. Oliver for a time. The Marquise de Smours who arrived in New York June 16, with the marquis, from Italy, will make a visit of some length with her mother before returning to Italy. The bride, through her mother, is a descendant of the old revolutionary families of Nevilles, Leetes and Shields, being a niece of Capt. David

Mrs. Harry St. George Tucker has re cently had conferred upon her a mark of great distinction by her imperial highness the Empress of Japan. A pretty wedding took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, jr., when their daughter Beulah and married by Rev. F. D. Power, who was the officiating minister at the marriage of the bride's parents. Only the immediate families were present.

The bride was escorted by her father. She wore a dainty mull and lace gown and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her only attendant, Miss Rebecca Wheat, the groom's sister, wore a gown of pink mull and lace and carried bridesmaid roses. The groom had for best man Mr. William G. Galliher. Mr. W. Scott Macgill, a lifelong friend of the bride, rendered the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" and other musical selections.

A pleasing feature of the occasion was the fact that it was the eighty-third anniversary of the birth of the bride's grand-mother, Mrs. John W. Gardiner, who was present. The popularity of the young couple was attested by the large number of hanlsome presents received. 8:30 to 10 o'clock, after which the bride and groom departed for a trip to Atlantic City and points south. They will be at home to their friends after July 15 at 2020 1st street
