Weapons Trial.

George Gorham, a special policeman of Falls Church, Va., was a prisoner in the dock in the Police Court this morning on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Upon the plea of Mayor Payne of Falls Church, who explained that Gorham was in pursuit of a fugitive from justice from that municipality, Gorham was released on his

"A special officer of Virginia has no right to bring a gun into the District," commented Judge Kimball. "But where he is in close pursuit of a fugitive when he comes into this jurisdiction it is excusable."

Gorham rushed up to Policeman Stein braker on 33d street in Georgetown Saturday and told the bluecoat to arrest a man going down the street. Policeman Steinbraker started in pursuit, and as he did he saw Gorham puli a pistol out of his pocket and hold it in his hand. Gorham's arrest followed. The testimony showed, only successive the contraction of the cont however, that the man pointed out was wanted at Falls Church; that Gorham had a warrant for him and had chased him across the Aqueduct bridge.

The President Calm.

President Fallieres was cool and collected when the cortege stopped. The diplomats who were following the president's landau alighted from their carriages and hurried to the side of M. Fallieres. Finding that nobody had been injured, by the president's orders, the cortege moved on.

In the meantime two policemen seized Maille, who made no resistance, but the police, with difficulty, prevented the irate crowds from lynching the prisoner until a cordon of reserves came up and conducted hom to the station. There Maille refused to give any reasons for his act, had been unhinged by fancied grievances. A Revolutionist.

It is believed also that he aided in the revolutionary agitation of the General Federation of Labor and the anti-militarists. There is no reason to suspect a plot, as Maille only arrived here from Rouen Satur-

Maille appeared before an examining magistrate last night, and the authorities only succeeded in extracting from him a rambling statement about family persecu-tion directed against him. It was in order to draw public attention to his grievances, he said, that he fired the shots. REV. H. M. GEREN RESIGNS.

Leaves Anacostia Church to Accept Rev. Hiram M. Geren, pastor of the Anacostia Baptist Church, yesterday presented his resignation, following the morning service. Mr. Geren had previously indicated to the board of deacons his intention of retiring, and his action yesterday proved to be no surprise, therefore, to the members of the church, who held a business meeting after the receipt of the pastor's resignation, and, The announcement was made at the same time that Mr. Geren will go to the growing towns of Perris and Italy, in eastern Texas, to assume the charge of two flourishing Baptist churches there. His resignation becomes effective July 31, but his service at Anacostla church closes next Sunday. He will then leave for a brief visit to his home in Cleveland, Tenn., following which he will go to Texas and enter upon his new

The retiring pastor stated last evening that his chief reason for leaving the Anacostia charge is found in the enlarged field and increased opportunities. Mr. Geren de-clared the relationship between the mem-bers of the church and himself had albers of the church and himself had al-ways been cordial, and would terminate in the same condition. Mr. Geren is a native of Cleveland, Tenn. He graduated from Carson and Newman College, in Jefferson City, Tenn., and from the Southern Bap-tist Theological Seminary, at Louisville, Ky. He came to Washington six years ago, preaching at Brookland, and also at the Centennial Baptist Church in this city. In Centennial Baptist Church in this city

Mission Praise Service. A midsummer praise service was held last night at the Homeward Bound Mission, 119 Pennsylvania avenue, in charge of Mrs. Haslam, wife of the commander, a feature of the occasion being the presence of several out-of-town Christian workers, After the singing of "There is a Fountain Filled with Blood," Capt, Theodore Valiant led in prayer. The lesson was by William Ott of the First Presbyterian Church, and Lieut. Haslam sang a solo. An address was delivered by Rev. S. H. Saunders of the Christian Workers' Association of America, who is stationed in Baltimore. He was followed by Rev. Herbert S. Murray of the Christian Evangelical Society of Baltimore There was a large audience present, and the visiting clergymen spoke in praise of the "good work that is being accomplished in Washington." Announcement was made that the topic for Capt. Valiant's lecture Friday evening will be "The Mind."
